- (1) Where tax is due and payable, Revenue Scotland may demand the sum charged from the person liable to pay it.
- (2) On payment of the tax, Revenue Scotland must give a receipt.

Fees for payment

222 Fees for payment

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide that, where a person makes a payment to Revenue Scotland or a person authorised by Revenue Scotland using a method of payment specified in the regulations, the person must also pay a fee specified in, or determined in accordance with, the regulations.
- (2) A method of payment may only be specified in regulations under this section if Revenue Scotland expects that it, or the person authorised by it, will be required to pay a fee or charge (however described) in connection with amounts paid using that method of payment.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (3) The fee provided for in regulations under this section must not exceed what is reasonable having regard to the costs incurred by Revenue Scotland, or a person authorised by it, in paying the fee or charge mentioned in subsection (2).
- (4) Regulations under this section—
 - (a) may make provision about the time and manner in which the fee must be paid,

- (3) A copy of any document provided to Revenue Scotland for the purposes of this Act or any other enactment and certified by it to be such a copy is admissible in any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, to the same extent as the document itself.
