

Courts Reform (Scotland) Act 2014

2014 asp 18

PART 3

CIVIL PROCEDURE

CHAPTER 1

SHERIFF COURT

Interdicts and other orders: effect outside sheriffdom

86 Power to enable sheriff to make orders having effect outside sheriffdom

- (1) In this section, “relevant order” means an order—
- (a) which a sheriff has competence and jurisdiction to make in civil proceedings, but
 - (b) which, apart from this section, the sheriff could make only so as to have effect or be enforceable within the sheriff’s sheriffdom.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers may by order provide for a sheriff to have competence to make relevant orders having effect (and being capable of being enforced) outside the sheriff’s sheriffdom as well as within that sheriffdom (referred to in this section as “extended competence”).
- (3) An order under subsection (2) may—
- (a) make provision in relation to all relevant orders or in relation only to specified categories or descriptions of relevant order,
 - (b) make different provision in relation to different categories or descriptions of relevant order,
 - (c) provide for a sheriff to have extended competence only—
 - (i) in such circumstances,
 - (ii) in relation to such civil proceedings, or
 - (iii) subject to such conditions,as are specified in the order,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (d) make provision about jurisdiction in relation to proceedings for relevant orders,
 - (e) make provision for the transfer of proceedings for relevant orders between different sheriffdoms,
 - (f) make provision about the enforcement of orders made in the exercise of extended competence (including provision about jurisdiction in relation to enforcement proceedings).
- (4) Subsection (3) does not affect the generality of section 133(1).
- (5) In subsection (1), “order”—
- (a) includes “interim order”, but
 - (b) does not include an interdict or an interim interdict.
