2015 asp 1

PART 4

INTERPRETATION

57      Meaning of “food legislation”

- (1) In this Act, “food legislation” means legislation for the time being in force—
- (a) relating to food, including in particular legislation relating to—
    - (i) the protection of the public from risks to health which may arise in connection with the consumption of food,
    - (ii) the production, processing, importing, exporting or distribution of food,
    - (iii) the labelling, marking, presentation or advertisement of food, or
    - (iv) the descriptions which may be applied to food, or
  - (b) relating to food sources or animal feeding stuffs, but only so far as the legislation relates to food matters.
- (2) In subsection (1), “legislation” means any enactment, or any obligation or restriction to which section 2(1) of the European Communities Act 1972 applies.
