

Air Weapons and Licensing (Scotland) Act 2015

2015 asp 10

PART 1

AIR WEAPONS

Permits

12 Police permits

- (1) The chief constable may, on the application of an individual, grant a permit (“a police permit”) authorising the individual—
 - (a) to possess or acquire an air weapon without holding an air weapon certificate, or
 - (b) to sell (or expose for sale) an air weapon in the course of that individual's business.
- (2) A police permit must not be granted to an individual who is prohibited from possessing an air weapon or other firearm under section 21 of the 1968 Act.
- (3) A police permit expires (unless earlier revoked or cancelled) on the expiry date specified in the permit.
- (4) An application for a police permit is valid only if it complies with the requirements of any regulations under section 36 which apply to the application.
