

Health (Tobacco, Nicotine etc. and Care) (Scotland) Act 2016

2016 asp 14

The Bill for this Act of the Scottish Parliament was passed by the Parliament on 3rd March 2016 and received Royal Assent on 6th April 2016

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to make provision about tobacco, nicotine and related products, in particular to make provision about retailing, to amend the prohibition on smoking in certain areas and to control advertising and promotion; to make provision about a duty of candour following serious incidents in the course of providing care; to make provision about offences applying to ill-treatment or neglect where care is provided; and for connected purposes.

PART 1

TOBACCO, NICOTINE VAPOUR PRODUCTS AND SMOKING

CHAPTER 1

SALE AND PURCHASE OF TOBACCO AND NICOTINE VAPOUR PRODUCTS

Nicotine vapour products

1 Nicotine vapour products

After section 35 of the 2010 Act insert—

“35A Meaning of “nicotine vapour product”

- (1) In this Part, a “nicotine vapour product” is—
- (a) a device which is intended to enable the inhalation of nicotine-containing vapour by an individual,
 - (b) a device which is intended to enable the inhalation of other vapour by an individual but is intended to resemble and be operated in a similar way to a device within paragraph (a),

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (c) an item which is intended to form part of a device within paragraph (a) or (b),
 - (d) a substance which is intended to be vaporised by a device within paragraph (a) or (b) (and any item containing such a substance).
- (2) But the following are not nicotine vapour products—
- (a) a tobacco product,
 - (b) a smoking related product,
 - (c) a medicinal product (within the meaning of the Human Medicines Regulations 2012 (S.I. 2012/1916)),
 - (d) a medical device (within the meaning of the Medical Devices Regulations 2002 (S.I. 2002/618)).”.

Sale and purchase of tobacco and nicotine vapour products

2 Sale of nicotine vapour products to persons under 18

- (1) After section 4 of the 2010 Act insert—

“4A Sale of nicotine vapour products to persons under 18

- (1) A person who sells a nicotine vapour product to a person under the age of 18 commits an offence.
 - (2) It is a defence to a charge in proceedings against a person (“the accused”) under subsection (1) that—
 - (a) the accused believed the person under the age of 18 (“the customer”) to be aged 18 or over, and
 - (b) the accused had taken reasonable steps to establish the customer’s age.
 - (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), the accused is to be treated as having taken reasonable steps to establish the customer’s age if and only if—
 - (a) the accused was shown any of the documents mentioned in subsection (4), and
 - (b) that document would have convinced a reasonable person as to the customer’s age.
 - (4) The documents referred to in subsection (3)(a) are any document bearing to be—
 - (a) a passport,
 - (b) a European Union photocard driving licence, or
 - (c) such other document, or a document of such description, as may be prescribed.
 - (5) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.”.
- (2) The italic heading immediately preceding section 4 of the 2010 Act becomes “Sale and purchase of tobacco and nicotine vapour products”.

3 Age verification policy

(1) After section 4A of the 2010 Act (inserted by section 2) insert—

“4B Age verification policy

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person—
 - (a) carries on a tobacco or nicotine vapour product business, and
 - (b) fails to operate an age verification policy in respect of premises at which the person carries on the tobacco or nicotine vapour product business.
 - (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to premises (“the business premises”) from which—
 - (a) tobacco products, cigarette papers or nicotine vapour products are, in pursuance of a sale, despatched for delivery to different premises, and
 - (b) no other tobacco or nicotine vapour product business is carried on from the business premises.
 - (3) An “age verification policy” is a policy that steps are to be taken to establish the age of a person attempting to buy a tobacco product, cigarette papers or a nicotine vapour product on the premises (the “customer”) if it appears to the person selling the tobacco product, cigarette papers or nicotine vapour product that the customer may be under the age of 25 (or such older age as may be specified in the policy).
 - (4) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations amend the age specified in subsection (3).
 - (5) The Scottish Ministers may publish guidance on matters relating to age verification policies, including, in particular, guidance about—
 - (a) steps that should be taken to establish a customer’s age,
 - (b) documents that may be shown to the person selling a tobacco product, cigarette papers or a nicotine vapour product as evidence of a customer’s age,
 - (c) training that should be undertaken by the person selling the tobacco product, cigarette papers or nicotine vapour product,
 - (d) the form and content of notices that should be displayed in the premises,
 - (e) the form and content of records that should be maintained in relation to an age verification policy.
 - (6) A person who carries on a tobacco or nicotine vapour product business must have regard to guidance published under subsection (5) when operating an age verification policy.
 - (7) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale.”.
- (2) In section 40(4) of the 2010 Act (subordinate legislation subject to affirmative procedure) before “section 24” insert—
“section 4B(4)”.

4 Sale by persons under 18

After section 4B of the 2010 Act (inserted by section 3) insert—

“4C Sale of tobacco or nicotine vapour products by persons under 18

- (1) A responsible person who allows a tobacco product, cigarette papers or a nicotine vapour product to be sold by a person under the age of 18 commits an offence.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), “responsible person” means—
 - (a) where the sale is at premises which are noted in a registered person’s entry in the Register, the registered person for those premises,
 - (b) where the sale is at premises which are not noted in a registered person’s entry in the Register—
 - (i) any employer of the person who made the sale, and
 - (ii) any other person having management or control of those premises.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a sale which—
 - (a) is made at premises which are noted in a registered person’s entry in the Register, and
 - (b) is authorised by the registered person for those premises.
- (4) Each authorisation mentioned in subsection (3)(b) must be recorded and kept at the premises at which a sale by a person under the age of 18 is made.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers may prescribe—
 - (a) the form and content of authorisations made under subsection (3)(b),
 - (b) the method of recording authorisations for the purposes of subsection (4).
- (6) An authorisation is, for the purposes of subsection (3)(b), deemed not to have been made, if—
 - (a) it is not recorded and kept in accordance with subsection (4), or
 - (b) it is not made in accordance with any provision made under subsection (5).
- (7) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale.”.

5 Defence of due diligence for certain offences

After section 4C of the 2010 Act (inserted by section 4) insert—

“4D Defence of due diligence for certain offences

- (1) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence to which this section applies to prove that the person (or any employee or agent of the person) took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to prevent the offence being committed.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) This section applies to an offence under any of the following provisions of this Act—
- (a) section 4(1),
 - (b) section 4A(1),
 - (c) section 4C(1).”.

6 Purchase of nicotine vapour products on behalf of persons under 18

After section 6 of the 2010 Act insert—

“6A Purchase of nicotine vapour products on behalf of persons under 18

- (1) A person aged 18 or over who knowingly buys or attempts to buy a nicotine vapour product on behalf of a person under the age of 18 commits an offence.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale.”.

7 Extension of vending machine prohibition

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations amend the definition of “vending machine” in section 9(3) of the 2010 Act (prohibition of vending machines) so as to include automatic machines for the sale of nicotine vapour products.
- (2) In subsection (1), “nicotine vapour products” has the meaning given in section 35A of the 2010 Act.

 - (f) the title becomes “FIXED PENALTY FOR OFFENCES UNDER SECTIONS 1, 2, 3, 4A, 4B AND 4C(5)”.

DUTY OF CANDOUR

Duty of candour procedure

21 Incident which activates duty of candour procedure

- (1) A responsible person must follow the duty of candour procedure set out in section 22 as soon as reasonably practicable after becoming aware that subsection (2) applies to a person who has received—
 - (a) a health service from the responsible person,
 - (b) a care service from the responsible person, or
 - (c) a social work service from the responsible person.
- (2) This subsection applies to a person if—
 - (a) an unintended or unexpected incident occurred in the provision of a health service, a care service or a social work service to the person, and
 - (b) in the reasonable opinion of a registered health professional—
 - (i) that incident appears to have resulted in or could result in an outcome mentioned in subsection (4), and
 - (ii) that outcome relates directly to the incident rather than to the natural course of the person's illness or underlying condition.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(b), a responsible person must ensure that the registered health professional who gives the opinion following an unintended or unexpected incident is not an individual who was involved in the incident.
- (4) The outcomes are—
 - (a) the death of the person,
 - (b) a permanent lessening of bodily, sensory, motor, physiologic or intellectual functions (including removal of the wrong limb or organ or brain damage) (“severe harm”),
 - (c) harm which is not severe harm but which results in—
 - (i) an increase in the person's treatment,
 - (ii) changes to the structure of the person's body,
 - (iii) the shortening of the life expectancy of the person,
 - (iv) an impairment of the sensory, motor or intellectual functions of the person which has lasted, or is likely to last, for a continuous period of at least 28 days,
 - (v) the person experiencing pain or psychological harm which has been, or is likely to be, experienced by the person for a continuous period of at least 28 days,
 - (d) the person requiring treatment by a registered health professional in order to prevent—
 - (i) the death of the person, or
 - (ii) any injury to the person which, if left untreated, would lead to one or more of the outcomes mentioned in paragraph (b) or (c).
- (5) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations modify subsection (4).

22 Duty of candour procedure

- (1) The “duty of candour procedure” means the actions to be taken by the responsible person in accordance with regulations made by the Scottish Ministers.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may in particular make provision about—
- (a) the notification to be given by the responsible person,
 - (b) the apology to be provided by the responsible person to the relevant person,
 - (c) the actions to be taken by the responsible person to offer and arrange a meeting with the relevant person, including asking the relevant person whether the relevant person wishes to receive an account of the incident as mentioned in section 21(2) or information about further steps taken,
 - (d) the actions which must be taken at, and following, such a meeting,
 - (e) an account of the incident as mentioned in section 21(2), information about further steps taken and any other information to be provided by the responsible person,
 - (f) the form and manner in which information must be provided,
 - (g) the circumstances in which the responsible person is to make available, or provide information about, support to persons affected by the incident,
 - (h) the keeping of information by the responsible person,
 - (i) steps to be taken by the responsible person—
 - (i) to review the circumstances leading to the incident, and
 - (ii) following such a review,
 even if the relevant person has advised that the relevant person does not wish to receive an account of the incident as mentioned in section 21(2) or information about further steps taken,
 - (j) training to be undertaken by a responsible person,
 - (k) training, supervision and support to be provided by a responsible person to any person carrying out any part of the procedure on behalf of the responsible person.
- (3) In this section “relevant person” means—
- (a) the person who has received the health service, the care service or the social work service, or
 - (b) where that person—
 - (i) has died, or
 - (ii) is, in the opinion of the responsible person, lacking in capacity or otherwise unable to make decisions about the service provided,
 a person acting on behalf of that person.

23 Apologies

- (1) For the purposes of this Part, an “apology” means a statement of sorrow or regret in respect of the unintended or unexpected incident.
- (2) An apology or other step taken in accordance with the duty of candour procedure under section 22 does not of itself amount to an admission of negligence or a breach of a statutory duty.

24 Reporting and monitoring

- (1) A responsible person who provides a health service, a care service or a social work service during a financial year must prepare an annual report on the duty of candour as soon as reasonably practicable after the end of that financial year.
- (2) The report must set out in relation to the financial year—
 - (a) information about the number and nature of incidents to which the duty under section 21(1) has applied in relation to a health service, a care service or a social work service provided by the responsible person,
 - (b) an assessment of the extent to which the responsible person carried out the duty under section 21(1),
 - (c) information about the responsible person’s policies and procedures in relation to the duty under section 21(1), including information about—
 - (i) procedures for identifying and reporting incidents, and
 - (ii) support available to staff and to persons affected by incidents,
 - (d) information about any changes to the responsible person’s policies and procedures as a result of incidents to which the duty under section 21(1) has applied, and
 - (e) such other information as the responsible person thinks fit.
- (3) A report must not—
 - (a) mention the name of any individual, or
 - (b) contain any information which, in the responsible person’s opinion, is likely to identify any individual.
- (4) The responsible person must publish a report prepared under subsection (1) in such manner as the responsible person thinks appropriate.
- (5) On publishing a report, the responsible person must notify—
 - (a) Healthcare Improvement Scotland, in the case of a report published by a responsible person which provides an independent health care service (within the meaning of section 10F(1) of the 1978 Act),
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers, in the case of a report published by any other responsible person which provides a health service,
 - (c) Social Care and Social Work Improvement Scotland, in the case of a report published by a responsible person which provides a care service or a social work service.
- (6) A person mentioned in subsection (7) may, for the purpose of monitoring compliance with the provisions of this Part, serve a notice on a responsible person requiring—
 - (a) the responsible person to provide the person serving the notice with information about any matter mentioned in subsection (2) as specified in the notice, and
 - (b) that information to be provided within the time specified in the notice.
- (7) The persons are—
 - (a) Healthcare Improvement Scotland, in relation to a responsible person which provides an independent health care service (within the meaning of section 10F(1) of the 1978 Act),
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers, in relation to any other responsible person which provides a health service,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (c) Social Care and Social Work Improvement Scotland, in relation to a responsible person which provides a care service or a social work service.
- (8) The Scottish Ministers, Healthcare Improvement Scotland and Social Care and Social Work Improvement Scotland may publish a report on compliance with the provisions of this Part by responsible persons.

Interpretation

25 Interpretation of Part 2

(1) In this Part—

“the 1978 Act” means the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978,
“care service” has the meaning given by section 47(1) of the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010, except that it does not include a service mentioned in paragraph (k) of that section (child minding),

“health service” means—

- (a) services under the health service continued under section 1 of the 1978 Act, and
- (b) an independent health care service mentioned in section 10F(1) of the 1978 Act,

“provide” in relation to a health service, a care service and a social work service means to carry on or manage such a service,

“registered health professional” means a member of a profession to which section 60(2) of the Health Act 1999 applies,

“responsible person” means—

- (a) a Health Board constituted under section 2(1) of the 1978 Act,
- (b) a person (other than an individual) who has entered into a contract, agreement or arrangement with a Health Board to provide a health service,
- (c) the Common Services Agency for the Scottish Health Service constituted under section 10(1) of the 1978 Act,
- (d) a person (other than an individual) providing an independent health care service mentioned in section 10F(1) of the 1978 Act,
- (e) a local authority,
- (f) a person (other than an individual) who provides a care service,
- (g) an individual who provides a care service and who employs, or has otherwise made arrangements with, other persons to assist with the provision of that service (unless the assistance in providing that service is merely incidental to the carrying out of other activities),
- (h) a person (other than an individual) who provides a social work service,

“social work services” has the meaning given by section 48 of the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010.

- (2) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations modify the definition of “responsible person” in subsection (1).

ILL-TREATMENT AND WILFUL NEGLECT

Offences by care workers and care providers

26 Care worker offence

- (1) An individual commits an offence if the individual—
 - (a) has the care of another individual by virtue of being a care worker, and
 - (b) ill-treats or wilfully neglects that individual.
- (2) An individual who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both),
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or a fine (or both).

27 Care provider offence

- (1) A care provider commits an offence if—
 - (a) an individual who has the care of another individual by virtue of being part of the care provider’s arrangements ill-treats or wilfully neglects that individual,
 - (b) the care provider’s activities are managed or organised in a way which amounts to a gross breach of a relevant duty of care owed by the care provider to the individual who is ill-treated or neglected, and
 - (c) in the absence of the breach, the ill-treatment or wilful neglect would not have occurred or would have been less likely to occur.
- (2) An individual is “part of a care provider’s arrangements” where the individual—
 - (a) is not the care provider, but
 - (b) provides adult health care or adult social care as part of the adult health care or adult social care provided or arranged for by the care provider,including where the individual is not the care provider but supervises or manages individuals providing adult health care or adult social care as described in paragraph (b) or is a director or similar officer of an organisation which provides adult health care or adult social care as described there.
- (3) In this section—
 - (a) a “relevant duty of care” means a duty owed in connection with providing, or arranging for the provision of, adult health care or adult social care,
 - (b) a breach of a relevant duty of care is a “gross” breach if the conduct alleged to amount to the breach falls far below what can reasonably be expected of the care provider in the circumstances.
- (4) A care provider who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable—
 - (a) on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum,
 - (b) on conviction on indictment, to a fine.

28 Meaning of “care worker” and “care provider” etc.

- (1) In this Part, “care worker” means—
- (a) an employee who provides adult health care or adult social care,
 - (b) a volunteer who provides adult health care or adult social care,
 - (c) an individual who supervises or manages employees or volunteers providing adult health care or adult social care,
 - (d) a director or similar officer of an organisation whose employees or volunteers provide adult health care or adult social care.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1)—
- (a) “employee” means an individual in paid employment, whether under a contract of service or apprenticeship or under a contract for services,
 - (b) “volunteer” means a volunteer for a body, other than a public or local authority, the activities of which are not carried on for profit.
- (3) In this Part, “care provider” means—
- (a) a body corporate, a partnership or an unincorporated association which provides or arranges for the provision of—
 - (i) adult health care, or
 - (ii) adult social care, or
 - (b) an individual who provides that care and employs, or has otherwise made arrangements with, other persons to assist with the provision of that care.
- (4) In this section—
- (a) references to a person providing adult health care or adult social care do not include a person whose provision of that care is merely incidental to the carrying out of other activities by the person, and
 - (b) references to a person arranging for the provision of that care do not include a person who makes arrangements under which the provision of care is merely incidental to the carrying out of other activities.
- (5) In this Part—
- “adult health care” means a service for or in connection with the prevention, diagnosis or treatment of illness provided to an individual aged 18 or over—
- (a) under the health service continued under section 1 of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978, or
 - (b) by persons providing an independent health care service mentioned in section 10F(1) of that Act,
- “adult social care” means a service—
- (a) in section 47(1)(a), (b), (d) or (m) of the Public Services Reform (Scotland) Act 2010 to the extent that the service is provided to an individual aged 18 or over, or
 - (b) in section 47(1)(g) or (j) of that Act to the extent that the service is provided to an individual aged 16 or over.

29 Disclosure of conviction for offence under section 26

In schedule 8A of the Police Act 1997 (offences which must always be disclosed), after paragraph 55 insert—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

“55A An offence under section 26 of the Health (Tobacco, Nicotine etc. and Care) (Scotland) Act 2016 (care worker offence).”.

Remedial orders and publicity orders

30 Power to order offence to be remedied or publicised

- (1) This section applies where a care provider is convicted by a court of an offence under section 27(1).
- (2) The court may, instead of or in addition to dealing with the care provider in any other way, make either or both of the following orders—
 - (a) a remedial order,
 - (b) a publicity order.
- (3) A “remedial order” is an order requiring the care provider to take specified steps to remedy one or more of the following—
 - (a) the breach mentioned in section 27(1)(b) (the “relevant breach”),
 - (b) any matter that appears to the court to have resulted from the relevant breach and to be connected with the ill-treatment or neglect,
 - (c) any deficiency in the care provider’s policies, systems or practices of which the relevant breach appears to the court to be an indication.
- (4) A “publicity order” is an order requiring the care provider to publicise in a specified manner—
 - (a) the fact that the care provider has been convicted of the offence,
 - (b) specified particulars of the offence,
 - (c) the amount of any fine imposed,
 - (d) the terms of any remedial order made.
- (5) An order made under subsection (2) is to be taken to be a sentence for the purposes of an appeal.
- (6) The court may make an order under subsection (2)—
