

Succession (Scotland) Act 2016

2016 asp 7

Estate administration

20 Confirmation of executors: power of Ministers to abolish requirement for executors dative to find caution

The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make provision to the effect that persons appointed as executors dative are not in any circumstances to be required to find caution before confirmation is granted.