

Historical Sexual Offences (Pardons and Disregards) (Scotland) Act 2018

2018 asp 14

PART 3

DISREGARDING CERTAIN CONVICTIONS FOR HISTORICAL SEXUAL OFFENCES

7 Determination of application for disregard

- (1) When determining an application made under section 5(1), the Scottish Ministers must in particular—
 - (a) consider all representations and other information included in the application,
 - (b) consider all representations made or other information provided in pursuance of section 6 in relation to the application, and
 - (c) except where it appears to them that the offence to which the application relates is not a historical sexual offence, take reasonable steps to obtain (and, where available, consider) any record of—
 - (i) the investigation of the conduct which led to the conviction, and
 - (ii) any subsequent proceedings relating to the conduct.
- (2) Having done so, the Scottish Ministers must—
 - (a) unless subsection (3) applies, determine that the conviction in respect of which the application is made is to be disregarded, or
 - (b) where subsection (3) applies, determine that the conviction is not to be disregarded.
- (3) This subsection applies if it appears to the Scottish Ministers—
 - (a) that the offence for which the applicant was convicted is not a historical sexual offence, or
 - (b) that the conduct constituting the historical sexual offence, if occurring in the same circumstances, would have been an offence on the day on which section 3 came into force.
- (4) The Scottish Ministers must—
 - (a) record their determination, and the reasons for it, in writing,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (b) provide notice of their determination, and the reasons for it, to the applicant, and
 - (c) where they have determined that a conviction for a historical sexual offence is to be disregarded, inform the applicant that references to the conviction will be removed in pursuance of section 10.
- (5) Where the Scottish Ministers determine that a conviction for a historical sexual offence is to be disregarded, the disregard takes effect from the day falling 14 days after notice of their determination is given.
