PART 4

POLICE INVESTIGATORY AND OTHER POWERS

CHAPTER 3

QUESTIONING OF CERTAIN CHILDREN

Investigative interview by agreement

41 Information to be provided following agreement to investigative interview

- (1) A constable must, as soon as reasonably practicable after agreement to an investigative interview being conducted is given under section 40(1)(c)—
- (a) provide a notice in writing containing the information mentioned in subsection (2) to—
 - (i) the child, and
 - (ii) the parent of the child who has given agreement under that section, and
 - (b) in so far as practicable, explain the information contained in the notice to—
 - (i) the child (in a way that is appropriate to the child's age and maturity), and
 - (ii) the parent mentioned in paragraph (a)(ii).
- (2) The information is—
- (a) that the investigative interview is authorised by virtue of agreement having been given under section 40(1)(c),
 - (b) that either the child or the parent who has given agreement under that section can withdraw agreement at any time (whether before or after the start of the investigative interview),
 - (c) information about the other circumstances in which agreement is withdrawn,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (d) that agreement being withdrawn will end the investigative interview, and
 - (e) information about what else may happen following withdrawal of agreement (for example, the actions mentioned in section 40(5)).
- (3) As soon as reasonably practicable after the identity of the person who will act as child interview rights practitioner during the investigative interview is known, the constable must provide that person with a copy of the notice given under subsection (1)(a).
