SOUTH OF SCOTLAND ENTERPRISE ACT 2019

EXPLANATORY NOTES

THE ACT

Establishment

Section 2 (People constituting body and staff)

7. Subsection (1) of section 2 provides that South of Scotland Enterprise is to be comprised by its appointed members and its chief executive. This means, in effect, that they collectively constitute its governing board.
8. South of Scotland Enterprise is to have between 6 and 11 appointed members; that is a chairing member and between 5 and 10 ordinary members.
9. Subsection (2) makes schedule 1 part of the Act. For an explanation of the schedule's provisions see paragraphs 60 to 68 of these Notes. Amongst other things, schedule 1 deals with the appointment of South of Scotland Enterprise's members and its chief executive.
