

Children (Scotland) Act 2020

Further provision about orders under section 11(1) of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995

PROSPECTIVE

22 Failure to obey order

- (1) The Children (Scotland) Act 1995 is modified as follows.
- (2) After section 11F (which is inserted by section 20(2) of this Act) insert—

"11G Duty to investigate failure to obey order under section 11

- (1) This section applies where a court is considering whether to—
  - (a) find a person in contempt of court for failing to obey an order under section 11, or
  - (b) vary or discharge an order under section 11 on the basis (solely or partly) that a person has failed to obey it.
- (2) If it is satisfied that the person has failed to obey the order, the court must—
  - (a) seek to establish the reasons for that failure, and
  - (b) in so doing—
    - (i) give the child concerned an opportunity to express the child's views in—
      - (A) the manner that the child prefers, or
      - (B) a manner that is suitable to the child if the child has not indicated a preference or it would not be reasonable in the circumstances to accommodate the child's preference, and
    - (ii) have regard to any views expressed by the child, taking into account the child's age and maturity.
- (3) But the court is not required to comply with subsection (2)(b) if satisfied that—
  - (a) the child is not capable of forming a view, or
