

Social Security Administration and Tribunal Membership (Scotland) Act 2020

2020 asp 18

PART 1

SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

Top up of reserved benefits

7 Uprating for inflation

- (1) The Social Security (Scotland) Act 2018 is modified as follows.
- (2) The Chapter number and title immediately preceding section 77 are omitted.
- (3) Section 77 is—
 - (a) moved to after section 86, and
 - (b) renumbered 86A.
- (4) Section 78 is—
 - (a) moved to after section 86A, and
 - (b) renumbered 86B.
- (5) Immediately before section 86A, insert the italic heading “Uprating for inflation”.
- (6) In section 86A—
 - (a) in subsection (3), for paragraph (a) substitute—
 - “(a) a figure prescribed as the value, or part of the value, of the assistance that is to be given to an individual in regulations under—
 - (i) any section in Chapter 2 of Part 2, or
 - (ii) section 79, but”,
 - (b) subsection (6) is repealed.
- (7) In section 86B—
 - (a) in subsection (1)—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (i) the word “and” immediately preceding paragraph (d) is repealed,
 - (ii) at the end of paragraph (d) insert “and
 - (e) the Scottish Child Payment Regulations 2020,”
 - (b) for subsection (2) substitute—
 - “(2) The reference in subsection (1) to bringing forward legislation to replace a figure is a reference to laying before the Scottish Parliament for approval by resolution a draft Scottish statutory instrument containing regulations that would have the effect of replacing the figure.”
 - (c) in subsection (4), in the definition of “relevant figure”, for “77(3)” substitute “86A(3)”.
- (8) The title of section 86B becomes “Duty to uprate certain types of assistance”.