14 Power to amend Act in consequence of amendments to subordinate legislation

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations modify any provision of this Act which modifies the effect of a provision of subordinate legislation.
- (2) The power in subsection (1) may be exercised only if the modification is necessary in consequence of the modification of the provision of the subordinate legislation by other subordinate legislation.
- (3) Regulations under subsection (1) may make transitional, transitory or saving provision.
- (4) Regulations under subsection (1) must be laid before the Scottish Parliament as soon as reasonably practicable after they have been made.
- (5) Regulations under subsection (1) cease to have effect at the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which they are made unless, during that period, they are approved by resolution of the Scottish Parliament.
- (6) In calculating the period of 28 days for the purpose of subsection (5), no account is to be taken of any period during which the Scottish Parliament is—
 - (a) in recess for more than 4 days, or
 - (b) dissolved.
- (7) If regulations cease to have effect as a result of subsection (5), that does not—
 - (a) affect the validity of anything previously done under them, or
 - (b) prevent the making of new regulations.

15 Reports by the Scottish Ministers on status of provisions

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must, in respect of each reporting period—
 - (a) undertake a review of the operation of the provisions of Part 1 with a view to considering whether those provisions remain necessary, and
 - (b) prepare a report on that review.
- (2) A report prepared under subsection (1) must—
 - (a) set out how any powers conferred by the provisions of Part 1 have been exercised, and
 - (b) include—
 - (i) the status of the provisions of Part 1 (whether or not any power under a provision has been exercised), and
 - (ii) a statement that the Scottish Ministers are satisfied that the status of those provisions is appropriate.
- (3) The references in subsection (2) to the “status” of a provision are to—
 - (a) whether the provision is in force at the end of the reporting period, and
 - (b) whether any power under the following provisions has been exercised by the Scottish Ministers in relation to it during that period (and, if so, which and how)—
 - (i) section 11 (regulations suspending or reviving provision),
 - (ii) section 13 (regulations altering expiry date of provision),
 - (iii) section 17(2) (regulations bringing provision into force).

Status: Point in time view as at 30/03/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Each of the following is a “reporting period”—
- (a) the period beginning with the day after Royal Assent and ending on 31 May 2020,
 - (b) each successive period of 2 months that ends during the period before Part 1 of this Act expires by virtue of section 12(1).
- (5) The Scottish Ministers must lay each report prepared under subsection (1) before the Scottish Parliament no later than 14 days after the end of a reporting period.

[^{F10}15A Reviews: information about domestic abuse

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must—
- (a) in undertaking a review under section 15(1)(a), take account of any information about the nature and number of incidents of domestic abuse occurring during the reporting period to which the review relates given to them, or published, by—
 - (i) the Scottish Police Authority, or
 - (ii) the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland, and
 - (b) explain in the report on that review prepared under section 15(1)(b) how the information was taken account of.
- (2) In subsection (1)(a), “reporting period” means a period mentioned in section 15(4)(b).]

(introduced by section 5)

JUSTICE

PART 1

COURTS AND TRIBUNALS: CONDUCT OF BUSINESS BY ELECTRONIC MEANS

Electronic signatures and transmission of documents

- 1 (1) An electronic signature fulfils any requirement (however expressed and for whatever purpose) that—
- (a) a document of a type mentioned in sub-paragraph (4), or
 - (b) a deletion or correction to such a document,
- be signed, initialled or signetted.
- (2) Any requirement (however expressed) that a document of a type mentioned in sub-paragraph (4) be given to a person may be fulfilled by—
- (a) transmitting it to the person electronically, or
 - (b) transmitting it (electronically or otherwise) to a solicitor engaged to act on the person's behalf in relation to the proceedings in question.
- (3) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (2)—
- (a) electronic transmission of a document by one person (“the sender”) to another person (“the recipient”) must be effected in a way that the recipient has indicated to the sender that the recipient is willing to receive the document,
 - (b) the recipient's indication of willingness to receive a document in a particular way may be—
 - (i) specific to the document in question or generally applicable to documents of that kind,
 - (ii) expressed specifically to the sender or generally (for example on a website),
 - (iii) inferred from the recipient having previously been willing to receive documents from the sender in that way and not having indicated unwillingness to do so again,
 - (c) the sender's uploading of a document to an electronic storage system from which the recipient is able to download the document may constitute electronic transmission of the document from the sender to the recipient.
- (4) The types of document referred to in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) are (subject to sub-paragraph (5))—
- (a) an order, warrant, sentence, citation, minute or any other document produced by a court or tribunal,
 - (b) an extract of any document referred to in paragraph (a),
 - (c) any document that an enactment requires be given to a person in connection with, or in order to initiate, proceedings.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/03/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) A type of document mentioned in sub-paragraph (4) is not to be regarded as being mentioned in that sub-paragraph, for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) or (2) (or both), if—
- (a) the Lord President of the Court of Session, or
 - (b) the Lord Justice General,
- directs that it is not.
- (6) A direction under sub-paragraph (5) may relate to some or all proceedings.
- (7) In this paragraph—
- (a) “court” includes any office holder of a court,
 - (b) “document” includes a copy of a document,
 - (c) “electronic signature” is to be construed in accordance with section 7(2) of the Electronic Communications Act 2000, but includes a version of an electronic signature which is reproduced on a paper document,
 - (d) references to giving a person a document include—
 - (i) serving a document on a person,
 - (ii) sending a document to a person, and
 - (iii) lodging a document with, or otherwise applying to or petitioning, a court or tribunal,
 - (e) “tribunal” includes any office holder of a tribunal.

- 1A (1) Any requirement (however expressed) that a document—
- (a) be put on the walls, doors or any other part of a court building (whether internal or external), or
 - (b) be made publicly available in any other way within a court building,
- is to be fulfilled instead by the document’s being made publicly available through the Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service website.
- (2) But sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to a document if it is of a type that—
- (a) the Lord President of the Court of Session, or
 - (b) the Lord Justice General,
- has directed that sub-paragraph (1) does not apply to.
- (3) Where a document is to be made publicly available through the Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service website by virtue of this paragraph, it is to so be made available in accordance with—
- (a) any direction issued by—
 - (i) the Lord President of the Court of Session, or
 - (ii) the Lord Justice General, and
 - (b) (subject to any necessary modifications) any enactment about—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (i) how a step mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of sub-paragraph (1) is to be taken in relation to the document, or
 - (ii) the length of time for which the document is to be made publicly available in a way described by those paragraphs.
- (4) A direction under sub-paragraph (3)(a) may, in particular, provide that a document is to be made available only in a redacted form.
- (5) If an enactment provides for an alternative to taking a step mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of sub-paragraph (1) as a means of achieving an outcome (for example, advertising an application in a newspaper as a means of intimating it), nothing in this paragraph precludes the taking of that alternative step to achieve the outcome.
- (6) In this paragraph, “the Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service website” means the website maintained by, or on behalf of, the Service with the internet domain name scotcourts.gov.uk.]

Suspension of requirements for physical attendance

- (1) Any requirement (however expressed) that a person physically attend a court or tribunal does not apply, unless the court or tribunal directs the person to attend physically.
 - (2) But sub-paragraph (1) does not apply in relation to a trial diet.
 - (3) In the case of such a diet, the court may disapply any requirement (however expressed) that a person physically attend the court by directing that the person need not do so.
 - (4) A court or tribunal may issue a direction under sub-paragraph (1) only if it considers that allowing the person to attend by electronic means in accordance with paragraph 3 would—
 - (a) prejudice the fairness of proceedings, or
 - (b) otherwise be contrary to the interests of justice.
 - (5) A court may issue a direction under sub-paragraph (3) only if it considers that allowing the person to attend by electronic means in accordance with paragraph 3 would not—
 - (a) prejudice the fairness of proceedings, or
 - (b) otherwise be contrary to the interests of justice.
 - (6) A court or tribunal may issue or revoke a direction under sub-paragraph (1) or (3) on the motion of a party or of its own accord.
 - (7) In considering whether to issue or revoke a direction under sub-paragraph (1) or (3), the court or tribunal must—
 - (a) give all parties an opportunity to make representations, and
 - (b) have regard to any guidance issued by—
 - (i) the Lord President of the Court of Session, or
 - (ii) the Lord Justice General.
 - (8) References in this paragraph to physically attending a court or tribunal are to—
 - (a) being in a particular place, or
 - (b) being in the same place as another person,

Status: Point in time view as at 30/03/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

for the purpose of any proceedings before a court or tribunal or an office holder of a court or tribunal.

Attendance by electronic means

- 3 (1) A person excused from a requirement to physically attend a court or tribunal by virtue of paragraph 2(1) or (3) must instead appear before the court, tribunal or office holder (as the case may be) by electronic means in accordance with a direction issued by the court or tribunal.
- (2) A person who fails to do so is to be regarded as having failed to comply with the requirement to physically attend from which the person is excused.
- (3) The power under sub-paragraph (1) to issue a direction includes the power to vary or revoke an earlier direction under that sub-paragraph.
- (4) A direction under sub-paragraph (1)—
- (a) is to set out how the person is to appear by electronic means before the court, tribunal or office holder, and
 - (b) may include any other provision the court or tribunal considers appropriate.
- (5) A court or tribunal may issue a direction under sub-paragraph (1) on the motion of a party or of its own accord.
- (6) Before issuing a direction under sub-paragraph (1), the court or tribunal must—
- (a) give all parties an opportunity to make representations, and
 - (b) have regard to any guidance issued by—
 - (i) the Lord President of the Court of Session, or
 - (ii) the Lord Justice General.
- (7) A direction under sub-paragraph (1) that—
- (a) sets out how a party to proceedings is to attend, by electronic means, a trial diet must provide for the party to use means that enable the party to both see and hear all of the other parties, the judge and (where applicable) the jury and any witness who is giving evidence,
 - (b) sets out how a witness who is to give evidence at a trial diet is to attend by electronic means, must provide for the witness to use means that enable all of the parties, the judge and (where applicable) the jury to both see and hear the witness.
- (8) Nothing in sub-paragraph (7) is to be taken to mean that a person is to be enabled to see or hear a witness in a way that measures taken in accordance with an order of the court or tribunal would otherwise prevent.

Further provision about attendance by electronic means

- 4 (1) A court or tribunal may—
- (a) issue a direction under paragraph 3(1) that applies for the purpose of all proceedings of a type specified in the direction, provided that the only party to the proceedings is a public official,
 - (b) issue a further direction under paragraph 3(1) overriding, for the purpose of specific proceedings, a general direction issued by virtue of paragraph (a).

Status: Point in time view as at 30/03/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) Paragraph 3(6)(a) does not apply in relation to a general direction issued by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(a).
- (3) In this paragraph—
“public official” means—
(a) a person who is a public authority and is acting in that capacity, or
(b) a person who is acting on behalf of a public authority,
“public authority” is to be construed in accordance with section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998.

Publication of directions and guidance

- 5 A person who issues any of the following must make it publicly available—
(a) a direction under paragraph 1(5),
[^{F18}(aa) a direction under paragraph 1A(2) or (3)(a),]
(b) guidance under paragraph 2(7)(b) or 3(6)(b).

Interpretation of Part

- 6 In this Part—
“court” means any of the Scottish courts as defined in section 2(6) of the Judiciary and Courts (Scotland) Act 2008,
“proceedings” includes any process before a court or tribunal, or any office holder of a court or tribunal (for example, a process by which a warrant may be obtained for the purpose of investigating a suspected offence),
“requirement” means a requirement arising from an enactment or rule of law,
“tribunal” means any of the following—
(a) the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland,
(b) the Upper Tribunal for Scotland,
(c) a children's hearing.

PART 2

FISCAL FINES

Fixed penalty: conditional offer by procurator fiscal

- 7 (1) The Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 applies in accordance with the modification in sub-paragraph (2).
- (2) Section 302(7A) (maximum fixed penalty that may be prescribed) has effect as if for “£300” there were substituted “ £500 ”.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/03/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 Fixed Penalty Order 2008 (S.S.I. 2008/108) applies in accordance with the modification in sub-paragraph (4).
- (4) The schedule has effect as if for it there were substituted—

“SCHEDULE

Article 2

THE SCALE OF FIXED PENALTIES

Level on the scale	Amount of fixed penalty
1	£50
2	£125
3	£175
4	£250
5	£325
6	£400
7	£500”.

CASES BEGINNING WITH AN APPEARANCE FROM CUSTODY

Ability to take case in any sheriff court

- 8 (1) If it involves an appearance from police custody, a first calling of criminal proceedings in the sheriff court may—
- be taken in any sheriff court in Scotland, and
 - be dealt with in that court by a sheriff of any sheriffdom.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), a first calling of proceedings involves an appearance from police custody if the person who is the accused or otherwise the subject of the proceedings—
- was arrested by a constable in connection with the offence or other matter to which the proceedings relate, and
 - is not released from custody before the appearance.
- (3) Where sub-paragraph (1) applies, it is for the Lord Advocate or the procurator fiscal to determine which sheriff court a first calling is to be taken in.
- (4) Sub-paragraph (5) applies where a first calling of criminal proceedings comes before a sheriff court by virtue of sub-paragraph (1).
- (5) The proceedings may continue to be dealt with—
- in the same sheriff court, and
 - by a sheriff of any sheriffdom.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/03/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) But that court can no longer deal—
- (a) with proceedings on petition or indictment, after—
 - (i) committal until liberation in due course of law, or
 - (ii) any earlier calling at which a plea of not guilty is tendered by the accused but not accepted by the prosecutor,
 - (b) with summary criminal proceedings, after a calling at which a plea of not guilty is tendered by the accused but not accepted by the prosecutor.
- (7) References in this paragraph to the accused or other person who is the subject of the proceedings are to be read in relation to proceedings in which there is more than one such person as a reference to at least one of them.

Paragraph 8: supporting provision

- 9 (1) A sheriff court has jurisdiction for all cases which come before it by virtue of paragraph 8.
- (2) A procurator fiscal for a sheriff court district has—
- (a) power to prosecute or, as the case may be, represent the interests of the prosecutor in any case that comes before the sheriff court of that district by virtue of paragraph 8,
 - (b) the like powers in relation to such cases as the prosecutor has for the purposes of other cases that come before the sheriff when exercising criminal jurisdiction.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph 8, a sheriff may, without the need for further commission, exercise the jurisdiction and powers that attach to the office of sheriff in relation to criminal proceedings in every sheriffdom (and the same applies accordingly to any other member of the judiciary, so far as that member has the jurisdiction and powers that attach to the office of sheriff in relation to criminal proceedings).
- (4) In paragraph 8 and this paragraph, “criminal proceedings” means any proceedings in which a court is exercising criminal jurisdiction including in particular—
- (a) proceedings on indictment,
 - (b) proceedings on petition,
 - (c) summary criminal proceedings,
 - (d) ancillary proceedings such as proceedings in respect of—
 - (i) breach of bail,
 - (ii) non-payment of a fine or other monetary penalty,
 - (iii) breach of an order of a court, or
 - (iv) failure of an accused person or a witness to attend a diet.
- (5) Any expression used in paragraph 8 or this paragraph which is also used in the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 has the same meaning here as it does there.
- (6) Paragraph 8 and this paragraph are without prejudice to sections 4 to 10, 34A and 137C of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/03/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

PART 4

EXTENSION OF TIME LIMITS

Criminal proceedings: extension of time limits

- 10 (1) The Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 applies in accordance with the modifications in sub-paragraphs (2) to (6).
- (2) Section 52T (prevention of delay in trials: assessment orders and treatment orders) has effect as if—
- (a) in subsection (1), after the words “Subsections (4) to (9)” there were inserted “, (11), (12)(b) and (13)”,
 - (b) in subsection (4)(c), before the word “section” there were inserted “subsection (1) of”,
 - (c) after subsection (4) there were inserted—
 - “(5) In subsection (4)—
 - (a) the provisions of section 65 referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) are to be read with subsections (11), (12)(b) and (13) of that section,
 - (b) the provisions of section 147 referred to in paragraphs (c) and (d) are to be read with subsections (5) and (6) of that section.”.
- (3) Section 65 (solemn proceedings: prevention of delay in trials) has effect as if after subsection (10) there were inserted—
- “(11) In calculating any of the periods specified in subsection (12), no account is to be taken of the suspension period.
 - (12) Those periods are—
 - (a) any period mentioned in subsection (1), including any such period as extended—
 - (i) under subsection (3),
 - (ii) on appeal under subsection (8), or
 - (iii) under section 74(4)(c),
 - (b) any period mentioned in subsection (4), including any such period as extended—
 - (i) under subsection (5), or
 - (ii) on appeal under subsection (8).
 - (13) For the purpose of subsection (11), the suspension period is the period of 6 months beginning with whichever is the later of—
 - (a) the day on which paragraph 10 of schedule 4 of the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020 comes into force,
 - (b) the day on which—
 - (i) in relation to a period specified in subsection (12)(a), the accused first appears on petition in respect of the offence, or
 - (ii) in relation to a period specified in subsection (12)(b), the accused is committed for the offence until liberated in due course of law.”.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/03/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) Section 136(1) (time limit for certain offences) has effect as if for the words “six months” in both places where they occur there were substituted “ 12 months ”.
- (5) Section 147 (summary proceedings: prevention of delay in trials) has effect as if after subsection (4) there were inserted—
- “(5) In calculating the period mentioned in subsection (1), including any such period as extended either under subsection (2) or on appeal under subsection (3), no account is to be taken of the suspension period.
- (6) For the purpose of subsection (5), the suspension period is the period of 3 months beginning with whichever is the later of—
- (a) the day on which paragraph 10 of schedule 4 of the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020 comes into force,
- (b) the day on which the complaint is brought in court.”.
- (6) Section 201 (power of court to adjourn case before sentence) has effect as if for subsection (3) there were substituted—
- “(3) The court may adjourn the hearing of a case as mentioned in subsection (1) for such period as it considers appropriate.”.
- (7) The Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 2003 applies in accordance with the modification in sub-paragraph (8).
- (8) Section 21 (sexual and certain other offences: reports) has effect as if subsections (9) and (10) were repealed.

PAROLE BOARD

Chairing of the Parole Board

- 17 (1) The Prisoners and Criminal Proceedings (Scotland) Act 1993 applies in accordance with the modification in this paragraph.
- (2) Schedule 2 has effect as if after paragraph 2J there were inserted—
- “2K (1) If the Chairman of the Parole Board is unable to perform the functions of the Chairman under this Act or the Parole Board (Scotland) Rules 2001 (S.S.I. 2001/315) (the “Rules”) for reasons related to coronavirus, the most senior member of the Parole Board is to perform those functions instead.
- (2) In sub-paragraph (1)—
- (a) “coronavirus” has the meaning given by section 1 of the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020, and
- (b) “the most senior member of the Parole Board” means—
- (i) the member whose initial appointment to the Parole Board began first, or
- (ii) if more than one member falls within sub-paragraph (i), whichever of those members is most senior in age.
- (3) For so long as sub-paragraph (1) has effect, in Rule 2(1) of the Rules, in the definition of “the chairman of the Board”, the reference to “the chairman of the Board appointed under paragraph 1 of Schedule 2 to the 1993 Act” is to be read instead as a reference to “the person performing the functions of the Chairman by virtue of paragraph 2K(1) of Schedule 2 to the 1993 Act”.
- 2L (1) The Chairman of the Parole Board may make arrangements to delegate the functions of the Chairman to another member or members of the Parole Board.
- (2) Where arrangements under sub-paragraph (1) have effect, the functions of the Chairman may be performed by the member to whom the functions are delegated or, where the functions are delegated to more than one member, by any one of those members.
- (3) Arrangements under sub-paragraph (1) are to be treated as having effect since the date on which paragraph 17 of schedule 4 of the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020 came into force (regardless of when the arrangements were made).
- (4) Where arrangements under sub-paragraph (1) have effect, the following references are to be read instead as references to the member or members (as the case may be) to whom the Chairman's functions have been delegated—

PART 8

RELEASE OF PRISONERS

Early release of prisoners

- 19 (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide that a person who falls within a class of persons specified in the regulations is to be released from prison early.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers may make regulations under sub-paragraph (1) only if they are satisfied that the making of the regulations is necessary and proportionate, in response to the effects coronavirus is having or is likely to have on a prison or prisons generally, for the purpose of protecting—
 - (a) the security and good order of any prison to which the regulations relate, or
 - (b) the health, safety or welfare of prisoners, or those working, in any such prison.
- (3) But a person is not to be released from prison by virtue of regulations under sub-paragraph (1) if—
 - (a) the person falls within sub-paragraph (4), or

Status: Point in time view as at 30/03/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the governor of the prison within which the person is detained for the time being considers that, if released, the person would pose an immediate risk of harm to an identified person.
- (4) A person falls within this sub-paragraph if the person is—
- (a) a life prisoner,
 - (b) an untried prisoner,
 - (c) a terrorist prisoner within the meaning of section 1AB of the 1993 Act,
 - (d) liable to removal from the United Kingdom for the purposes of section 9 of that Act,
 - (e) subject to a supervised release order under section 209 of the 1995 Act,
 - (f) serving a sentence imposed under section 210A of that Act (extended sentences for sex, violent and terrorist offenders),
 - (g) the subject of proceedings under the Extradition Act 2003, or
 - (h) subject to the notification requirements of Part 2 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003.
- (5) In sub-paragraph (4)—
- (a) “life prisoner” means a person who is—
 - (i) serving a sentence of imprisonment for life,
 - (ii) detained without limit of time or detained for life, or
 - (iii) subject to an order for lifelong restriction made under section 201F of the 1995 Act,
 - (b) “untried prisoner” means a person who, whether or not in prison for any other reason, is in prison—
 - (i) having been committed for examination or trial on any criminal charge,

PART 3

DUTIES IN RESPECT OF REPORTS AND OTHER DOCUMENTS

Power to postpone publication and laying of reports

x18

- (1) This paragraph applies to a statutory duty (however expressed)—
 - (a) that is within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament to amend, and
 - (b) that requires the Scottish Ministers or a Scottish public authority to publish, or to publish and lay before the Scottish Parliament, a report (and any other associated documents) in connection with the exercise of their or its functions on or by a particular date while this paragraph is in force.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers or the Scottish public authority may decide to postpone complying with the duty if they or, as the case may be, it are of the view that complying would be likely to impede their or, as the case may be, its ability to take effective action to prevent, protect against, delay or otherwise control the incidence or transmission of coronavirus.

Status: Point in time view as at 30/03/2022.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Coronavirus (Scotland) Act 2020. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) Where the Scottish Ministers decide or, as the case may be, a Scottish public authority decides to postpone complying with the duty they or it must publish a statement to that effect in such manner as they consider or it considers appropriate—
 - (a) on or before the date by which the report is due, or
 - (b) as soon as reasonably practicable after the date.
- (4) A statement published under sub-paragraph (3) must indicate that the report will be published in accordance with paragraph 10(2).
- (5) This paragraph does not apply to—
 - (a) a duty contained in this Act,
 - (b) accounts or associated documents required under section 19 or 20 of the Public Finance and Accountability (Scotland) Act 2000 (see paragraph 15),
 - (c) any other document in respect of which there is a statutory duty to publish or publicise it, lay it before the Scottish Parliament or otherwise make it available (see paragraph 9).

Power to publish or make available documents for inspection electronically

- ^{x29} (1) This paragraph applies to a statutory duty (however expressed)—
 - (a) that is within the legislative competence of the Scottish Parliament to amend, and
 - (b) that requires the Scottish Ministers or a Scottish public authority to—
 - (i) publish or publicise a document (other than by electronic means),
 - (ii) lay a document (or a copy of it) before the Scottish Parliament,
 - (iii) give notice of where a document may be inspected,
 - (iv) make available a document for inspection in a particular manner.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers or, as the case may be, the Scottish public authority may decide not to comply with the duty if they or, as the case may be, it are of the view that doing so—
 - (a) may give rise to a significant risk of the transmission of coronavirus, or
 - (b) is likely to be ineffective or inappropriate due to action taken in order to control the incidence or transmission of coronavirus.
- (3) Where the Scottish Ministers or, as the case may be, a Scottish public authority decide not to comply with the duty they or it must (if possible)—
 - (a) publish the document in such electronic format as they consider or it considers appropriate (for example on their or its website),
 - (b) make the document (or the information contained in it) available for inspection by electronic means (for example on their or its website),
 - (c) give notice by electronic means of where a document (or the information contained in it) may be inspected, which notice may specify an electronic means (such as publication on a particular website) as the place where the document (or information) may be inspected,

Status: Point in time view as at 30/03/2022.

as appropriate, having regard to the nature of the duty in question.

- (4) If the Scottish Ministers or, as the case may be, a Scottish public authority decide not to comply with the duty and consider that it is not possible to use a means listed in sub-paragraph (3), they or it must publish a statement to that effect in such manner as they consider or it considers appropriate.
- (5) Where the duty is accompanied by a requirement that the Scottish Ministers or, as the case may be, a Scottish public authority must make a statement to the Scottish Parliament in respect of the document on a particular date or within a particular period, it is sufficient for the statement to be made as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (6) This paragraph does not apply to—
 - (a) accounts or associated documents required under section 19 or 20 of the Public Finance and Accountability (Scotland) Act 2000 (see paragraph 15), or
 - (b) reports required in connection with the exercise of functions by the Scottish Ministers or a Scottish public authority and in respect of which there is a statutory duty to publish or lay before the Scottish Parliament (see paragraph 8).

Resumption of duties in relation to reports and documents

- ^{x3}10 (1) Sub-paragraph (2) applies where the Scottish Ministers or, as the case may be, a Scottish public authority have made a decision under paragraph 8(2) to postpone complying with a duty.
- (2) The Scottish Ministers or, as the case may be, the Scottish public authority must comply with the duty as soon as reasonably practicable.
 - (3) Sub-paragraph (4) applies where—
 - (a) the Scottish Ministers or, as the case may be, a Scottish public authority made a decision under paragraph 9(2) not to comply with a duty, and
 - (b) they consider or it considers that there is no longer a significant risk of the transmission of coronavirus.
 - (4) The Scottish Ministers or, as the case may be, the Scottish public authority must—
 - (a) in a case where the duty is to lay a document before the Scottish Parliament, comply with the duty as soon as reasonably practicable,
 - (b) in any other case—
 - (i) take such steps as they consider or it considers necessary to comply with the duty, or
 - (ii) publish a statement indicating that they are or it is not complying and setting out the reasons for not doing so (such as having done so by electronic means).
