39 Individually assessed payment

- (1) An individually assessed payment is a payment, based on an assessment of the matters raised by an application, of—
- (a) the fixed rate payment, and
 - (b) if the panel appointed under section 35 to determine the application considers a further sum to be appropriate, the further sum of—
 - (i) £10,000,
 - (ii) £30,000,
 - (iii) £50,000,
 - (iv) £70,000, or

- (v) £90,000,
as the panel considers appropriate.
- (2) Accordingly, depending on what (if any) further sum is considered appropriate, an individually assessed payment is a payment in total of—
- (a) £10,000 for a fixed rate payment,
 - (b) £20,000 (a level 1 payment),
 - (c) £40,000 (a level 2 payment),
 - (d) £60,000 (a level 3 payment),
 - (e) £80,000 (a level 4 payment), or
 - (f) £100,000 (a level 5 payment).
- (3) But where—
- (a) a fixed rate payment has previously been paid to an applicant, no further fixed rate payment is payable to that applicant when determining an application for an individually assessed payment made by virtue of section 30(2),
 - (b) the application is an application for an individually assessed payment made by virtue of section 30(3), any redress payment (other than a next of kin payment) which has previously been paid to the applicant is to be deducted from the individually assessed payment for which the applicant is eligible.
- (4) In considering what further sum, if any, is appropriate for the purpose of subsection (1) (b), the panel—
- (a) must have regard to the nature, severity, frequency and duration of the abuse to which the application relates, and
 - (b) may have regard to any other matter it considers relevant.

40 Next of kin payment

- (1) A next of kin payment is a payment of the relevant share of the fixed rate payment.
- (2) For the purpose of subsection (1), the relevant share is—
- (a) in the case of an application by the spouse, civil partner or cohabitant of the person in respect of whom the application is made (“the deceased person”), the whole amount,
 - (b) in the case of an application by a child of the deceased person, the whole amount divided by the total number of surviving children of the deceased person at the date that the first (or, as the case may be, only) application for a next of kin payment is made in respect of the deceased person by a child of the deceased person.
