- (3) But subsection (2) does not prevent payment being accepted for any legal work undertaken in connection with advice and assistance on whether to pursue litigation as an alternative to making an application for a redress payment to the extent that such advice and assistance goes beyond that which is necessary or appropriate as part of the legal work undertaken in making an application or, as the case may be, in connection with a proposed application.

- (3) A person—
  - (a) to whom the payment was made, or

- (5) Where the Scottish Ministers seek to recover a sum due to them by a person under subsection (3), the sum may be paid—

  - (b) an error which the Scottish Ministers consider led to the decision to make the payment being made—
    - (i) incorrectly, or
    - (ii) correctly but on the basis of incorrect or misleading information, in a way which materially affected the decision.
- (8) But an error in making a redress payment in relation to which a payment mentioned in subsection (1) was made is not a relevant error for the purpose of this section.

98 Power to make further provision about payments, other than redress payments, made in error

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make further provision about or in connection with the consideration by them as to whether decisions to make payments to which section 97 applies were materially affected by error.
