

Redress for Survivors (Historical Child Abuse in Care) (Scotland) Act 2021

2021 asp 15

PART 3

ELIGIBILITY AND KEY CONCEPTS

Exceptions to eligibility

23 Power to create exceptions to eligibility

(1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations provide that an application may not be made under section 18—

- (a) if the person who carried out the abuse was of a specified description,
- (b) if the abuse was carried out in circumstances of a specified description,
- (c) if the person who was abused came to be resident in the relevant care setting concerned in specified circumstances, or
- (d) if the person who was abused was resident in the relevant care setting concerned for a specified purpose.

(2) In subsection (1), “specified” means specified in the regulations.

Commencement Information

11 S. 23 in force at 28.6.2021 by S.S.I. 2021/234, reg. 2, sch.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Redress for Survivors (Historical Child Abuse in Care) (Scotland) Act 2021, Section 23.