

Coronavirus (Discretionary Compensation for Self-isolation) (Scotland) Act 2022

2022 asp 2

S

The Bill for this Act of the Scottish Parliament was passed by the Parliament on 9th February 2022 and received Royal Assent on 23rd March 2022

An Act of the Scottish Parliament to temporarily modify sections of the Public Health etc. (Scotland) Act 2008 which require health boards to pay compensation for self-isolation so that, where self-isolation is for a reason relating to coronavirus, health boards have discretion as to whether to pay compensation; and to provide for the expiry of a provision of the Coronavirus Act 2020 which temporarily modified the same sections of the Public Health etc. (Scotland) Act 2008.

1 Discretionary compensation for self-isolation S

- (1) The Public Health etc. (Scotland) Act 2008 applies in accordance with the modifications in subsections \(2\) and \(3\).
- (2) Section 56 has effect as if—
  - (a) in subsection (1), at the beginning there were inserted “Subject to subsection (1A),”,
  - (b) after subsection (1), there were inserted—

“(1A) If the request under subsection (1) is made for a reason relating to coronavirus, the health board may compensate the person to whom the request is made, but is not required to do so.”,
  - (c) after subsection (6), there were inserted—

“(7) In this section, “coronavirus” means severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 (SARS-CoV-2).”.
- (3) Section 58 has effect as if—
  - (a) in subsection (2), at the beginning, there were inserted “Subject to subsection (2A),”,
  - (b) after subsection (2), there were inserted—

4 Procedure for regulations under section 3 S*

- (1) Regulations under section 3\(1\) are subject to the negative procedure.
- (2) Regulations under section 3\(2\) are subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (3) Before making regulations under section 3(1), or laying a draft Scottish statutory instrument containing regulations under section 3(2) before the Scottish Parliament in accordance with section 29(2) of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010, the Scottish Ministers must consult—
  - (a) each health board constituted under section 2(1)(a) of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978, and
  - (b) such other persons as the Scottish Ministers consider appropriate.
- (4) At the same time as laying a draft Scottish statutory instrument containing regulations under section 3\(2\) before the Scottish Parliament in accordance with section 29(2) of the Interpretation and Legislative Reform (Scotland) Act 2010, the Scottish Ministers must lay before the Parliament a statement of their reasons why the regulations should be made.
- (5) If the Scottish Ministers consider that regulations under section 3\(2\) need to be made urgently—
  - (a) subsections (2), (3) and (4) do not apply, and
  - (b) the regulations (the “emergency regulations”)—
    - (i) must be laid before the Scottish Parliament, and
    - (ii) cease to have effect on the expiry of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the regulations were made unless, before the expiry of that period, the regulations have been approved by a resolution of the Parliament.
- (6) If emergency regulations are made, the Scottish Ministers must, at the same time as laying the regulations before the Parliament, lay before the Parliament a statement of their reasons for making the regulations and for making them urgently without their being subject to the affirmative procedure.
- (7) In calculating any period of 28 days for the purposes of subsection \(5\)\(b\)\(ii\), no account is to be taken of any period during which the Scottish Parliament is—
  - (a) dissolved, or
  - (b) in recess for more than 4 days.
- (8) Where emergency regulations cease to have effect under subsection \(5\)\(b\)\(ii\), that does not—
  - (a) affect anything previously done by reference to the regulations,
  - (b) prevent new emergency regulations being made to the same or similar effect.
