

Good Food Nation (Scotland) Act 2022

2022 asp 5

Good food nation plans of public bodies

PROSPECTIVE

10 Requirements to produce plans

- (1) Each relevant authority must publish a good food nation plan.
- (2) In this Act, a “relevant authority” is—
 - (a) a health board,
 - (b) a local authority,
 - (c) a specified public authority.
- (3) Subsection (1) must be complied with—
 - (a) in the case of a health board or local authority, before the end of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which this section comes into force,
 - (b) otherwise, before the end of the period specified in relation to the authority concerned.
- (4) A relevant authority’s good food nation plan must set out—
 - (a) the main outcomes in relation to food-related issues which the relevant authority wants to be achieved within the relevant authority’s areas of responsibility,
 - (b) indicators or other measures by which progress in achieving the outcomes may be assessed, and
 - (c) the policies which the relevant authority intends to pursue in order to secure the achievement of the outcomes.
- (5) A relevant authority’s good food nation plan may include such other material in relation to food-related issues as the relevant authority considers appropriate.
- (6) In determining the content of its good food nation plan, a relevant authority must have regard to the scope for food-related issues to affect outcomes in relation to, among other things—
 - (a) social and economic wellbeing,

Status: This version of this provision is prospective.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Good Food Nation (Scotland) Act 2022, Section 10. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) the environment, including in particular in relation to—
 - (i) climate change, and
 - (ii) wildlife and the natural environment,
- (c) health and physical and mental wellbeing (including in particular through the provision of health and social care services),
- (d) economic development,
- (e) animal welfare,
- (f) education,
- (g) child poverty, and
- (h) any other matter specified by the Scottish Ministers.

Commencement Information

II S. 10 not in force at Royal Assent, see s. 28\(2\)

Status:

This version of this provision is prospective.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Good Food Nation (Scotland) Act 2022, Section 10.