SCHEDULE TEMPORARY JUSTICE MEASURES

PART 1

COURTS AND TRIBUNALS: CONDUCT OF BUSINESS BY ELECTRONIC MEANS ETC.

CHAPTER 2

ATTENDING A COURT OR TRIBUNAL

Suspension of requirement for physical attendance in criminal proceedings, excluding trials and certain processes

- 7 (1) This paragraph—
- (a) applies only in relation to criminal proceedings, but
 - (b) does not apply in relation to—
 - (i) a hearing in which a person is to give evidence, or
 - (ii) proceedings in which the only party is a public official as defined in paragraph 9(3).
- (2) Any requirement (however expressed) that a person physically attend a court does not apply if—
- (a) a determination made by the Lord Justice General states that it does not, and
 - (b) the court has not directed the person to physically attend.
- (3) A determination under sub-paragraph (2)(a)—
- (a) may, in particular, disapply a requirement for physical attendance—
 - (i) in relation to persons or hearings described in the determination,
 - (ii) by enabling a court to disapply it in circumstances specified in the determination,
 - (b) may make different provision for different purposes and areas,
 - (c) may vary or revoke an earlier determination made under the sub-paragraph,
 - (d) must be made publicly available for so long as it has effect.
- (4) The Lord Justice General may make a determination under sub-paragraph (2)(a) disapplying a requirement for physical attendance only if (taking into account the discretion conferred by sub-paragraph (2)(b)), the Lord Justice General is satisfied that it would not—
- (a) prejudice the fairness of proceedings, or
 - (b) otherwise be contrary to the interests of justice.
- (5) A direction under sub-paragraph (2)(b)—
- (a) may be made by a court on the motion of a party or of its own accord,
 - (b) may revoke an earlier direction made under the sub-paragraph.
- (6) Where, by reason of a determination under sub-paragraph (2)(a), a person is to attend a court hearing by electronic means in accordance with paragraph 8, the court must—
- (a) take steps to ensure that the parties are aware of their right to make a motion for a direction under sub-paragraph (2)(b), and
