PART 1

ASSIGNATION

CHAPTER 1

ASSIGNATION OF CLAIMS, PROTECTION OF DEBTORS AND RELATED MATTERS

Abolition of certain rules of law

17 Abolition of certain rules of law

- (1) The following rules of law are abolished insofar as they apply to an assignment of a claim to which this Part applies—
 - (a) any rule whereby a mandate may operate as an assignment of a claim,
 - (b) any rule whereby an assignment is rendered ineffective by an instruction to the debtor by an assignee of a claim that the debtor perform to the assignor,
 - (c) any rule whereby an assignee of a claim may sue in the name of an assignor, and
 - (d) any rule as to warrandice to be implied—
 - (i) in assigning a claim, or
 - (ii) in providing, in a contract or unilateral undertaking, for the assignment of a claim.
- (2) But subsection \(1\)\(c\) does not affect the application of any enactment, or any rule of law, as respects subrogation.
