

Food Hygiene Rating (Wales) Act 2013

2013 anaw 2

Safeguards for food businesses

13 Payment of the costs of a re-rating

- (1) If a request for a re-rating has been made by an operator of a food business establishment, a food authority must calculate the reasonable costs of the re-rating.
- (2) Before carrying out the re-rating, the food authority must inform the operator of the costs of the re-rating and the way the costs have been calculated.
- (3) An operator of a food business establishment must pay the costs of the re-rating.
- (4) A food authority may require payment in advance of the re-rating being carried out.