

Exchequer Court (Scotland) Act 1707

CHAPTER 53

EXCHEQUER COURT (SCOTLAND) ACT 1707

- [I.] The Court of Exchequer in Scotland erected; to continue forever.
- II–VI
- VII Public Revenues, Honours, &c. belonging to the Crown by Attainder, &c. Penalties due by Force of any Statute. Informations, &c. to be within the Jurisdiction of the said Court.
- VIII–X
- XI Power of Barons to take Recognizances, &c. to have force. according to Stat. 33 H. VIII. c. 39. 1541 c. 39 Suits upon such Recognizances, &c. to have Preference in the Court of Exchequer, according to the said Stat. 33 H. VIII. c. 39.
- XII Real Estates subject to Debts due to the Crown in Scotland only according to the Law of Scotland.
- XIII The said Court and Barons to execute all Powers, &c. relating to the said Revenues, &c. as by the said Stat. 33 H. VIII. c. 39. and any other Statute in force in England, or the Course of the Court. 1541 c. 39 Proviso as to Liability of Real Estates to Crown Debts. Course as to Costs.
- XIV–
XXXII

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Exchequer Court (Scotland) Act 1707.