such common fields shall continue open, and to limit and settle the number of cattle each occupier in such parish or place shall respectively turn on such common fields, in due proportion to the stint or established usage in such parish or place.

8 Cottagers not to be excluded having right of common.

Provided always nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to extend to exclude any cottager, or other person or persons whomsoever, having right of common, and having no land in any of the said common fields, from having and enjoying his or their right of common in as full and ample manner as he could and might have enjoyed the same before the passing of this Act, unless each cottager or other person shall, at any meeting to be held by the occupiers of such common field lands, in manner aforesaid, consent or agree in writing to a composition for such right by an annual payment, or other annual advantage or compensation, or to a limitation thereof; in which case such consent and agreement shall be binding and conclusive upon every such person so agreeing, his heirs and assigns, tenants and occupiers, until such time as the rules, orders and regulations for the ordering, fencing, cultivating and improving of the said common field lands existing at the time of giving such consent shall expire.

9 How common field lands may be enjoyed differently by occupiers.

Provided always nevertheless, that if the occupiers of the said common field lands shall, at times when the said fields have been usually enjoyed in common, consent and agree not to depasture the same in common, and shall allot and set apart what shall be deemed by a majority of such cottagers who shall not have agreed to compound for or limit their right of common as aforesaid a sufficient and equivalent common for such cottagers and other persons as aforesaid, to be enjoyed exclusively by them, that then and in such case such cottagers and other persons shall not use, exercise or enjoy their right of common over such parts of the said common field lands as are not used in common by the occupiers thereof, but only over such part thereof as shall for such time be allotted them for that purpose and set apart as aforesaid, any law, usage or statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

10 Saving of right to persons possessed of separate sheep walks, &c.

Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exclude any person or persons seized or possessed of a separate sheep walk or pasture of cattle in or over all or any of the common field lands in any parish or place, or in or over any part thereof, from using, exercising and enjoying such right in as full and ample manner, to all intents and purposes, as he might or could have enjoyed the same before the passing of this Act, unless such person or persons having such right as aforesaid shall consent or agree in writing at any meeting of occupiers, to be held as aforesaid, to a composition for the same or a limitation thereof, in which case every such consent and agreement shall be binding and conclusive upon every person so agreeing, and upon every other person coming to the possession of such sheep walk or pasture for cattle by descent or otherwise, until such time as the rules, orders and regulations for the cultivation of the said common field lands existing at the time of entering into such agreement shall expire.

11 Balks, slades, &c., with consent of the lords of manors, &c. may be ploughed.

And whereas balks, slades or meers which may be waste, do often lie very inconveniently interspersed amongst the arable lands in common fields, it shall and may be lawful to and for any person or persons whomsoever having land in any open or common fields adjoining to any such balks, slades or meers, being waste, with the consent of the lord or lords, lady or ladies of the respective manors wherein such balks, slades or meers do lie, and likewise of the person or persons who may have a separate sheep walk in the said fields, and with the consent of three-fourths in number and value of the occupiers of such common field lands, to be signified at any meeting to be held in manner aforesaid, to plough up any of the said balks, slades or meers and convert the same into tillage under the regulations to be settled as aforesaid.

12 Balks, &c. used as roads not to be ploughed.

Provided always nevertheless, that no baulk or meer that has heretofore been used as a public road, or as a private road by any person or persons to or from his or their own house or lands, be so ploughed up.

13 Regulations to be observed by persons having a licence to plough balks, &c.

Provided also, that all and every person and persons who shall have licence in manner aforesaid to plough up and convert into tillage any balk, slade, or meer shall, before he or they begin to plough up the same, lay down in an husband-like manner under the direction of the field master or field reeve for the time being, in a more convenient part of the said field, as much of his or their own land as shall be equal in value to the land he or they shall so have licence to plough as aforesaid, and that such land so laid down shall be common land, and so continue until the regulations then existing for cultivating such common field lands shall expire.

14 Boundary stones to ascertain every person's property may be erected.

Provided also, that the person or persons ploughing any such balk, slade or meer shall, by proper bound stones, sufficiently mark and distinguish the several lands ploughed, and the several lands laid down in lieu thereof, so that the property thereof, and each person's right therein, may be clearly known and ascertained.

15 Lords of manors, &c. with consent of three-fourths of persons having right of common, may lease, a twelfth part of wastes, and the net rents to be applied for improving the residue of such wastes.

And it shall and may be lawful to and for the lord or lords, lady or ladies of any manor, with the consent of three-fourths of the persons having right of common upon the wastes and commons within his, her or their manor, at a meeting to be held after fourteen days notice, such notice to be given in manner herein-before directed by the lord or lords, lady or ladies of the manor, or their agent respectively, at any time or times to demise or lease for any term or number of years not exceeding four years any part of such wastes and commons, not exceeding a twelfth part thereof, for the best and most improved yearly rent that can by publick auction be got for the same; and the clear net rents reserved to the lord or lords, lady or ladies, his, her or their heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, by any lease or leases to be granted as aforesaid, shall be by him, her or them, and the major part of his, her or their tenants, applied in the draining, fencing or otherwise improving of the residue of such wastes and commons.

16 Assessments to be levied for the improving of wastes where there are stinted commons.

Provided always nevertheless, that in every manor where there are stinted commons, in lieu of demising or leasing part thereof, one or more assessment or assessments upon the lord or lords, lady or ladies of such manor, and the persons being owners or occupiers of such commons, or their agent or managers, shall or may, at their option, be made, levied and collected by such person and persons, and allowed in such manner as the lord or lords, lady or ladies of such manor, and the major part in number and value of the owners or occupiers of such commons present at a meeting to be held within the said manor, in pursuance of fourteen days notice to be given by the lord or lords, lady or ladies, or his, her or their agent, in manner aforesaid, of the time and place of meeting for that purpose, shall direct and appoint in that behalf; and the money thereby raised shall be employed and accounted for, according to the orders and directions of the said lord or lords, lady or ladies, and such majority of the owners or occupiers as aforesaid, in the improvement of such commons, from time to time as need shall require; and the said assessments shall, by virtue of a warrant under the hand and seal of one justice of the peace, be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of every person so assessed, and not paying the same within ten days after being demanded, rendering the overplus of the value of the goods so distrained (if any) to the owner and owners thereof, the necessary charges of making such distress and sale being first deducted.

17 Stinted commons to be opened at a certain time as owners, &c. at a meeting shall direct.

And whereas there are in many parts of this kingdom certain stinted commons of pasture which are never enjoyed in severalty, but which are at certain times shut up for the better growth of the pasture, and opened on certain fixed days, from which, in particular circumstances and seasons, great inconveniencies do and may arise: it shall and may be lawful for the major part in number and value of the owners and occupiers of such common pastures present at a meeting to be held after six days notice at least given in manner herein-before directed, with the consent of the lord or lords, lady or ladies, of the manor, or his, her or their steward or agent, to postpone the opening of the said common pastures for a time not exceeding twenty-one days.

18 Two thirds of commoners, with consent of the lord of the manor, &c., may direct the opening and shutting of commons, pastures, &c.

And whereas there are in many places common pastures, with stinted or limited rights of common therein, which are open the whole year, and it would be attended with great advantages to the commoners to shut up and unstock the same at particular seasons: It shall and may be lawful to and for two-thirds in number and value of such commoners, at a meeting to be holden after fourteen days notice given in manner herein-before directed, with the consent of the lord or lords, lady or ladies of the manor or manors in which such commons are situated, his, her, or their steward or stewards, agent or agents, to direct, order and fix the time when such common pastures shall be broke or depastured, and when the same shall be shut up and unstocked, such orders to continue in force for one whole year, and no longer.

19 Proviso respecting persons not consenting to the above regulations.

Provided nevertheless, that a portion of such common pastures shall be separated and set apart for the use of such commoners exclusively as shall not consent to such regulation, and the portion so set apart shall be adjudged by a majority of such commoners not consenting as aforesaid an equivalent for their rights of common.

20 Persons having right of common may depasture sheep instead of other cattle.

And whereas many stinted common pastures in this kingdom are fed and depastured by horses, beasts or neat cattle, and in many instances it would tend to the improvement of such common pastures, and to the better manuring and cultivation of the arable lands in common fields, or otherwise, to which such common pastures may belong, if the same were fed with sheep: It shall and may be lawful to and for the major part in number and value of the persons having right of common in such common pastures, at any meeting to be held in pursuance of notice in writing under the hands of a major part of such owners and occupiers of such common pastures, or persons having right of common therein, to be affixed on the principal door of the parish church of the parish where such common pastures shall lie, or of the nearest parish church where such lands shall lie in an extraparochial place, ten days at least previous to such meeting, specifying the time and place and intent of such meeting, by writing under their hands to alter and change the manner and custom of feeding and depasturing such common pastures, so far as, instead of horses, cows and other cattle, to allow the same to be fed and depastured with sheep, at the option of each person respectively having right of common, and to limit and stint the number of sheep each such person having right of common in such common pastures shall respectively feed and depasture thereon, in due proportion to their respective stints or rights.

21 Rams not to remain upon wastes between Aug. 25 and Nov. 25.

And whereas the improvement of the breed of sheep is a matter of great national importance, and the turning of rams upon wastes and open common fields at certain times of the year has been found to be very prejudicial: No ram shall be turned upon or be suffered to remain upon any wastes or common fields between the twenty-fifth day of August and the twenty-fifth day of November in every year.

22 Persons formerly under disability under this Act may sign agreements.

And whereas several of the owners and proprietors of wastes, commons, and common field lands may, at the time of any meeting to be held in pursuance of this Act, be incapable, through various impediments, of entering into any of the agreements hereby authorised to be made for the better ordering fencing, cultivating and improving of common arable fields wastes and commons of pasture in this kingdom, without the aid and authority of Parliament: It shall and may be lawful to and for the husbands, guardians, trustees, committees or known agent or receiver of any owner and proprietor of wastes, commons and common field lands, and of any person having a right or interest therein, being under coverture, minors, [^{F2}persons of unsound mind] or beyond the seas, and for every or any of them for the time being, and also to and for all and every or any of the said owners and occupiers, being tenants in tail, . . . ^{F3} or tenants for life only, and to and for every or any of them respectively for the time being, to enter into and sign any agreement to be made in pursuance of this Act.
