

Livestock Marketing Commission Act (Northern Ireland) 1967

1967 CHAPTER 21

An Act to establish a Livestock Marketing Commission for the benefit of the livestock and livestock products industries in Northern Ireland. [1st August 1967]

1 The Livestock Marketing Commission.

- (1) There shall be established a body, to be known as the Livestock Marketing Commission for Northern Ireland (in this Act referred to as “the Commission”) having the general duty of examining and recommending improvements in the marketing of livestock and livestock products and the particular functions set out in Part I of the Schedule.
- (2) The Commission shall be a body corporate, with perpetual succession, to which section 19 of the Interpretation Act (Northern Ireland) 1954 shall apply.
- (3) The Commission shall consist of not less than five and not more than seven members appointed by the Minister of Agriculture (in this Act referred to as “the Minister”), and in appointing any person as such a member the Minister shall have regard to the interests of producers of livestock and to other persons trading in livestock and livestock products.
- (4) The Minister shall appoint a member as chairman of the Commission.
- (5) In performing any of their functions under this Act the Commission may co-operate with such other persons as they think fit.
- (6) The supplemental provisions set out in Part II of the Schedule shall have effect in relation to the Commission.

2 Development of livestock and livestock products industries.

- (1) The Commission may make recommendations to the Ministry of Agriculture (in this Act referred to as “the Ministry”) for the better organisation of, or for the development

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Livestock Marketing Commission Act (Northern Ireland) 1967. (See end of Document for details) or expansion of, any section of the livestock industry or the livestock products industry in Northern Ireland.

- (2) Where the Ministry receives any recommendations under subsection (1), it may make a scheme containing provisions for the better organisation of, or for the development or expansion of any section of, the livestock industry or the livestock products industry in Northern Ireland, including provisions for—
 - (a) improving the structure of those industries;
 - (b) disseminating information in relation to the market in and the demand for livestock and livestock products;
 - (c) improving the operation and efficiency of livestock auction markets in Northern Ireland; or
 - (d) promoting the processing and packaging of meat;or provisions which are incidental or supplemental to any purpose referred to above.
- (3) Where a scheme made under subsection (2) confers functions on the Commission, the Ministry may with the consent of the Ministry of Finance make to the Commission on such conditions as the Ministry may specify payments of such amount as the Ministry considers appropriate during the period of three years beginning with the date upon which the scheme comes into operation.
- (4) The Ministry may recover as a civil debt due to it the whole, or such part as it may determine, of any payment under subsection (3) which is made subject to a condition, if the condition is not complied with.
- (5) The Ministry shall not incur any expenditure under a scheme made under subsection (2) which confers functions on the Ministry unless the scheme was made with the consent of the Ministry of Finance, and where the Ministry incurs expenditure under a scheme made with that consent, the scheme shall cease to have effect on the expiration of the period of three years beginning with the date upon which the scheme came into operation.

Subs. (6) rep. by SI 2000/311

- (7) All expenses incurred by the Ministry under this section shall be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament.
- (8) A scheme made under subsection (2) shall be subject to affirmative resolution.

3 Promotion of sale of livestock.

- (1) The Commission may encourage the making of and assist in the negotiating of contracts for the sale of livestock.
- (2) Where any contracts made in pursuance of subsection (1) for the sale of livestock provide for the publication from time to time of the prices at which the purchasers will purchase the livestock, the Commission may arrange for the publication of those prices by such means as, in the opinion of the Commission, are best suited for bringing the prices to the notice of persons selling livestock.
- (3) The Commission may negotiate and publish by such means as they consider appropriate details of the terms on which, and the prices at which, persons will purchase livestock otherwise than under such contracts as are made in pursuance of subsection (1).

Status: Point in time view as at 07/03/2016.

4 Levy for Commission's expenses.

- (1) ^{F1} For the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Commission, the Ministry may, on the recommendation of the Commission, make regulations providing for the imposition of a levy, to be collected by or on behalf of the Commission, in respect of all livestock slaughtered in or sent out of Northern Ireland, but so that the levy shall not exceed^{F2} £1.00] for each sheep, ...^{F3} and^{F2} £6.00] for each bovine animal.
- (2) A levy under this section shall be imposed only on—
- the owners of any livestock slaughtered or the owners of any livestock immediately before they are sent out of Northern Ireland; or
 - other persons engaged in the production, marketing or distribution of livestock or livestock products.
- (3) Regulations made under subsection (1) may include—
- provisions as to the persons by whom any levy under subsection (1) is to be paid or collected;
 - provisions requiring persons slaughtering livestock or carrying or sending out of Northern Ireland any livestock to keep such records and to make such returns as may be specified in the regulations.
- (4) Regulations made under subsection (1) may include provisions making persons guilty of an offence where there is a contravention of the regulations, and for the imposition of penalties on summary conviction of any such offence, but so that a maximum fine and a maximum term of imprisonment specified in the regulations shall not exceed^{F4} level 3 on the standard scale] and three months, respectively.
- (5) Returns or other information furnished or obtained by any person in pursuance of regulations made under subsection (1) shall not be disclosed except—
- with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished;
 - to a member, officer or servant of the Commission;
 - to an officer of the Ministry;
 - in the form of a summary of similar information, so framed that particulars relating to any one person cannot be obtained from it;
 - for the purpose of any criminal proceedings or report of such proceedings;
- and any person who contravenes this subsection shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding^{F4} level 3 on the standard scale] or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.
- (6) No levy shall be imposed under this section in respect of any livestock slaughtered under the^{F5} Diseases of Animals (Northern Ireland) Order 1981] or any order made thereunder.
- (7) The Ministry may by regulations made subject to affirmative resolution vary the sums specified in subsection (1).
- (8) Regulations made under subsection (1) shall be subject to negative resolution.
