

Transport (Scotland) Act 2001

2001 asp 2

PART 4

MISCELLANEOUS

Travel concession schemes

68 Travel concession schemes

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by order require such local transport authority as may be specified in the order, or two or more such authorities acting jointly, to make a scheme covering such area as may be specified in the order for the provision of travel concessions to eligible persons travelling on eligible services on eligible journeys (any such scheme being referred to in this section as a “travelconcession scheme”).
- (2) Any area specified in an order under subsection (1) above shall be the whole or any part of the area, or combined area, of the authority, or authorities, so specified.
- (3) An order imposing a requirement on an authority, or two or more authorities, under subsection (1) above may include such provision as respects any scheme established by that authority, or those authorities, under section 93 of the 1985 Act, which covers the whole or part of the area specified in such order as the Scottish Ministers consider necessary or expedient in consequence of such order.
- (4) A travel concession scheme made by virtue of subsection (1) above shall include such provision—
 - (a) as respects the rate of travel concession;
 - (b) as respects the days and times during which travel concessions shall be provided;
 - (c) requiring the authority, or authorities, to reimburse operators of eligible services for providing travel concessions under the scheme;
 - (d) as respects the enforcement of the scheme; and
 - (e) as respects such other matters relating to the content and operation of the scheme, as may be specified in the order under that subsection.
