

Regulation of Care (Scotland) Act 2001

2001 asp 8

PART 5

PROVISIONS COMMON TO COMMISSION AND COUNCIL

Duty to consult

62 Duty of Commission and Council to consult each other

The Commission and the Council shall each, in the exercise of its functions, consult the other in every case in which it appears to the body exercising the function appropriate that there should be such consultation.

63 Guidance as to consultation

The Scottish Ministers shall issue guidelines to the Commission and to the Council as to the fulfilment, by the body in question, of any requirement under this Act to consult any person or group of persons.
