PART 2

ANIMAL WELFARE

Prevention of harm

21 Cruel operations

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person performs an operation on a protected animal without due care and humanity.
- (2) A person (“person A”) who is responsible for an animal commits an offence if—
 - (a) another person performs an operation on the animal without due care and humanity, and
 - (b) person A—
 - (i) permits that to happen, or
 - (ii) fails to take such steps (whether by way of supervising the other person or otherwise) as are reasonable in the circumstances to prevent that happening.
- (3) This section is subject to the Protection of Animals (Anaesthetics) Act 1954 (c. 46).
