

Sexual Offences (Scotland) Act 2009

2009 asp 9

PART 4

CHILDREN

Young children

21 Causing a young child to participate in a sexual activity

If a person (“A”) intentionally causes a child (“B”) who has not attained the age of 13 years to participate in a sexual activity, then A commits an offence, to be known as the offence of causing a young child to participate in a sexual activity.