Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Criminal Justice and Licensing (Scotland) Act 2010, Cross Heading: Foreign travel orders. (See end of Document for details)

---

- (3) Any passports surrendered must be returned as soon as reasonably practicable after the person ceases to be subject to a foreign travel order containing a prohibition within section 117(2)(c).
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply in relation to—
- (a) a passport issued by or on behalf of the authorities of a country outside the United Kingdom if the passport has been returned to those authorities;
  - (b) a passport issued by or on behalf of an international organisation if the passport has been returned to that organisation.
- (5) In this section “passport” means—
- (a) a United Kingdom passport within the meaning of the Immigration Act 1971 (c.77);
  - (b) a passport issued by or on behalf of the authorities of a country outside the United Kingdom, or by or on behalf of an international organisation;
  - (c) a document that can be used (in some or all circumstances) instead of a passport.”.
- (6) In section 122 (breach of foreign travel order), before subsection (2) insert—
- “(1B) A person commits an offence if, without reasonable excuse, the person fails to comply with—
- (a) a requirement under section 117A(2) (surrender of passports: England and Wales and Northern Ireland), or
  - (b) a requirement under section 117B(2) (surrender of passports: Scotland).
- (1C) A person may be prosecuted, tried and punished for any offence under subsection (1B)—
- (a) in any sheriff court district in which the person is apprehended or is in custody, or
  - (b) in such sheriff court district as the Lord Advocate may determine, as if the offence had been committed in that district (and the offence is, for all purposes incidental to or consequential on the trial or punishment, to be deemed to have been committed in that district).”.
