PART 7

SAFEGUARDING INTERESTS OF CREDITORS

Excessive contributions

101 Recovery of excessive pension contributions

- (1) Where a debtor's estate has been sequestrated and the debtor—
 - (a) has rights under an approved pension arrangement, or
 - (b) has excluded rights under an unapproved pension arrangement,the trustee in the sequestration may apply to the court for an order under this section.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies where the court is satisfied—
 - (a) that the rights under the arrangement are to any extent, and whether directly or indirectly, the fruits of relevant contributions, and
 - (b) that the making of any of the relevant contributions (“the excessive contributions”) has unfairly prejudiced the debtor's creditors.
- (3) The court may make such order as it thinks fit for restoring the position to what it would have been had the excessive contributions not been made.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies where the court is satisfied that the value of the rights under the arrangement is, as a result of rights of the debtor under—
 - (a) the arrangement, or
 - (b) any other pension arrangement,having at any time become subject to a debit under section 29(1)(a) of the 1999 Act (see section 107), less than it would otherwise have been.
- (5) Where this subsection applies—
 - (a) any relevant contributions which were represented by the rights which became subject to the debit are, for the purposes of subsection (2), to be taken to be contributions of which the rights under the arrangement are the fruits, and
 - (b) where the relevant contributions represented by the rights under the arrangement (including those so represented by virtue of paragraph (a)) are not all excessive contributions, relevant contributions which are represented by the rights under the arrangement otherwise than by virtue of paragraph (a) are to be treated as excessive contributions before any which are so represented by virtue of that paragraph.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (6) In subsections (2) to (5), “relevant contributions” means contributions to the arrangement or to any other pension arrangement—
- (a) which the debtor has at any time made on the debtor’s own behalf, or
 - (b) which have at any time been made on the debtor’s behalf.
- (7) The court must, in determining whether it is satisfied under subsection (2)(b), consider in particular—
- (a) whether any of the contributions were made for the purpose of putting assets beyond the reach of, or of any of, the debtor’s creditors, and
 - (b) whether the total amount of any contributions—
 - (i) made by or on behalf of the debtor to pension arrangements, and
 - (ii) represented (whether directly or indirectly) by rights under approved pension arrangements or excluded rights under unapproved pensions arrangements, is an amount which is excessive in view of the debtor’s circumstances when those contributions were made.
- (8) For the purposes of this section and of sections 102 and 103, rights of a debtor under an unapproved pension arrangement are excluded rights if they are rights which are excluded from the debtor’s estate by virtue of regulations under section 12 of the 1999 Act.
- (9) In the recovery provisions (see section 103(7))—
- “approved pension arrangement” has the same meaning as in section 11 of the 1999 Act, and
- “unapproved pension arrangement” has the same meaning as in section 12 of that Act.

102 Orders under section 101

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of section 101(3), an order under that section may include provision—
- (a) requiring the person responsible for the arrangement to pay an amount to the trustee,
 - (b) adjusting the liabilities of the arrangement in respect of the debtor,
 - (c) adjusting any liabilities of the arrangement in respect of any other person that derive, directly or indirectly, from rights of the debtor under the arrangement,
 - (d) for the recovery by the person responsible for the arrangement (whether by deduction from any amount which that person is ordered to pay or otherwise) of costs incurred by that person in complying in the debtor’s case with any requirement under section 103(1) or in giving effect to the order.
- (2) In subsection (1), references to adjusting the liabilities of the arrangement in respect of a person include, in particular, reducing the amount of any benefit or future benefit to which that person is entitled under the arrangement.

- (3) In subsection (1)(c), the reference to liabilities of the arrangement does not include liabilities in respect of a person which result from giving effect to an order or provision falling within section 28(1) of the 1999 Act (pension sharing orders).
- (4) The maximum amount which the person responsible for an arrangement may be required to pay by an order under section 101 is the lesser of—
 - (a) the amount of the excessive contributions, and
 - (b) the value of the debtor’s rights under the arrangement (if the arrangement is an approved pension arrangement) or of the debtor’s excluded rights under the arrangement (if the arrangement is an unapproved pension arrangement).
- (5) An order under section 101 which requires the person responsible for an arrangement to pay an amount (“the restoration amount”) to the trustee must provide for the liabilities of the arrangement to be correspondingly reduced.
- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5), liabilities are correspondingly reduced if the difference between—
 - (a) the amount of the liabilities immediately before the reduction, and
 - (b) their amount immediately after the reduction,is equal to the restoration amount.
- (7) An order under section 101 in respect of an arrangement—
 - (a) is binding on the person responsible for the arrangement, and
 - (b) overrides provisions of the arrangement to the extent that they conflict with the provisions of the order.

103 Orders under section 101: supplementary

- (1) The person responsible for—
 - (a) an approved pension arrangement under which a debtor has rights,
 - (b) an unapproved pension arrangement under which a debtor has excluded rights, or
 - (c) a pension arrangement under which a debtor has at any time had rights,must, on the trustee in the sequestration making a written request, provide the trustee with such information about the arrangement and rights as the trustee may reasonably require for, or in connection with, the making of applications under section 101.
- (2) Nothing in—
 - (a) any provision of section 159 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 or section 91 of the Pensions Act 1995 (which prevent assignation and the making of orders that restrain a person from receiving anything which the person is prevented from assigning),
 - (b) any provision of any enactment (whether passed or made before or after the passing of the 1999 Act) corresponding to any of the provisions mentioned in paragraph (a), or
 - (c) any provision of the arrangement in question corresponding to any of those provisions,applies to a court exercising its powers under section 101.
- (3) Where any sum is required by an order under section 101 to be paid to the trustee, that sum is to be comprised in the debtor’s estate.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (4) Regulations made by the Secretary of State may, for the purposes of the recovery provisions, make provision about the calculation and verification of—
 - (a) any such value as is mentioned in section 102(4)(b),
 - (b) any such amounts as are mentioned in section 102(6)(a) and (b).
- (5) The power conferred by subsection (4) includes power to provide for calculation or verification—
 - (a) in such manner as may, in the particular case, be approved by a prescribed person, or
 - (b) in accordance with guidance from time to time prepared by a prescribed person.
- (6) References in the recovery provisions to the person responsible for a pension arrangement are to—
 - (a) the trustees, managers or provider of the arrangement, or
 - (b) the person having, in relation to the arrangement, functions corresponding to those of a trustee, manager or provider.
- (7) In this section and in section 101, “the recovery provisions” means this section and sections 101 and 102.
- (8) Regulations under subsection (4) may contain such incidental, supplemental and transitional provisions as appear to the Secretary of State necessary or expedient.
- (9) In subsection (5), “prescribed” means prescribed by the regulations.

104 Excessive contributions in pension-sharing cases: general

- (1) For the purposes of section 98, a pension-sharing transaction is taken—
 - (a) to be a transaction, entered into by the transferor (in this section referred to as “TR”) with the transferee (in this section referred to as “TE”), by which the appropriate amount is transferred by TR to TE, and
 - (b) to be capable of being an alienation challengeable under that section only so far as it is a transfer of so much of the appropriate amount as is recoverable.
- (2) For the purposes of section 99, a pension-sharing transaction is taken—
 - (a) to be something (namely a transfer of the appropriate amount to TE) done by TR, and
 - (b) to be capable of being an unfair preference given to TE only so far as it is a transfer of so much of the appropriate amount as is recoverable.
- (3) For the purposes of section 100, a pension-sharing transaction is taken—
 - (a) to be a pension sharing order made by the court under section 8(2) of the Family Law (Scotland) Act 1985, and
 - (b) to be an order capable of being recalled under that section only so far as it is a payment or transfer of so much of the appropriate amount as is recoverable.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies where—
 - (a) an alienation is challenged under section 98,
 - (b) a transaction is challenged under section 99, or
 - (c) an application is made under section 100 for the recall of an order made in divorce proceedings.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (5) If any question arises as to whether, or the extent to which, the appropriate amount in the case of a pension-sharing transaction is recoverable, the question must be determined in accordance with subsections (6) to (10).
- (6) The court is first to determine the extent, if any, to which TR's rights under the shared arrangement at the time of the transaction appear to have been, whether directly or indirectly, the fruits of contributions ("personal contributions") to the shared arrangement or any other pension arrangement—
 - (a) which TR has at any time made on TR's own behalf, or
 - (b) which have at any time been made on TR's behalf.
- (7) Where it appears that those rights were to any extent the fruits of personal contributions, the court is then to determine the extent, if any, to which those rights appear to have been the fruits of personal contributions whose making has unfairly prejudiced TR's creditors ("the unfair contributions").
- (8) If it appears to the court that the extent to which those rights were the fruits of the unfair contributions is such that the transfer of the appropriate amount could have been made out of rights under the shared arrangement which were not the fruits of the unfair contributions, then the appropriate amount is not recoverable.
- (9) If it appears to the court that the transfer could not have been wholly so made, then the appropriate amount is recoverable to the extent to which it appears to the court that the transfer could not have been so made.
- (10) In making the determination mentioned in subsection (7) the court must consider in particular—
 - (a) whether any of the personal contributions were made for the purpose of putting assets beyond the reach of TR's creditors or any of them, and
 - (b) whether the total amount of any personal contributions represented, at the time the pension sharing arrangement was made, by rights under pension arrangements is an amount which is excessive in view of TR's circumstances when those contributions were made.
- (11) In this section and sections 105 and 106—

"appropriate amount", in relation to a pension-sharing transaction, means the appropriate amount in relation to that transaction for the purposes of section 29(1) of the 1999 Act (creation of pension credits and debits),

"pension-sharing transaction" means an order or provision falling within section 28(1) of that Act (orders and agreements which activate pension-sharing),

"shared arrangement", in relation to a pension-sharing transaction, means the pension arrangement to which the transaction relates,

"transferee" (or "TE"), in relation to a pension-sharing transaction, means the person for whose benefit the transaction is made, and

"transferor" (or "TR"), in relation to a pension-sharing transaction, means the person to whose rights the transaction relates.

105 Excessive contributions in pension-sharing cases: recovery orders

- (1) In this section and section 106, "recovery order" means, in any proceedings to which section 104 applies—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) a decree granted under section 98(5),
 - (b) a decree granted under section 99(6), or
 - (c) an order made under section 100(2).
- (2) A recovery order may include provision—
- (a) requiring the person responsible for a pension arrangement in which TE (see section 104(11)) has acquired rights derived directly or indirectly from the pension-sharing transaction (again see that section) to pay an amount to the trustee,
 - (b) adjusting the liabilities of the pension arrangement in respect of TE,
 - (c) adjusting any liabilities of the pension arrangement in respect of any other person that derive, directly or indirectly, from rights of TE under the arrangement,
 - (d) for the recovery by the person responsible for the pension arrangement (whether by deduction from any amount which that person is ordered to pay or otherwise) of costs incurred by that person in complying in the debtor's case with any requirement under section 106(1) or in giving effect to the order.
- (3) Subsection (2) is without prejudice to the generality of section 98(5), 99(6) or 100(2).
- (4) In subsection (2), references to adjusting the liabilities of a pension arrangement in respect of a person include, in particular, reducing the amount of any benefit or future benefit to which that person is entitled under the arrangement.
- (5) The maximum amount which the person responsible for an arrangement may be required to pay by a recovery order is the smallest of—
- (a) so much of the appropriate amount (see section 104(11)) as is recoverable in accordance with section 104,
 - (b) so much, if any, of the amount of the unfair contributions (within the meaning given by section 104(7)) as is not recoverable by way of an order under section 101 containing provision such as is mentioned in section 102(1)(a), and
 - (c) the value of the debtor's rights under the arrangement acquired by TE as a consequence of the transfer of the appropriate amount.
- (6) A recovery order which requires the person responsible for an arrangement to pay an amount ("the restoration amount") to the trustee must provide for the liabilities of the arrangement to be correspondingly reduced.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6), liabilities are correspondingly reduced if the difference between—
- (a) the amount of the liabilities immediately before the reduction, and
 - (b) their amount immediately after the reduction,
- is equal to the restoration amount.
- (8) A recovery order in respect of an arrangement—
- (a) is binding on the person responsible for the arrangement, and
 - (b) overrides provisions of the arrangement to the extent that they conflict with the provisions of the order.

106 Recovery orders: supplementary

- (1) The person responsible for a pension arrangement under which TE has, at any time, acquired rights by virtue of the transfer of the appropriate amount (see section 104(11)) is, on the trustee making a written request, to provide the trustee with such information about the arrangement and the rights under it of TR and TE as the trustee may reasonably require for, or in connection with, the making of an application for a recovery order.
- (2) Nothing in the provisions mentioned in subsection (3) applies to a court exercising its power to make a recovery order (see section 105(1)).
- (3) The provisions are—
 - (a) any provision of section 159 of the Pension Schemes Act 1993 or section 91 of the Pensions Act 1995 (which prevent assignation and the making of orders which restrain a person from receiving anything the person is prevented from assigning),
 - (b) any provision of any enactment (whether passed or made before or after the passing of the 1999 Act) corresponding to any of the provisions mentioned in paragraph (a), or
 - (c) any provision of the arrangement in question corresponding to any of those provisions.
- (4) Regulations may, for the purposes of the recovery provisions, make provision about the calculation and verification of—
 - (a) any such value as is mentioned in section 105(5)(c),
 - (b) any such amounts as are mentioned in section 105(7)(a) and (b).
- (5) The power conferred by subsection (4) includes power to provide for calculation or verification—
 - (a) in such manner as may, in the particular case, be approved by a prescribed person, or
 - (b) in accordance with guidance from time to time prepared by a prescribed person.
- (6) References in the recovery provisions to the person responsible for a pension arrangement are to—
 - (a) the trustees, managers or providers of the arrangement, or
 - (b) the person having, in relation to the arrangement, functions corresponding to those of a trustee, manager or provider.
- (7) In this section—
 - “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations,
 - “the recovery provisions” means this section and sections 98, 99, 100 and 105, and
 - “regulations” means regulations made by the Secretary of State.
- (8) Regulations under the recovery provisions may contain such incidental, supplemental and transitional provisions as appear to the Secretary of State necessary or expedient.

107 References in Part 7 to “the 1889 Act” and to “the 1999 Act”

In this Part, references—
