- (a) an individual has applied for a particular type of assistance in respect of a period or (as the case may be) event, and
 - (b) the Scottish Ministers have made a determination of the individual's entitlement to that type of assistance in respect of the period or event,
- the individual cannot make another application for that type of assistance in respect of the period or event.
- (4) Despite subsection (3), an individual may make another application for a particular type of assistance in respect of an event if the latest determination of the individual's entitlement to that type of assistance in respect of the event states that the individual may make another application.
- (5) If the Scottish Ministers reject something purporting to be an application for assistance, they must inform the individual concerned of—
- (a) the decision to do that,
 - (b) the reasons for it, and
 - (c) the individual's right to appeal under section 61.
