

Fireworks and Pyrotechnic Articles (Scotland) Act 2022

2022 asp 9

PART 7

GENERAL PROVISIONS

50 Report on operation of Act

- (1) The Scottish Ministers must, as soon as practicable after the end of the reporting period, lay before the Scottish Parliament a report on the operation of this Act during the reporting period.
- (2) The report must, in particular, include information about—
  - (a) proceedings and convictions in respect of relevant offences during the reporting period,
  - (b) the number of incidents connected to fireworks and other pyrotechnic articles which occurred during the reporting period, and
  - (c) the views and experiences of persons in relation to the use of fireworks in their communities during the relevant period.
- (3) The reporting period is the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which this Act receives Royal Assent.
- (4) In this section, “relevant offence” means an offence under this Act or listed in section 7(4)(b) and (c).

II S. 50 in force at 11.8.2022, see s. 56\(1\)

51 Interpretation

In this Act—

“chief constable” means the chief constable of the Police Service of Scotland,

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Fireworks and Pyrotechnic Articles (Scotland) Act 2022, Part 7. (See end of Document for details)

“constable” has the same meaning as in section 99(1) of the Police and Fire Reform (Scotland) Act 2012,

“firework control zone”, in relation to the area of a local authority, means a place within the area which has been designated as a firework control zone by the local authority under section 27(1) (and a reference to such a zone includes a zone as it has been amended),

“fireworks licence” means a fireworks licence granted by the Scottish Ministers under section 9,

“licensed person” means a person who has a fireworks licence (and a reference to an unlicensed person is to be construed accordingly),

“public fireworks display” means a fireworks display at which the public, or any section of the public, are present (whether or not they have paid to be) that complies with regulations made under section 6 of the Fireworks Act 2003 (if any),

“regulatory authority” means—

- (a) the Chief Constable of the Police Service of Scotland,
- (b) the Health and Safety Executive,
- (c) a local authority,
- (d) a local weights and measures authority.

52 Regulations

Any power of the Scottish Ministers to make regulations under this Act, other than section 56, includes power to make—

- (a) different provision for different purposes,
- (b) incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision.

Commencement Information

I3 S. 52 in force at 11.8.2022, see s. 56\(1\)

53 Ancillary provision

- (1) The Scottish Ministers may by regulations make any incidental, supplementary, consequential, transitional, transitory or saving provision they consider appropriate for the purposes of, in connection with or for giving full effect to this Act or any provision made under it.
- (2) Regulations under subsection (1) may modify any enactment (including this Act).
- (3) Regulations under subsection (1)—
  - (a) are subject to the affirmative procedure if they add to, replace or omit any part of the text of an Act (including this Act), but
  - (b) otherwise, are subject to the negative procedure.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Fireworks and Pyrotechnic Articles (Scotland) Act 2022, Part 7. (See end of Document for details)

Commencement Information

I4 S. 53 in force at 11.8.2022, see s. 56\(1\)

54 Crown application: criminal offences

- (1) No contravention of any provision made by this Act makes the Crown criminally liable.
- (2) But the Court of Session may, on the application of the Lord Advocate, declare unlawful any act or omission of the Crown which constitutes such a contravention.
- (3) Despite subsection (1), any provision made by or under this Act applies to a person in the public service of the Crown as it applies to other persons.
