- (2) On the application, the court may by order terminate the banning order as from a specified date or refuse the application.
- (3) In exercising its powers under subsection (2), the court must have regard to—
 - (a) the person's character,
 - (b) the conduct of that person since the banning order was made,
 - (c) the nature of the offence which led to it, and
 - (d) any other circumstances which appear to it to be relevant.
- (4) Where an application under subsection (1) in respect of a banning order is refused, no further application in respect of the order may be made within the period of 6 months beginning with the day of the refusal.
- (5) The court may order the applicant to pay all or any part of the costs of an application under this section.
