

2014 CHAPTER 4

Offences

Offences

- 10.—(1) If an unregistered person carries on a tobacco business, the person commits an offence.
- (2) If a registered person carries on a tobacco business at premises other than those noted in the person's entry in the Register, the person commits an offence.
- (3) If a person fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with section 3 (duty to notify certain changes), the person commits an offence.
 - (4) If—
 - (a) a person sells on any premises any tobacco or cigarette papers in contravention of a restricted premises order, and
 - (b) the person knew, or ought reasonably to have known, that the sale was in contravention of the order, the person commits an offence.

- (5) If a person fails to comply with a restricted sale order, the person commits an offence.
- (6) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under subsection (5) to prove that the person took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence.
- (7) If a person fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with section 8(2), the person commits an offence.
- (8) If a person fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with section 9(2), the person commits an offence.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).
