Enforcement of orders made outside Northern Ireland

Art. 41 rep. by 2002 c. 29

^{F2}Enforcement of external confiscation orders

42.—(1) The Secretary of State may by order—

- (a) direct in relation to a country or territory outside the United Kingdom designated by an Order in Council under section 39 of the Drug Trafficking Act 1994 or section 96 of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 (“a designated country”) that, subject to such modifications as may be specified, this Order shall apply to external confiscation orders and to proceedings which have been or are to be instituted in the designated country and may result in an external confiscation order being made there;
- (b) make—
 - (i) such provision in connection with the taking of action in the designated country with a view to satisfying a confiscation order;
 - (ii) such provision as to evidence or proof of any matter for the purposes of this Article and Article 43; and
 - (iii) such incidental, consequential and transitional provision, as appears to the Secretary of State to be expedient; and
- (c) without prejudice to the generality of this paragraph, direct that in such circumstances as may be specified proceeds which arise out of action taken in the designated country with a view to satisfying a confiscation order and which are retained there shall nevertheless be treated as reducing the amount payable under the order to such extent as may be specified.

(2) The power to make an order under this Article includes power to modify this Order in such a way as to confer power on a person to exercise a discretion.

(3) An order under paragraph (1) shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament in like manner as a statutory instrument and section 5 of the Statutory Instruments Act 1946 shall apply accordingly.

F2 prosp. rep. by 2002 c. 29

^{F3}Registration of external confiscation orders

43.—(1) On an application made by or on behalf of the government of a designated country, the High Court may register an external confiscation order made there if—

- (a) it is satisfied that at the time of registration the order is in force and not subject to appeal;
- (b) it is satisfied, where the person against whom the order is made did not appear in the proceedings, that he received notice of the proceedings in sufficient time to enable him to defend them; and
- (c) it is of the opinion that enforcing the order in Northern Ireland would not be contrary to the interests of justice.

(2) In paragraph (1) “appeal” includes—

- (a) any proceedings by way of discharging or setting aside a judgment; and
- (b) an application for a new trial or a stay of execution.

(3) The High Court shall cancel the registration of an external confiscation order if it appears to the Court that the order has been satisfied by payment of the amount due under it.

(4) In this Article “designated country” has the same meaning as in Article 42.

F3 prosp. rep. by 2002 c. 29

Part III (Arts. 44#48) rep. by 2002 c. 29

PART IV

Order to make material available

50.—(1) A constable or a financial investigator may for the purposes of an investigation into^{F20} drug trafficking] apply to a^{F20} Crown Court] judge for an order under paragraph (2) in relation to particular material or material of a particular description.

(2) Subject to Article 54(11), if on such an application the judge is satisfied that the conditions in paragraph (4) are fulfilled, he may make an order that the person who appears to him to be in possession of the material to which the application relates shall—

- (a) produce it to a constable^{F21} or a financial investigator] for him to take away, or
- (b) give a constable^{F21} or a financial investigator] access to it, within such period as the order may specify.

(3) The period to be specified in an order under paragraph (2) shall be 7 days unless it appears to the judge that a longer or shorter period would be appropriate in the particular circumstances of the application.

(4) The conditions referred to in paragraph (2) are—

- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a specified person^{F20} has carried on drug trafficking]
- (b) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that the material to which the application relates—
 - (i) is likely to be of substantial value (whether by itself or together with other material) to the investigation for the purpose of which the application is made, and
 - (ii) does not consist of or include items subject to legal privilege or excluded material, and
- (c) that there are reasonable grounds for believing that it is in the public interest, having regard—
 - (i) to the benefit likely to accrue to the investigation if the material is obtained, and
 - (ii) to the circumstances under which the person in possession of the material holds it, that the material should be produced or that access to it should be given.

(5) Where the judge makes an order under paragraph (2)(b) in relation to material on any premises he may, on the application of a constable or a financial investigator, order any person who appears to him to be entitled to grant entry to the premises to allow a constable^{F21} or a financial investigator] to enter the premises to obtain access to the material.

(6) An application under paragraph (1) or (5) may be made ex parte to a judge in chambers.

Changes to legislation: The Proceeds of Crime (Northern Ireland) Order 1996 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 28 July 2023. [^{F21}(6A) Paragraph (6) does not apply to an application made for an order addressed to a solicitor if for the purposes of the same investigation the solicitor has been required to furnish information under paragraph 3A of Schedule 2.]

(7) Provision may be made by Crown Court rules as to—

- (a) the discharge and variation of orders under this Article, and
- (b) proceedings relating to such orders.

(8) An order of a [^{F20} Crown Court] judge under this Article shall have effect as if it were an order of the Crown Court.

(9) Where the material to which an application under this Article relates consists of information contained in a computer—

- (a) an order under paragraph (2)(a) shall have effect as an order to produce the material in a form in which it can be taken away and in which it is visible and legible, and
- (b) an order under paragraph (2)(b) shall have effect as an order to give access to the material in a form in which it is visible and legible.

(10) An order under paragraph (2)—

- (a) shall not confer any right to production of, or access to, items subject to legal privilege or excluded material,
- (b) shall have effect notwithstanding any obligation as to secrecy or other restriction upon the disclosure of information imposed by statute or otherwise, and
- (c) may be made in relation to material in the possession of an authorised government department.

Authority for search

51.—(1) A constable or a financial investigator may for the purposes of an investigation into [^{F22} drug trafficking] apply to a [^{F22} Crown Court] judge for a warrant under this Article in relation to specified premises.

(2) On such application the judge may issue a warrant authorising a constable to enter and search the premises if he is satisfied—

- (a) that an order made under Article 50 in relation to material on the premises has not been complied with, or
- (b) that the conditions in paragraph (3) are fulfilled, or
- (c) that the conditions in paragraph (4) are fulfilled.

(3) The conditions referred to in paragraph (2)(b) are—

- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a specified person [^{F22} has carried on drug trafficking]
- (b) that the conditions in Article 50(4)(b) and (c) are fulfilled in relation to any material on the premises, and
- (c) that it would not be appropriate to make an order under that Article in relation to the material because—

- (i) it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to produce the material,

- (ii) it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant access to the material or entitled to grant entry to the premises on which the material is situated, or
 - (iii) the investigation for the purpose of which the application is made might be seriously prejudiced unless a constable could secure immediate access to the material.
- (4) The conditions referred to in paragraph (2)(c) are—
- (a) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that a specified person^[F22] has carried on drug trafficking]
 - (b) that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is on the premises material relating—
 - (i) to the specified person, or
 - (ii) to^[F22] drug trafficking]which is likely to be of substantial value (whether by itself or together with other material) to the investigation for the purpose of which the application is made, but that the material cannot at the time of the application be particularised, and
 - (c) that—
 - (i) it is not practicable to communicate with any person entitled to grant entry to the premises; or
 - (ii) entry to the premises will not be granted unless a warrant is produced; or
 - (iii) the investigation for the purpose of which the application is made might be seriously prejudiced unless a constable arriving at the premises could secure immediate entry to them.
- (5) Where a constable has entered premises in the execution of a warrant issued under this Article, he may seize and retain any material, other than items subject to legal privilege and excluded material, which is likely to be of substantial value (whether by itself or together with other material) to the investigation for the purpose of which the warrant was issued.

F22 2002 c. 29

Articles 50 and 51: supplementary provisions

52.—(1) For the purposes of Articles 23 and 24 of the Police and Criminal Evidence (Northern Ireland) Order 1989 (access to, and copying and retention of, seized material)—

- (a) an investigation into^[F23] drug trafficking] shall be treated (so far as that would not otherwise be the case) as if it were an investigation of, or in connection with, an offence, and
- (b) material produced in pursuance of an order under Article 50(2)(a) shall be treated as if it were material seized by a constable.

(2) In Articles 50 and 51—

- (a) “excluded material”, “items subject to legal privilege” and “premises” have the same meanings as in that Order of 1989;^{F24} . . .

Offence of prejudicing investigation

53.—(1) Where, in relation to an investigation into drug trafficking—

- (a) an order under Article 50 has been made or has been applied for and has not been refused, or
- (b) a warrant under Article 51 has been issued, a person shall be guilty of an offence if, knowing or suspecting that the investigation is taking place, he makes any disclosure which is likely to prejudice the investigation.

(2) In proceedings against a person for an offence under this Article, it is a defence to prove—

- (a) that he did not know or suspect that the disclosure was likely to prejudice the investigation, or
- (b) that he had lawful authority or reasonable excuse for making the disclosure.

(3) Nothing in paragraph (1) makes it an offence for a professional legal adviser to disclose any information or other matter—

- (a) to, or to a representative of, a client of his in connection with the giving by the adviser of legal advice to the client, or
- (b) to any person—
 - (i) in contemplation of, or in connection with, legal proceedings; and
 - (ii) for the purpose of those proceedings.

(4) Paragraph (3) does not apply in relation to any information or other matter which is disclosed with a view to furthering any criminal purpose.

(5) A person guilty of an offence under this Article shall be liable—

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years or to a fine or to both;
- (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.

Disclosure of information held by government departments

Paras. (1)#(10) rep. by 2002 c. 29

(11) ^{F25} . . . in the case of material in the possession of an authorised government department, an order under Article 50(2) may require any officer of the department (whether named in the order or not) who may for the time being be in possession of the material concerned to comply with it, and such an order shall be served as if the proceedings were civil proceedings against the department.

(12) The person on whom such an order is served—

- (a) shall take all reasonable steps to bring it to the attention of the officer concerned, and
- (b) if the order is not brought to that officer's attention within the period^{F26} specified in an order under Article 50(2)], shall report the reasons for the failure to the High Court; and any other officer of the department in receipt of the order shall take such steps as are mentioned in sub-paragraph (a).
