2000 No. 192

The Food Protection (Emergency Prohibitions) (Paralytic Shellfish Poisoning) (Orkney) (Scotland) Order 2000

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Food Protection (Emergency Prohibitions) (Paralytic Shellfish Poisoning) (Orkney) (Scotland) Order 2000 and shall come into force at 1600 hours on June 2000.

(2) In this Order “mussels” means mytilus edulis, “razor clams” means “ensis s.p.p.” and “scallops” means scallops of the class of pecten maximus and Queen scallops of the class of chlamys opercularis and “relevant time” means 0001 on 14th June 2000.

Designated circumstances

2. In the opinion of the Scottish Ministers, mussels, razor clams and scallops in the area designated in article 3 below may be affected by the toxin which causes paralytic shellfish poisoning in human beings and are likely to create a hazard to human health if they are consumed.

Designated area

3. The area described in the Schedule to this Order is hereby designated for the purposes of Part I of the Food and Environment Protection Act 1985.

Activity prohibited in the designated area

4. No person shall fish for or take any mussels, razor clams or scallops in the designated area.

Prohibited movement of mussels, razor clams or scallops

5. No person shall move any mussels, razor clams or scallops out of the designated area.

Restrictions

6. No person shall—

- (a) use any mussels, razor clams or scallops taken out of the designated area after the relevant time in the preparation or processing for supply of food and anything from which food could be derived;
- (b) land any mussels, razor clams or scallops which were in waters in the designated area after the relevant time;
- (c) supply, or have in possession for supply, any mussels, razor claims or scallops which were in the designated area after the relevant time;
- (d) supply, or have in possession for supply, any food or anything from which food could be derived in the preparation or processing of which anything was used in contravention of paragraph (a) of this article; or

- (e) feed to any creature a feeding stuff in the preparation or processing of which anything was used in contravention of paragraph (a) of this article.
