EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order brings sections 153 and 155 of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2010 into force on 22nd February 2012 for limited purposes.

Section 153 provides landlords with discretion to retain tenants in their existing tenancies where agreement has been reached about rent arrears following a court decree for eviction. It is commenced for the purposes of enabling the Scottish Ministers to make provision by order under section 16(5A) (c) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001 about the maximum period for recovery to be specified in court orders and to issue guidance in terms of section 16(5A)(d) of that Act about recovery of possession by landlords.

Section 155 requires landlords to comply with pre-action requirements before commencing court proceedings where a tenant has rent arrears. It is commenced for the purposes of enabling the Scottish Ministers to make regulations under section 14(2A)(b) of the Housing (Scotland) Act 2001 about confirmation to the court that pre-action requirements have been complied with, to issue guidance in terms of section 14A(8) of that Act about how a landlord should comply with those requirements, and to make further provision by order under section 14A(9) of that Act about those requirements.

The Housing (Scotland) Act 2010 received Royal Assent on 9th December 2010. Sections 161, 163 and 165 to 167 came into force on Royal Assent.
