CHAPTER 3

Over-entitlement

CHAPTER 1

Applications

Who may apply

22. In the case of a couple an application is to be made by whichever one of them they agree should apply or, in default of agreement, by whichever one of them the relevant authority determines is to make the application.

Written applications

23.—(1) Subject to regulation 24 (applications: universal credit claimants) and regulation 25 (telephone applications) an application must be sent in writing to the office designated by the relevant authority as the office to which applications should be sent and—

- (a) made on a properly completed form approved for the purposes by the relevant authority, or
- (b) in such written form as the relevant authority accepts as sufficient in the circumstances of any particular case or class of cases having regard to the sufficiency of the written information and evidence.

(2) Where an application is not made in the form described in paragraph (1)(a) or (b) it is defective.

(3) Where an application is defective because—

- (a) it was made on the form approved for the purpose but that form is not accepted by the relevant authority as being properly completed, the relevant authority may request the applicant to complete the defective application, or
- (b) it was made in writing but not on the form approved for the purpose and the relevant authority does not accept the application as being in a written form which is sufficient in the circumstances of the case, having regard to the sufficiency of the written information and evidence, the relevant authority may supply the applicant with the approved form or request further information or evidence.

(4) A defective application is to be treated as if it had been validly made in the first instance if, in any particular case, one of the conditions specified in paragraph (5) is satisfied.

(5) The conditions are that—

- (a) where paragraph (3)(a) (incomplete form) applies, the relevant authority receives the properly completed application or the information requested to complete it within one month of the authority’s request, or any longer period the relevant authority considers reasonable, or

- (b) where paragraph (3)(b) (application not on approved form or further information requested by relevant authority) applies—
 - (i) the approved form sent to the applicant is received by the relevant authority properly completed within one month of it having been sent to the applicant, or any longer period the relevant authority considers reasonable, or
 - (ii) the applicant supplies whatever information or evidence was requested under that paragraph within one month of the request, or any longer period the relevant authority considers reasonable.

(6) An application made on an approved form is for the purposes of these Regulations properly completed if completed in accordance with the instructions on the form, including any instructions to provide information and evidence in connection with the application.

Applications: universal credit claimants

24.—(1) An application may be treated as made where—

- (a) a person has made a claim for universal credit,
- (b) the Secretary of State has supplied relevant information in relation to that person to a relevant authority in accordance with section 131 of the 2012 Act (information-sharing in relation to welfare services etc.)(142), and
- (c) that person is liable to pay council tax to the relevant authority.

(2) Paragraph (1) is not to be construed as creating a duty, obligation, or right which is contrary to any duty, obligation or right created by—

- (a) the data protection legislation listed in section 3(9) of the Data Protection Act 2018(143), or
- (b) any other rule of law which relates to data protection.

Telephone applications

25.—(1) Where the relevant authority has published a telephone number for the purpose of receiving applications for council tax reduction, an application may be made by telephone to that telephone number.

(2) The relevant authority may determine that an application made by telephone is not a valid application unless the applicant approves a written statement of the person's circumstances, provided by the relevant authority.

(3) An application made by telephone in accordance with paragraph (1) is defective unless the relevant authority is provided with all the information requested by it during the telephone call.

(4) Where an application made by telephone in accordance with paragraph (1) is defective, the applicant must be given an opportunity to correct the defect.

(5) If the applicant corrects the defect referred to in paragraph (4) within one month, or any longer period the relevant authority considers reasonable, of the date the authority last drew attention to the defect, the application is to be treated as if it had been validly made in the first instance.

(6) If the person does not correct the defect within one month, or any longer period the relevant authority considers reasonable, of the date the authority last drew attention to the defect, the application may be treated as if it had not been defective if the relevant authority considers that it has sufficient information to determine the application.

(142)Section 131 was amended by section 4 of the Wales Act 2014 (c.29) and section 20 of the Welfare Reform and Work Act 2016 (c.7).

(4) Where a relevant authority has not set or imposed its council tax by the beginning of the financial year, if an application for council tax reduction is properly made or treated as made and—

- (a) the date on which the application is made or treated as made is in the period from 1 April of the current year and ending one month after the date on which the authority sets or imposes the tax, and
- (b) if the tax had been determined, the applicant would have been entitled to council tax reduction either from—
 - (i) the reduction week in which 1 April of the current year fell, or
 - (ii) a reduction week falling after the date specified in head (i) but before the application was made, the relevant authority must treat the application as made in the reduction week immediately preceding the reduction week in which such entitlement would have commenced.

(5) Except in the case of an application made by a person living abroad, where the applicant is not entitled to council tax reduction in the reduction week immediately following the date of the application but the relevant authority is of the opinion that unless there is a change of circumstances the applicant will be entitled to council tax reduction for a period beginning not later than the thirteenth reduction week following the date on which the application is made, the relevant authority may treat the application as made on a date in the reduction week immediately preceding the first reduction week of that period of entitlement and grant entitlement to council tax reduction accordingly.

(6) In the case of a person who has attained, or whose partner has attained, the age which is 17 weeks younger than pensionable age, paragraph (5) applies as if for the reference to the thirteenth reduction week, there was substituted a reference to the seventeenth reduction week.

(2) Where the change of circumstances is a change in the amount—

(a) of any benefit a person receives under the benefit Acts and the rate of that benefit is altered with effect from a date on or after 1 April in a year, but not later than 15 April in a year, the relevant authority may treat the person as possessing that benefit at the altered rate from 1 April or from the first Monday in April in that year,

(9) Where the change of circumstances is the death of an applicant's partner and at the date of that death the partners jointly had an award of universal credit, it takes effect on the last day on which the applicant's partner is treated as if they had not died for the purpose of entitlement to universal credit in accordance with regulation 37(a) of the 2013 Regulations (run-on after a death),

(10) If two or more changes of circumstances occurring in the same reduction week would, but for this paragraph, take effect in different reduction weeks in accordance with paragraphs (1) to (9) they take effect from the day to which the appropriate paragraph from (2) to (9) refers, or, where more than one day is concerned, from the earlier day.

PART 6

Assessment of household income and capital

CHAPTER 1

General

Calculation of income and capital of members of applicant's family

36.—(1) The income and capital of an applicant's partner is to be treated as income and capital of the applicant and is to be calculated or estimated in accordance with the provisions of this Part in the same way the applicant's income and capital is calculated or estimated and any reference to the "applicant" in this Part and in schedule 4 is, except where the context otherwise requires, to be construed for the purposes of this Part as if it included a reference to the applicant's partner.

(2) The income and capital of a child or young person is not to be treated as the income and capital of the applicant.

Circumstances in which income and capital of a non-dependant is to be treated as applicant's

37.—(1) Where it appears to the relevant authority that a non-dependant and the applicant have entered into arrangements in order to take advantage of the council tax reduction scheme set out in these Regulations and the non-dependant has more capital and income than the applicant, the authority must, except where the applicant is on a qualifying income-related benefit, treat the applicant as possessing the capital and income of the non-dependant and must disregard any capital and income which the applicant does possess.

(2) Where an applicant is treated as possessing the capital and income of a non-dependant under paragraph (1) the capital and income of that non-dependant is to be calculated or estimated in accordance with the provisions of this Part as if it was the capital and income of the applicant and any reference to the "applicant" is, except where the context otherwise requires, to be construed for the purposes of this Part as if it were a reference to that non-dependant.

CHAPTER 2

Calculation of weekly income

Calculation of income on a weekly basis (applicants with no award of universal credit)

38.—(1) This regulation and regulations 39 to 41 apply where neither the applicant nor the applicant's partner, nor the partners jointly, have an award of universal credit.

(2) For the purposes of regulation 13(6) or regulation 14(5) (conditions of entitlement to council tax reduction) the income of an applicant is to be calculated on a weekly basis—

- (a) by estimating the amount which is likely to be the applicant's average weekly earned income in accordance with this Chapter and Chapter 3 of this Part and regulations 59 to 62 (student income),
- (b) by adding to that amount the average weekly unearned income calculated in accordance with this Chapter and Chapter 4 of this Part,
- (c) by deducting any relevant childcare charges calculated in accordance with regulation 77, and

- (d) in a case where the conditions in paragraph (3) are met, from that sum plus whichever credit specified in paragraph (3)(b) is appropriate, up to the maximum deduction specified in paragraph (4).
- (3) The conditions referred to in paragraph (2)(d) are that—
 - (a) the applicant's average weekly earned income is less than the lower of the relevant childcare charges or whichever of the deductions specified in paragraph (2)(c) otherwise applies, and
 - (b) the applicant, or if the applicant is a member of a couple, either the applicant or the other member of the couple, is in receipt of working tax credit or child tax credit.
- (4) The maximum deduction to which paragraph (2)(d) refers is—
 - (a) where the applicant's family includes only one child in respect of whom relevant childcare charges are paid, £175.00 per week, and
 - (b) where the applicant's family includes more than one child in respect of whom relevant childcare charges are paid, £300.00 per week.

Average weekly employed earnings

39.—(1) For the purpose of regulation 38(2)(a), where an applicant's income consists of employed earnings, the applicant's average weekly earnings are to be estimated by reference to the earnings from that employment—

- (a) over a period immediately preceding the reduction week in which the application is made or treated as made and being a period of—
 - (i) 5 weeks, if the applicant is paid weekly, or
 - (ii) 2 months, if the applicant is paid monthly, or
 - (b) whether or not sub-paragraph (a)(i) or (ii) applies, where an applicant's earnings fluctuate, over such other period preceding the reduction week in which the application is made or treated as made as may, in any particular case, enable the applicant's average weekly earnings to be estimated more accurately.
- (2) Where the applicant has been in that employment for less than the period specified in paragraph (1)(a)(i) or (ii)—
- (a) in a case where the applicant has received earnings for the period that the applicant has been in that employment and those earnings are likely to represent the average weekly earnings from that employment, the applicant's average weekly earnings are to be estimated by reference to those earnings,
 - (b) in any other case, the relevant authority must require the applicant's employer to furnish an estimate of the applicant's likely weekly earnings over such period as the relevant authority may require and the applicant's average weekly earnings are to be estimated by reference to that estimate.
- (3) Where the amount of an applicant's earnings changes during a period of entitlement to council tax reduction, average weekly earnings are to be estimated by reference to the applicant's likely earnings from the employment over a period that is appropriate to allow the average weekly earnings to be estimated accurately but the length of the period is not in any case to exceed 52 weeks.
- (4) For the purposes of this regulation the applicant's employed earnings are to be calculated in accordance with Chapter 3 of this Part.

Average weekly earnings of self-employed earners

40.—(1) For the purpose of regulation 38(2)(a), where an applicant’s income consists of self-employed earnings the applicant’s average weekly earnings are to be estimated by reference to the earnings from that employment over such period as is appropriate in order that the applicant’s average weekly earnings may be estimated accurately but the length of the period is not in any case to exceed 52 weeks.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation the applicant’s self-employed earnings are to be calculated in accordance with Chapter 3 of this Part.

Average weekly unearned income

41.—(1) For the purpose of regulation 38(2)(b), an applicant’s unearned income must, except where paragraph (2) applies, be estimated over a period that is appropriate to allow the applicant’s average weekly income to be estimated accurately but the length of the period is not in any case to exceed 52 weeks and nothing in this paragraph authorises a relevant authority to disregard any income other than that specified in these Regulations.

(2) The period over which any benefit under the benefit Acts is to be taken into account is the period in respect of which that benefit is payable.

(3) For the purposes of this regulation unearned income is to be calculated in accordance with Chapter 4 of this Part.

Calculation of income on a weekly basis (applicants with an award of universal credit)

42.—(1) This regulation and regulation 43 apply where the applicant or the applicant’s partner has, or the partners jointly have, an award of universal credit.

(2) For the purposes of regulation 13(6) or regulation 14(5) (conditions of entitlement to council tax reduction) the income of an applicant is to be calculated on a weekly basis—

- (a) by estimating the amount which is likely to be the applicant’s average weekly earned income in accordance with this Chapter and Chapter 3 of this Part and regulations 59 to 62 (student income),
- (b) by adding to that amount the weekly unearned income calculated in accordance with this Chapter and Chapter 4 of this Part, and
- (c) by then deducting any relevant childcare charges calculated in accordance with regulation 78(3), or in a case where the conditions in paragraph (3) are met, from that sum plus whichever credit specified in paragraph (3)(b) is appropriate, up to a maximum deduction.

(3) The conditions referred to in paragraph (2)(c) are that—

- (a) the applicant’s average weekly earned income is less than the lower of the relevant child care charges or whichever of the deductions specified in paragraph (b) otherwise applies, and
- (b) the applicant or, if the applicant is a member of a couple, either the applicant or the other member of the couple, is in receipt of working tax credit or child tax credit.

(4) The maximum deduction to which paragraph (2)(c) refers is—

- (a) where the applicant’s family includes only one child in respect of whom relevant childcare charges are paid, £175.00 per week, and

Calculation of average weekly income

- (a) multiplying the applicant’s earned income for an assessment period by 12, and
- (b) dividing the product by 52.

(2) For the purpose of regulation 42(2)(b) an applicant’s average weekly unearned income is calculated by—

51.—(1) This regulation applies for the purpose of calculating earned income that is not employed earnings and is derived from carrying on a trade, profession or vocation (“self-employed earnings”).

(2) Where the applicant or the applicant’s partner has, or the partners jointly have, an award of universal credit, an applicant’s self-employed earnings in respect of an assessment period are to be calculated in accordance with the steps in this paragraph, and in accordance with paragraphs (3) and (4)—

Step 1

Calculate the amount of the applicant’s profit or loss in respect of each trade, profession or vocation carried on by the applicant by—

- (a) taking the actual receipts in that assessment period, and
- (b) deducting any amounts allowed as expenses under regulation 53 or 54.

Where a trade, profession or vocation is carried on in a partnership, take the amount of the profit or loss attributable to the applicant’s share in the partnership.

Step 2

If the applicant has carried on more than one trade, profession or vocation in the assessment period, add together the amounts resulting from step 1 in respect of each trade, profession or vocation.

Step 3

Deduct from the amount resulting from step 1 or (where applicable) step 2 any payment made by the applicant to HMRC in the assessment period by way of national insurance contributions or income tax in respect of any trade, profession or vocation carried on by the applicant.

If the amount resulting from steps 1 to 3 is nil or a negative amount, the amount of the applicant’s self-employed earnings in respect of the assessment period is nil (and ignore the following steps).

If the amount resulting from this step is nil or a negative amount, the applicant's self-employed earnings in respect of the assessment period are nil (and ignore the following steps).

Step 5

Where the amount resulting from step 4 is greater than nil, deduct from that amount any unused losses (see regulation 52), taking the oldest first, and proceed to step 6.

If the amount resulting from this step is nil or a negative amount, the applicant's self-employed earnings in respect of the assessment period are nil (and ignore the following step).

Step 6

Deduct from the amount any sum, where applicable, specified in schedule 3.

If the amount resulting is greater than nil, that is the amount of the applicant's self-employed earnings for the assessment period.

If the amount resulting from this step is nil or a negative amount, the amount of the applicant's self-employed earnings in respect of the assessment period is nil.

(3) The receipts referred to in paragraph (2) include receipts in kind and any refund or repayment of income tax, value added tax or national insurance contributions relating to the trade, profession or vocation.

(9) For the purpose of paragraph (5), steps 2 and 3 in calculating that applicant's self-employed earnings are to ascertain the net profit of the employment as self-employed earnings, in accordance with regulations 37 and 38 (calculation of net profit, and deduction of tax and contributions) of the 2012 Regulations(160), but—

(2) Retirement pension income includes any increase in a Category A or Category B retirement pension mentioned in section 16(1)(a) of the State Pension Credit Act 2002 which is payable under Part 4 of the 1992 Act in respect of an applicant's partner.

Person treated as having student income

59.—(1) An applicant who is a student and has a student loan, a postgraduate master's degree loan or a grant in respect of the course they are undertaking, is to be treated as having student income in respect of—

- (a) an assessment period in which the course begins,
- (b) in the case of a course which lasts for two or more years, an assessment period in which the second or subsequent year begins,
- (c) any other assessment period in which, or in any part of which, the applicant is undertaking the course, excluding—
 - (i) an assessment period in which the long vacation begins or which falls within the long vacation, or
 - (ii) an assessment period in which the course ends.

(2) Where an applicant has a student loan or a postgraduate master's degree loan, their student income for any assessment period referred to in paragraph (1) is to be based on the amount of that loan.

(3) Where paragraph (2) applies, any grant in relation to the period to which the loan applies is to be disregarded except for—

- (a) any specific amount included in the grant to cover payments which are rent payments in respect of which an amount is included in an award of universal credit for the housing costs element,
- (b) any amount intended for the maintenance of another person in respect of whom an amount is included in the award.

(4) Where paragraph (2) does not apply, the applicant's student income for any assessment period in which they are treated as having that income is to be based on the amount of their grant.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (1), an applicant is to be treated as having a student loan or a postgraduate master's degree loan where the applicant could acquire a student loan or a postgraduate master's degree loan by taking reasonable steps to do so.

(176) S.I. 2019/1152. Regulation 5 was amended by S.I. 2020/826.

(177) Section 16 was amended by paragraph 32 of schedule 1 of the Sovereign Grant Act 2011 (c.15), paragraph 15 of schedule 11 and paragraph 44 of schedule 12 of the Pensions Act 2014 (c.19) and S.I. 2002/1792.

(6) Student income does not include any payment referred to in regulation 57(1)(g).

“the long vacation” is a period of no less than one month which, in the opinion of the relevant authority, is the longest vacation during a course which is intended to last for two or more years,

“postgraduate master’s degree loan” means a loan which a student is eligible to receive under the Education (Postgraduate Master’s Degree Loans) Regulations 2016(178).

Calculation of student income – student loans and postgraduate master’s degree loans

60.—(1) Where, in accordance with regulation 59(1) or regulation 59(5), as the case may be, an applicant’s student income is to be based on the amount of a student loan for a year, the amount to be taken into account is the maximum student loan (including any increases for additional weeks) that the applicant would be able to acquire in respect of that year by taking reasonable steps to do so.

(2) Where, in accordance with regulation 59(2) or 59(5), as the case may be, an applicant’s student income is to be based on the amount of a postgraduate master’s degree loan for a year, the amount to be taken into account is 30 per cent of the maximum postgraduate master’s degree loan that the applicant would be able to acquire by taking reasonable steps to do so.

(3) For the purposes of calculating the maximum student loan in paragraph (1) or the maximum postgraduate master’s degree loan in paragraph (2) it is to be assumed no reduction has been made on account of—

- (a) the applicant’s means or the means of their partner, parent or any other person, or
- (b) any grant made to the applicant.

Calculation of student income – grants

61. Where, in accordance with regulation 59(4), an applicant’s student income is to be based on the amount of a grant, the amount to be taken into account is the whole of the grant excluding any payment—

- (a) intended to meet tuition fees or examination fees,
- (b) in respect of the applicant’s disability,
- (c) intended to meet additional expenditure connected with term time residential study away from the applicant’s educational establishment,
- (d) intended to meet the cost of the applicant maintaining a home at a place other than that at which they reside during their course, except where the applicant has an award of universal credit and that award includes an amount for the housing costs element in respect of those costs,
- (e) intended for the maintenance of another person, except where the applicant has an award of universal credit and that award includes an amount in respect of that person,
- (f) intended to meet the cost of books and equipment,
- (g) intended to meet travel expenses incurred as a result of the applicant’s attendance on the course, or
- (h) intended to meet childcare costs.

Calculation of student income for an assessment period

62. The amount of an applicant's student income in relation to each assessment period in which the applicant is to be treated as having student income in accordance with regulation 59(1) is calculated as follows—

Step 1

Determine whichever of the following amounts is applicable—

- (a) in so far as regulation 59(2) applies to an applicant with a student loan, the amount of the loan (and, if applicable, the amount of any grant) in relation to the year of the course in which the assessment period falls,
- (b) in so far as regulation 59(2) applies to an applicant with a postgraduate master's degree loan, 30 per cent of the amount of the loan in relation to the year of the course in which the assessment period falls, or
- (c) if regulation 59(4) applies (applicant with a grant but no student loan or postgraduate master's degree loan) the amount of the grant in relation to the year of the course in which the assessment period falls.

But if the period of the course is less than a year determine the amount of the grant or loan in relation to the course.

Step 2

Determine in relation to—

- (a) the year of the course in which the assessment period falls, or
- (b) if the period of the course is less than a year, the period of the course, the number of assessment periods for which the applicant is to be treated as having student income.

Step 3

Divide the amount produced by step 1 by the number of assessment periods produced by step 2.

Step 4

Deduct £27.50 for each week in the assessment period.

Assumed yield from capital

63.—(1) An applicant's capital is to be treated as yielding—

- (a) a monthly income of £4.35 for each £250 in excess of £6,000 and £4.35 for any excess which is not a complete £250, or
- (b) a weekly income of £1 for each £250 in excess of £6,000 and £1 for any excess which is not a complete £250.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply where the capital is disregarded or the actual income from that capital is taken into account under regulation 57(1)(j) (income from an annuity) or 57(1)(k) (income from a trust).

(3) Where an applicant's capital is treated as yielding income, any actual income derived from that capital, for example rental, interest or dividends, is to be treated as part of the applicant's capital from the day it is due to be paid to the applicant.

Unearned income calculated monthly

64.—(1) Where an applicant has an award of universal credit, an applicant's unearned income is to be calculated as a monthly amount.

(2) Where the period in respect of which a payment of income is made is not a month, an amount is to be calculated as the monthly equivalent, as follows—

- (a) weekly payments are multiplied by 52 and divided by 12,
- (b) four-weekly payments are multiplied by 13 and divided by 12,
- (c) three monthly payments are multiplied by 4 and divided by 12, and
- (d) annual payments are divided by 12.

(3) Where the period in respect of which unearned income is paid begins or ends (but does not begin and end) during an assessment period the amount of unearned income for that assessment period is to be calculated as follows—

$$N \times (M \times 12 / 365)$$

where N is the number of days in respect of which unearned income is paid that fall within the assessment period and M is the monthly amount referred to in paragraph (1) or, as the case may be, the monthly equivalent referred to in paragraph (2).

(4) Where the amount of an applicant's unearned income fluctuates, the monthly equivalent is to be calculated—

- (a) where there is an identifiable cycle, over the duration of one such cycle, or
- (b) where there is no identifiable cycle, over three months or such other period as may, in the particular case, enable the weekly equivalent of the applicant's income to be determined more accurately.

(5) This regulation does not apply to student income.

Notional unearned income

65.—(1) If unearned income would be available to an applicant upon the making of an application for it, the applicant is to be treated as having that unearned income.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply to the benefits listed in regulation 57(1)(b).

(3) An applicant who has reached pensionable age is to be treated as possessing the amount of any retirement pension income for which no application has been made and to which the applicant might expect to be entitled if a claim were made.

(4) The circumstances in which an applicant is to be treated as possessing retirement pension income are the same as the circumstances set out in regulation 18 of the State Pension Credit Regulations 2002(179) in which a person is treated as receiving retirement pension income for the purposes of state pension credit.

CHAPTER 5

Capital

Capital limit

66. No person is entitled to council tax reduction if that person's capital exceeds £16,000.

(179) S.I. 2002/1792, amended by S.I. 2005/2677, S.I. 2006/2378, S.I. 2007/2618, S.I. 2009/2655, S.I. 2010/641, S.I. 2014/591, S.I. 2015/1985 and S.I. 2017/1015.

What is included in capital?

67.—(1) The whole of an applicant's capital is to be taken into account unless—

- (a) it is to be treated as income (see paragraphs (3) and (4)), or
- (b) it is to be disregarded (see regulation 69).

(2) An applicant's personal possessions are not to be treated as capital.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), any sums that are paid regularly and by reference to a period, for example payments under an annuity, are to be treated as income even if they would, apart from this provision, be regarded as capital or as having a capital element.

(4) Where capital is payable by instalments, each payment of an instalment is to be treated as income if the amount outstanding, combined with any other capital of the applicant exceeds £16,000, but otherwise such payments are to be treated as capital.

Jointly held capital

68. Where an applicant and one or more other persons have a beneficial interest in a capital asset, the applicant and those other persons are to be treated, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, as if they were each entitled to an equal share of the whole of that beneficial interest.

Capital disregarded

69.—(1) Any capital specified in schedule 4 is to be disregarded from the calculation of an applicant's capital (see also regulations 74 to 76).

(2) Where a period of 6 months is specified in that schedule, that period may be extended by a relevant authority where it is reasonable to do so in the circumstances of the case.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), notwithstanding the circumstances of the case, it is reasonable for the relevant authority to extend a period of 6 months where—

- (a) an applicant has an award of universal credit, and
- (b) the Secretary of State has extended a period of 6 months specified in an equivalent provision in schedule 10 of the 2013 Regulations (in accordance with regulation 48 of those Regulations).

Valuation of capital

70.—(1) Capital is to be calculated at its current market value or surrender value less—

- (a) where there would be expenses attributable to sale, 10 per cent, and
- (b) the amount of any encumbrances secured on it.

(2) The market value of a capital asset possessed by an applicant in a country outside the United Kingdom is—

- (a) if there is no prohibition in that country against the transfer of an amount equal to the value of that asset to the United Kingdom, the market value in that country, or
- (b) if there is such a prohibition, the amount it would raise if sold in the United Kingdom to a willing buyer.

(3) Where capital is held in currency other than sterling, it is to be calculated after the deduction of any banking charge or commission payable in converting that capital into sterling.

Notional capital

71.—(1) An applicant is to be treated as possessing capital (and is assumed to have a yield from that capital as described in regulation 63) where the applicant has, in the opinion of a relevant authority, deprived themselves of that capital for the purpose of securing entitlement to council tax reduction or an increased amount of council tax reduction.

(2) Where an applicant—

- (a) deprived themselves of capital for the purpose of securing entitlement to universal credit or to an increased amount of universal credit, and
- (b) was treated as possessing that capital under regulation 50 of the 2013 Regulations for the purposes of calculating the applicant’s award of universal credit, the applicant is to be treated as possessing that capital under paragraph (1) for the purposes of calculating an applicant’s capital under these Regulations.

(3) An applicant is not to be treated as depriving themselves of capital under paragraph (1) if the applicant disposes of it for the purposes of—

- (a) reducing or paying a debt owed by the applicant, or
- (b) purchasing goods or services if the expenditure was reasonable in the circumstances of the applicant’s case.

(4) For the purposes of this regulation, “deprived” includes a failure to make an application for capital that would have been acquired by the applicant had it been sought.

Diminishing notional capital (applicants with no award of universal credit)

72.—(1) Where an applicant is treated as possessing capital under regulation 71(1) (notional capital), and neither the applicant nor the applicant’s partner, nor the partners jointly, have an award of universal credit, the amount which the applicant is treated as possessing—

(a) in the case of a week that is subsequent to—

- (i) the relevant week in respect of which the conditions set out in paragraph (2) are satisfied, or
- (ii) a week which follows that relevant week and which satisfies those conditions, is to be reduced by the amount determined under paragraph (3),

(b) in the case of a week in respect of which paragraph (1)(a) does not apply but where—

- (i) that week is a week subsequent to the relevant week, and
 - (ii) that relevant week is a week in which the condition in paragraph (4) is satisfied,
- is to be reduced by the amount determined under paragraph (4).

(2) This paragraph applies to a reduction week or part-week where the applicant satisfies the conditions that—

- (a) the applicant is in receipt of council tax reduction, and
- (b) but for regulation 71(1), the applicant would have received an additional amount of council tax reduction in that week.

(3) In a case to which paragraph (2) applies, the amount of the reduction for the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) is equal to the aggregate of—

- (a) the additional amount to which paragraph (2)(b) refers,
- (b) where the applicant has also claimed housing benefit, the amount of any housing benefit or any additional amount of that benefit to which the applicant would have been entitled in respect of the whole or part of the reduction week to which paragraph (2) refers but for the application of regulation 49(1) of the Housing Benefit Regulations 2006 (notional capital)(180),

- (c) where the applicant has also claimed income support, the amount of income support to which the applicant would have been entitled in respect of the whole or part of the reduction week to which paragraph (2) refers but for the application of regulation 51(1) of the Income Support Regulations (notional capital)(181),
 - (d) where the applicant has also claimed a jobseeker's allowance, the amount of an income-based jobseeker's allowance to which the applicant would have been entitled in respect of the whole or part of the reduction week to which paragraph (2) refers but for the application of regulation 113 of the Jobseeker's Allowance Regulations (notional capital) (182), and
 - (e) where the applicant has also claimed an employment and support allowance, the amount of an income-related employment and support allowance to which the applicant would have been entitled in respect of the whole or part of the reduction week to which paragraph (2) refers but for the application of regulation 115 of the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations (notional capital)(183).
- (4) Subject to paragraph (5), for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b) the condition is that the applicant would have been entitled to council tax reduction in the relevant week but for regulation 71(1) (notional capital), and in such a case the amount of the reduction is to be equal to the aggregate of the following amounts—
- (a) the amount of council tax reduction to which the applicant would have been entitled in the relevant week but for regulation 71(1), and for the purposes of this sub-paragraph if the amount is in respect of a part-week, that amount is to be determined by dividing the amount of council tax reduction to which the applicant would have been entitled by the number equal to the number of days in the part-week and multiplying the quotient by 7,
 - (b) if the applicant would, but for a provision listed in paragraph (3)(b) to (e) have been entitled to housing benefit, income support, jobseeker's allowance or employment and support allowance or to an additional amount of housing benefit, income support, jobseeker's allowance or employment and support allowance in respect of the reduction week which includes the last day of the relevant week, the amount which is equal to—
 - (i) in a case where no housing benefit, income support, jobseeker's allowance or employment and support allowance is payable, the amount to which the applicant would have been entitled, or
 - (ii) in any other case, the amount equal to the additional amount of housing benefit, income support, jobseeker's allowance or employment and support allowance to which the applicant would have been entitled, and, for the purposes of this sub-paragraph, if the amount is in respect of a part-week, that amount is to be determined by dividing the amount of housing benefit, income support, jobseeker's allowance or employment and support allowance to which the applicant would have been entitled by the number equal to the number of days in the part-week and multiplying the quotient by 7.

(180) S.I. 2006/213.

(181) Regulation 51(1) was inserted by S.I. 1990/1776 and amended by S.I. 1997/2197 and S.I. 2007/719.

(182) Regulation 113 was amended by S.I. 1996/207, S.I. 1997/2197, S.I. 1998/2117, S.I. 1999/2640, S.I. 1999/3156, S.I. 2000/1978, S.I. 2000/3134, S.I. 2001/1029, S.I. 2001/3767, S.I. 2003/455, S.I. 2004/2308, S.I. 2005/2465, S.I. 2005/3391, S.I. 2006/588, S.I. 2007/719, S.I. 2008/698, S.I. 2008/2767, S.I. 2008/3157, S.I. 2009/480, S.I. 2010/641, S.I. 2010/1222, S.I. 2011/688, S.I. 2011/917, S.I. 2011/2425, S.I. 2013/276, S.I. 2014/1913, S.I. 20014/3117, S.I. 2017/329, S.I. 2017/689, S.I. 2017/870 and S.I. 2020/618.

(183) Regulation 115 was amended by S.I. 2008/2428, S.I. 2010/641, S.I. 2011/1707, S.I. 2011/2425, S.I. 2013/276, S.I. 2017/329, S.I. 2017/689, S.I. 2017/870 and S.I. 2020/618.

(5) The amount determined under paragraph (4) is to be re-determined under that paragraph if the applicant makes a further application for council tax reduction and the conditions in paragraph (6) are satisfied, and in such a case—

- (a) paragraph (4)(a) and (b) applies as if for “relevant week” there was substituted “relevant subsequent week”, and
- (b) subject to paragraph (7), the amount as re-determined has effect from the first week following the relevant subsequent week in question.

(6) The conditions are that—

- (a) a further application is made 26 or more weeks after the latest of—
 - (i) the date on which the applicant made an application for council tax reduction in respect of which the applicant was first treated as possessing the capital in question under regulation 71(1) (notional capital),
 - (ii) in a case where there has been at least one re-determination in accordance with paragraph (5), the date on which the applicant last made an application for council tax reduction which resulted in the weekly amount being re-determined, or
 - (iii) the date on which the applicant last ceased to be entitled to council tax reduction, and
- (b) the applicant would have been entitled to council tax reduction but for regulation 71(1).

(7) The amount as re-determined under paragraph (5) is not to have effect if it is less than the amount which applied in that case immediately before the re-determination, and in that case the higher amount continues to have effect.

(8) In this regulation—

- (a) “part-week”—
 - (i) in paragraph (4)(a) means a period of less than a week during which a person is entitled to council tax reduction,
 - (ii) in paragraph (4)(b) means a period of less than a week for which housing benefit is payable,
- (b) “relevant week” means the reduction week or part-week in which the capital in question of which the applicant has been deprived within the meaning of regulation 71(1)—
 - (i) was first taken into account for the purpose of determining the applicant’s entitlement to council tax reduction, or
 - (ii) was taken into account on a subsequent occasion for the purpose of determining or re-determining the applicant’s entitlement to council tax reduction on that subsequent occasion and that determination or re-determination resulted in the applicant beginning to receive, or ceasing to receive, council tax reduction,and where more than one reduction week or part-week is identified by reference to heads (i) and (ii) the later or latest reduction week or, as the case may be, the later or latest part-week, and
- (c) “relevant subsequent week” means the reduction week or part-week which includes the day on which the further application or, if more than one further application has been made, the last application was made.

Diminishing notional capital (applicants with an award of universal credit)

73.—(1) Where an applicant with an award of universal credit is treated as possessing capital under regulation 71(2) (notional capital), then for each subsequent assessment period (or, in a case where the applicant had an award of universal credit and that award has terminated, each subsequent month) the amount of capital the applicant is treated as possessing (“the notional capital”) reduces—

- (a) in a case where the notional capital exceeds £16,000, by the amount which the Secretary of State considers under regulation 50(3)(a) of the 2013 Regulations would be the amount of an award of universal credit that would be made to the applicant (assuming they met the conditions in section 4 and 5 of the 2012 Act) if it were not for the notional capital, or
 - (b) in a case where the notional capital exceeds £6,000 but not £16,000 (including where the notional capital has reduced to an amount equal to or less than £16,000 in accordance with sub-paragraph (a)) by the amount of unearned income that the notional capital is treated as yielding under regulation 63 (assumed yield from capital).
- (2) The weekly reduction of an applicant's notional capital is to be determined by dividing the amount by which the notional capital has reduced in an assessment period by the number equal to the number of days in that period and multiplying the quotient by 7.

CHAPTER 6

Miscellaneous

Compensation for personal injury

74.—(1) This regulation applies where a sum has been awarded to an applicant, or has been agreed by or behalf of an applicant—

- (a) in consequence of a personal injury to that applicant, or
- (b) as compensation for the death of one or both parents where the applicant is under the age of 18.

(2) If, in accordance with an order of the court or an agreement, the applicant receives all or part of that sum by way of regular payments, those payments are to be disregarded in the calculation of the applicant's unearned income.

(3) If the sum has been used to purchase an annuity, payments under the annuity are to be disregarded in the calculation of the applicant's unearned income.

(4) If the sum is held in trust, any capital of the trust derived from that sum is to be disregarded in the calculation of the applicant's capital and any income from the trust is to be disregarded in the calculation of the applicant's unearned income.

(5) If the sum is administered by the court on behalf of the applicant or can only be disposed of by direction of the court, it is to be disregarded in the calculation of the applicant's capital and any regular payments from that amount are to be disregarded in the calculation of the applicant's unearned income.

(6) If the sum is not held in trust or has not been used to purchase an annuity or otherwise disposed of, but has been paid to the applicant within the past 12 months, that sum is to be disregarded in the calculation of the applicant's capital.

Special schemes for compensation etc.

75.—(1) This regulation applies where an applicant receives a payment or payment in kind from a scheme established or approved by the Secretary of State or the Scottish Ministers or from a trust established with funds provided by the Secretary of State or from ILF Scotland for the purpose of—

- (2) Where paragraph (1) applies, the applicant is to be treated, subject to paragraph (3)(a), as possessing an amount of capital equal to the value, or the applicant's share of the value, of the capital of the company and the value of the applicant's holding in the company is to be disregarded.
- (3) Where paragraph (1) applies in relation to a company which is carrying on a trade—
- (a) any assets of the company that are used wholly and exclusively for the purposes of the trade are to be disregarded from the applicant's capital while they are engaged in activities in the course of that trade, and
 - (b) the income of the company or the applicant's share of that income is to be treated as the applicant's income and calculated in the manner set out in regulation 51 (self-employed earnings) as if it were self-employed earnings.
- (4) Any self-employed earnings which the applicant is treated as having by virtue of paragraph (3) (b) are in addition to any employed earnings the applicant receives as a director or employee of the company.

- (6) In paragraph (1) "property business" has the meaning in section 204 of the Corporation Tax Act 2009(185).

CHAPTER 7

- 77.—(1) This regulation does not apply, and instead regulation 78 applies, where an applicant or an applicant's partner has, or the partners jointly have, an award of universal credit.

(184) Paragraph 13 of schedule 5 was amended by S.I. 2003/2274 and S.I. 2005/2687. Paragraph 15 of schedule 5 was amended by S.I. 2002/3197, S.I. 2004/1141, S.I. 2005/2877, S.I. 2005/3391, S.I. 2006/718, S.I. 2008/2767, S.I. 2009/583, S.I. 2010/641, S.I. 2011/2425, S.I. 2016/624, S.I. 2017/329, S.I. 2017/689, S.I. 2017/870 and S.I. 2020/618.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make provision for a reduction in liability to council tax (“council tax reduction”) from 1 April 2022 for a person who has not reached pensionable age, or who has reached that age where they or their partner are in receipt of specified social security benefits (see regulation 3). Provision relating to council tax reduction for other persons who have reached pensionable age was made by the Council Tax Reduction (State Pension Credit) (Scotland) Regulations 2012.

Part 1 of the Regulations makes general provision, in particular in relation to the interpretation of the Regulations. Regulation 2 provides that the Regulations come into effect from the start of the 2022/23 financial year.

Part 2 deals with families and households. Regulation 11 provides that only one member of a family can be entitled to a council tax reduction at the same point in time. Regulation 12 ensures that membership of a household is unaffected by temporary absences from it.

Part 3 sets conditions for when a person is entitled to a council tax reduction. These include financial criteria relating to income and capital. Persons who are absent from a dwelling are not entitled in respect of it, unless their absence is temporary (regulation 15). Regulations 16 to 18 describe when a person is to be treated as not being in Great Britain, and is therefore not entitled. Persons subject to immigration control are also not entitled (regulation 19), nor generally are students (regulation 20, though many students have no council tax liability).

Regulation 21 provides that if a person is awarded more council tax reduction than they are entitled to receive, as a result of official error, the resulting arrears of council tax are not to be recovered.

Procedural matters are prescribed by Part 4 of the Regulations. Chapter 1 sets out how applications are to be made, with regulation 24 permitting an application to be treated as made where a person has claimed universal credit and the Secretary of State has provided the administering local authority with information about that claim. Regulation 26 provides for dates on which applications are made and treated as made, with provision for backdating of application dates in some circumstances. Regulation 30 allows electronic submission of documents and, where documents are submitted that way, electronic responses. Chapter 2 of Part 4 describes when an applicant must notify a change of circumstances, with Chapter 3 describing the date on which entitlement begins and the date on which any change in circumstances is to take effect.

Part 5 (regulation 35) sets out the amounts that are to be included in an applicant's "applicable amount", which is a sum calculated to represent the needs of the applicant and their family and which is used to work out whether they need a council tax reduction. Schedule 1 makes further provision for these amounts.

Part 6 has provision for the assessment of household income and capital. Chapter 1 provides for the income and capital of persons other than the applicant for a council tax reduction to be treated as the applicant's. Chapter 2 provides for income to be calculated on a weekly basis, according to whether the applicant or the applicant's partner have an award of universal credit or not.

Chapter 3 of Part 6 sets out how earned income is calculated, including what is to be treated as employed earnings, with schedule 3 providing for sums that are to be disregarded. Again, different provision is made for where there is a universal credit award, compared with where there is not. Provision is made for cases where earnings are derived from self-employment (see regulations 51 to 54). Chapter 4 sets out how unearned income is to be calculated. Here different provision is made for persons who are students (see regulations 59 to 62). This Chapter also includes assumptions to be made as to income that the applicant's capital is yielding (regulation 63) and unearned income that the applicant is to be treated as receiving in cases where the applicant has not taken steps to receive it (regulation 65).

Chapter 5 of Part 6, and schedule 4, sets out how capital is to be calculated and valued, with regulation 66 setting out that a person has no entitlement to a council tax reduction if their capital is calculated as exceeding £16,000. Provision is included to deem a person to possess capital where they have deprived themselves of it to become entitled to a council tax reduction, or a greater amount of such a reduction. In these cases regulations 72 and 73 provide for that notional capital to be diminished over time. Chapter 6 provides for some particular cases, while Chapter 7 provides for treatment of childcare charges, the latter varying according to whether or not there is a universal credit award involved.

Part 7 sets out the formula for calculating the maximum amount of council tax reduction to which a person is entitled (see regulation 79(2)). It also provides for extended periods of entitlement in specified circumstances. Part 8 comprises particular rules for specified circumstances, including along with schedule 2 describing entitlement where there is a second adult residing with an applicant for a council tax reduction.

Provision for review of decisions, and further reviews, is made by Part 9. These are undertaken by a panel of persons appointed by the Scottish Ministers.

Part 10 makes consequential, transitional and savings provision, in particular to ensure that persons with existing awards of council tax reduction are deemed to have made applications for a council tax reduction under these Regulations. Schedule 5 makes consequential amendments to other Regulations, with schedule 6 revoking provisions in other Regulations.
