PROVISIONS REQUIRED TO BE INCLUDED IN THE
CONSTITUTIONS AND STATUTES OF CATHEDRAL CHURCHES

6 Relationship of bishops to their cathedral churches.

The constitution and statutes of each cathedral church shall—

- (a) provide that the bishop shall be the visitor thereof and provide for the exercise by the bishop of his functions as visitor; and
- (b) specify the occasions upon which, and the conditions subject to which, the bishop is to have the right to officiate in or use the cathedral church.

[^{F2}This section shall not be taken to require the statutes of a cathedral church to provide for periodical episcopal visitations of that church, and notwithstanding anything in any such statutes or in any rule of ecclesiastical law it shall not be obligatory for a bishop to visit the cathedral church of his diocese at regular intervals.]

F2 Para. added by Church of England \(Miscellaneous Provisions\) Measure 1976 \(No. 3\), s. 4

7 Provisions relating to the governing bodies of dean and chapter cathedrals.

The constitution and statutes of each dean and chapter cathedral shall—

- (a) provide for the continuance or establishment of a general chapter consisting of the dean and all the canons (whether residentiary or not);
- (b) provide for the performance of administrative functions in relation to the cathedral church by either:—
 - (i) an administrative chapter consisting of the dean and residentiary canons and such other members of the general chapter (if any) as may be specified in the constitution and statutes, or
 - (ii) the general chapter which shall delegate such of its functions as it thinks fit to an administrative committee consisting of such members of that chapter as may be specified as aforesaid; and
- (c) provide for the appointment, if the dean and chapter think it desirable for the administration of the finances and property of the cathedral church, of a committee consisting of members of the general chapter and such other persons, whether clerical or lay, as may be specified as aforesaid, and for the delegation to that committee of functions in relation to the administration of the finances and property of the cathedral church.

8 Provisions relating to the governing bodies of parish church cathedrals.

The constitution and statutes of each parish church cathedral shall—

- (a) provide for the continuance of a cathedral chapter of which the provost, the canons of the cathedral church and the archdeacons of the diocese shall be members, and of which the bishop may be a member for such purposes as may be specified in the constitution and statutes;
- (b) provide for the performance of administrative functions in relation to the cathedral church by—
 - (i) a cathedral council consisting of the provost, who shall act as chairman, the residentiary canons and such other persons as the - constitution and statutes may specify, being non-residentiary canons, archdeacons or other persons holding office in connection with the cathedral church, representatives of the parochial church council or the parochial church meeting of the parish in which the cathedral church is situated, persons resident in the diocese or persons whose names are entered on the church electoral roll of a parish in the diocese, or

- (ii) an administrative chapter consisting of the provost, who shall act as chairman, the residentiary canons and such non-residentiary canons or archdeacons as may be specified in the constitution and statutes; or
 - (iii) the cathedral chapter which shall delegate such of its functions as it may determine to an administrative committee consisting of the provost, who shall act as chairman, the residentiary canons and such non-residentiary canons or archdeacons as may be specified as aforesaid;
- (c) provide, where the said administrative functions are to be performed by an administrative chapter—
- (i) for the appointment of lay persons as additional members of the administrative chapter for the purpose of considering any question relating to the finances and property of the cathedral church, or
 - (ii) for the appointment of a committee consisting of members of the administrative chapter and such lay persons as may be specified in the constitution and statutes, and for the delegation to that committee of functions relating to the finances and property of the cathedral church;
- (d) provide, where the said administrative functions are to be performed by the cathedral chapter—
- (i) for the appointment of lay persons as additional members of the administrative committee for the purpose of considering any question relating to the finances and property of the cathedral church, or
 - (ii) for the appointment of a committee consisting of members of the administrative committee and such lay persons as may be specified in the constitution and statutes, and for the delegation to that committee of functions relating to the finances and property of the cathedral church.

9 Two residentiary canons to be engaged exclusively on cathedral duties.

- (1) The constitution and statutes of each cathedral church shall provide that the holders of two residentiary canonries in the cathedral church shall be engaged exclusively on cathedral duties:

Provided that the constitution and statutes may provide that the holder of only one residentiary canonry need be engaged exclusively on cathedral duties until such time as the bishop may determine after consultation with the administrative body of the cathedral church.

- (2) In this Measure the expression “cathedral duties” means duties in connection with the cathedral church or pastoral duties in the diocese which should, in the opinion of the administrative body of the cathedral church, be discharged from the cathedral church as the mother church of the diocese, and does not include duties performed by any person—
- (a) as a suffragan bishop,

- (b) as an assistant bishop,
- (c) as an archdeacon,
- (d) as a director or officer of a diocesan board of education or as an officer of a diocesan board of finance or diocesan dilapidations board, or
- (e) as the holder of any office to which he was appointed by a person or body other than the administrative body of the cathedral church and for which a salary or stipend is normally paid.

and the expression “engaged exclusively on cathedral duties” shall be construed accordingly:

Provided that—

- (i) the the administrative body of the cathedral church, the visitor and the Church Commissioners acting jointly may direct that the holder of a residentiary canonry shall be treated for the purposes of this Measure as engaged exclusively on cathedral duties notwithstanding that he is also an assistant bishop or the holder of any such office as is mentioned in paragraph (e) of this subsection; and
 - (ii) the archbishop of the province and the Church Commissioners acting jointly may in special circumstances direct that the holder of a residentiary canonry who is normally engaged exclusively on cathedral duties shall, for such period as they may specify, be treated as so engaged for the purposes of this Measure notwithstanding that he is performing duties other than cathedral duties.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall be regarded as limiting the number of residentiary canons engaged exclusively on cathedral duties in any cathedral church.

10 Further provisions required to be included in constitutions and statutes of cathedral churches.

- (1) The constitution and statutes of each cathedral church shall—
- (a) provide for the appointment of any dean by Her Majesty;
 - (b) provide in the case of a parish church cathedral for the appointment as provost of the incumbent of the benefice of which the cathedral is the parish church;
 - (c) provide for the appointment of canons in such manner as may be specified in the constitution and statutes;
 - (d) confer power to pay stipends or other emoluments to the dean or provost and to the residentiary canons out of the capitular revenues of the cathedral church, so, however, that the amounts fixed from time to time of those stipends or other emoluments shall be subject to the consent of the Church Commissioners;
 - (e) provide that in determining the amount of a stipend to be paid to any residentiary canon as aforesaid, regard may be had to any emoluments payable to him in respect of any other office or appointment held by him and to any time ordinarily spent by him in performing the duties of any other office or appointment which materially affects the time available for the performance of his cathedral duties;
 - (f) specify the maximum number of residentiary canons and non-residentiary canons of the cathedral church;
 - (g) provide that any presentations or nominations to benefices in the patronage of the capitular body shall be exercised—
 - (i) in the case of a dean and chapter cathedral, by the dean and chapter or a patronage committee thereof;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1993.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Cathedrals Measure 1963. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) in the case of a parish church cathedral, by the cathedral chapter or the administrative chapter or by a patronage committee of the cathedral chapter;
 - (h) provide that all functions of the capitular body in relation to property shall be delegated to the administrative body;
 - (i) provide that the capitular body shall have a common seal which shall be in the custody of the administrative body;
 - (j) confer on the administrative body power to affix the common seal of the capitular body to any document; and
 - (k) provide for the appointment of an architect to the cathedral church.
- (2) The constitution and statutes of each parish church cathedral shall also—
- (a) provide for the abolition of the jurisdiction of the archdeacon and rural dean over the parish of the cathedral church, and for the exercise by the administrative body of any of the functions theretofore exercisable by the archdeacon or rural dean;
 - (b) provide, where the consistory court has jurisdiction over the cathedral church or any part thereof. for the abolition of that jurisdiction; and
 - (c) provide for conferring on such body as may be specified in the constitution and statutes, subject to any limitations or conditions as may be so specified, powers similar to those exercisable with respect to the fabric, monuments and ornaments of a cathedral church, and with respect to the churchyard thereof, by the dean and chapter in a dean and chapter cathedral.

PROVISIONS WHICH MAY BE INCLUDED IN THE

11 Further provisions which may be included in constitutions and statutes of cathedral churches.

- (1) In addition to the matters for which the constitution and statutes of each cathedral church are required to provide under the foregoing provisions of this Measure, the constitution and statutes may make provision for the good government of the cathedral church and in particular may—
- (a) constitute any body or create any office for the purpose of the performance of functions in relation to the cathedral church;
 - (b) specify the functions of that body or the person holding that office in relation to the cathedral church and, where applicable, the diocese;
 - (c) provide for the appointment and terms of service of persons holding office in the cathedral church or employed in connection with it;
 - (d) provide for the regulation and superintendence of the services, fabric, fittings, ornaments, furniture and monuments of the cathedral church;
 - (e) provide for the administration of all property and revenues of, or held in connection with, the cathedral church, including any trust fund applicable to any special purpose in connection with the cathedral church;

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1993.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Cathedrals Measure 1963. (See end of Document for details)

- (f) provide for the abolition, suspension or termination of suspension of any dignity, office or body in the cathedral church; and
 - (g) provide for any incidental and supplementary matters for which the Commission thinks it expedient to provide.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of the last foregoing subsection, the constitution and statutes of any such cathedral church may—
- (a) provide for the appointment by the administrative body of a committee consisting of such members of that body as may be specified in the constitution and statutes, and for the delegation to that body of such functions of the administrative body as may be so specified;
 - (b) provide for the vacation of office by residentiary canons at such age as may be specified in the scheme, unless the bishop, after such consultation (if any) as may be specified in the scheme, otherwise determines;
 - (c) provide for the creation of residentiary canonries the holders of which shall continue in office for a specified term of years only, either with or without eligibility for re-appointment;
 - (d) provide that where a clerk in Holy Orders who is appointed to an archdeaconry or any other diocesan office becomes, whether at the time he is so appointed or at a later date, a canon on the understanding that he will hold the office of canon so long as he holds that archdeaconry or other diocesan office, he shall on ceasing to hold the archdeaconry or other diocesan office vacate office as a canon, unless the bishop otherwise determines;
 - (e) provide that a non-residentiary canon shall vacate office upon ceasing to reside in the diocese, unless requested in writing to continue in office by the bishop of the diocese, so, however, that a non-residentiary canon who has been appointed in connection with an office held or function performed by him, shall, so long as he holds that office or performs that function, continue as a non-residentiary canon notwithstanding that he no longer resides in the diocese;
 - (f) provide for the appointment of non-residentiary canons who are not resident in the diocese and for the exclusion of these canons from any provision made under the last foregoing paragraph;
 - (g) provide for the annexation of a canonry to any such office as may be specified in the scheme and for the severance of a canonry from any office to which it is annexed;
 - (h) provide for the payment of pensions to retired laymen who were employed in connection with the cathedral church and to the widows and dependants of such laymen;
 - (i) provide, where a cathedral church is the parish church, that part of that cathedral church shall be a parish church or, where part of a cathedral church is a parish church, that the cathedral church or any other part thereof shall be the parish church;
 - (j) provide for the establishment of a college of lay canons and specify their functions;
 - (k) empower the bishop to confer the designation of dean emeritus, provost emeritus, canon emeritus or prebendary emeritus upon any person who retires immediately after holding the office of dean, provost, canon or prebendary as the case may be;
 - (l) provide in any case in which it is expedient for assigning part of the capitular revenues or property of the cathedral church for the promotion of the study of theology or any other branch of sacred learning, sacred music or ecclesiastical art; and

- (m) provide, in the case of a parish church cathedral which has a cathedral council, that any functions of the cathedral council relating to the duties of the provost and canons and to the ordering of services shall be exercised by such members of the cathedral council as are clerks in Holy Orders.

12 Provisions as to parishes of parish church cathedrals.

- (1) The constitution and statutes of a parish church cathedral may provide for the transfer to the administrative body of the cathedral church of all functions theretofore exercisable, in relation to the parish of that cathedral, by the parochial church council.
- (2) Where the constitution and statutes provide for such a transfer as aforesaid, they shall also provide—
- (a) where the functions are transferred to a cathedral council, that at least one-third of the lay members of the council shall be elected at the annual parochial church meeting;
- (b) where the functions are transferred to an administrative chapter, that at least one-third of either—
- (i) the lay persons appointed as additional members of the administrative chapter for the purpose of considering questions relating to the finances and property of the cathedral, or
- (ii) the lay members of the committee appointed under sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (c) of section eight of this Measure, as the case may be, shall be elected at the said meeting; or

- (c) where the functions are transferred to the cathedral chapter, that at least one-third of either—
- (i) the lay persons appointed as additional members of the administrative committee for the purpose of considering questions relating to the finance and property of the cathedral, or
- (ii) the lay members of the committee appointed under sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (d) of the said section eight.

as the case may be, shall be elected at the said meeting.

- [^{F3}(3) Upon the transfer of the functions of the parochial church council of any parish under subsection (1) of this section, the Church Representation Rules contained in ^{F4}Schedule 3 to the ^{M1}Synodical Government Measure 1969 shall have effect in relation to that parish subject to the following modifications—

- (a) for any reference to the parochial church council there shall be substituted a reference to the administrative body;
- (b) paragraphs (3) and [^{F4}(5)]of Rule 8, Rules 12 to 17B, paragraphs (2) and (3) and the words “or extraordinary” in paragraph (4) of Rule 18 and Appendix II shall not apply;
- (c) in paragraph (9) of Rule 8 for the reference to the secretary of the parochial church council there shall be substituted a reference to the clerk to the administrative body; and
- (d) in paragraph (1) of Rule ^{F5}18 for the reference to a written representation by not less than one-third of the lay members of the parochial church council there shall be substituted a reference to a written representation by not less than one-half of the lay members of the administrative body:

Status: Point in time view as at 01/01/1993.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Cathedrals Measure 1963. (See end of Document for details)

Provided that an annual parochial church meeting shall not be entitled by virtue of this section to receive under paragraph (1) of Rule 8 of the said Rules any information or accounts which they would not have been entitled to receive thereunder if the said transfer had not taken place.]

(4) Upon the transfer of the functions of the parochial church council of any parish under subsection (1) of this section, the ^{M2}Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure 1956 shall have effect in relation to that parish subject to the following modifications:

- (a) for any reference to the parochial church council there shall be substituted a reference to the administrative body; and
- (b) section three, subsection (1) of section five, section six, paragraphs (iii) and (iv) of section seven and sections eight and nine shall not apply.

(5) Upon the transfer of the functions of the parochial church council of any parish as aforesaid, all property held by that council and all property vested in the diocesan authority under subsection (2) of section six of the ^{M3}Parochial Church Councils (Powers) Measure 1956 or vested in that authority as a custodian trustee on behalf of the parochial church council, shall by virtue of this section and without any conveyance, assignment, transfer or other assurance vest in the capitular body of the cathedral church:

Provided that—

- (a) any stock which is only transferable in books kept by a company shall not vest in the capitular body by virtue of this subsection, but any person in whom the stock is vested shall, at the request of the capitular body, forthwith apply to the company to transfer the stock into the name of that body; and
 - (b) the vesting or transfer of property by virtue of this subsection shall not affect any previously existing trust or contract or any mortgage or other charge affecting the property.
- (6) Where the constitution and statutes of a parish church cathedral provide for such a transfer as aforesaid, they may confer on the administrative body of the cathedral church power to appoint a parochial committee to which that body may delegate such of the functions transferred to it under this section as it thinks fit.
- (7) For the purposes of this section the functions of a parochial church council shall include any power to act in the administration of a charity established for ecclesiastical purposes.

13 Power to make rules or bye-laws.

The constitution and statutes of any cathedral church may confer on the administrative body of the cathedral church and also in the case of a parish church cathedral, on the capitular body thereof, power to make rules or byelaws regulating any matter within the jurisdiction of that body as defined by the constitution and statutes; and the constitution or statutes—

- (a) may provide that the consent of such body or person as may be specified in the constitution and statutes shall be required before any rule or byelaw is made relating to any such matter as is so specified; and
- (b) may provide for the settling of questions and disputes arising in relation to any rules or byelaws made under this section.

POWER FOR PARISH CHURCH CATHEDRALS TO BECOME DEAN AND CHAPTER CATHEDRALS

14 Power for parish church cathedrals to become dean and chapter cathedrals.

- (1) A scheme prepared by [^{F6}the Cathedral Statutes Commission under the ^{M4}Cathedrals Measure 1976] may provide that a parish church cathedral shall become a dean and chapter cathedral:

Provided that—

- (a) [^{F6}the said Commission] shall not submit any draft scheme prepared by virtue of this section to any body or person under [^{F6}section 2 of that Measure] unless the consent of Her Majesty has been obtained; and
 - (b) where the patron of the benefice of which the cathedral church is the parish church is a person other than the bishop, [^{F6}the said Commission] shall not lay any such draft scheme before the [^{F6}General Synod under subsection (7)] of that section unless the consent of the patron has been obtained.
- (2) Any scheme [^{F6}prepared by virtue of] this section shall—
 - (a) provide a new constitution and statutes for the cathedral church to which the scheme applies or amend the existing constitution and statutes so as to secure that they comply with the provisions of this Measure relating to the constitution and statutes of dean and chapter cathedrals; and
 - (b) shall provide for any consequential transfer of functions and property:

Provided that the constitution and statutes may provide for the appointment of lay persons as additional members of the administrative chapter or administrative committee of the cathedral church for the purpose of considering any question relating to the finances and property of the cathedral church, notwithstanding that paragraph (b) of section seven of this Measure does not provide for the appointment of such persons and where any such provision is made paragraph (c) of the said section seven shall not apply.

- (3) A scheme [^{F6}prepared by virtue of]this section shall not come into effect until—
 - (a) the office of provost is vacant; and
 - (b) provision has been made by a scheme under the [^{F7M5}Pastoral Measure 1968], for the pastoral care of such part of the parish of the cathedral church concerned as is not to be attached to the cathedral church, and the scheme so made has come into effect or is due to come into effect at the same time as the scheme made under this section;

PROVISIONS AS TO PROPERTY

15 Transfer of land vested in a dignitary to dean and chapter.

- (1) Where at the passing of this Measure any land is vested for an estate in fee simple in a dean or canon as a corporation sole, being a dean or canon of a dean and chapter cathedral, that land shall by virtue of this section and without any conveyance, assignment, transfer or other assurance vest in the dean and chapter of that cathedral:

Provided that the vesting of any land by virtue of this section shall not affect any previously existing trust or contract or any mortgage or other charge affecting the land.

- (2) Where at the passing of this Measure the Church Commissioners hold any moneys on behalf of a dean or canon of a dean and chapter cathedral, being the proceeds of any sale of land previously vested for an estate in fee simple in the dean or canon as a corporation sole, the Church Commissioners shall hold those moneys on behalf of the dean and chapter of that cathedral.

16 Transfer to cathedral chapter of property vested in provosts.

- (1) Where at the passing of this Measure a church, churchyard, house of residence or any glebe land is vested for an estate in fee simple in the provost of a parish church cathedral as the incumbent of a benefice, the church, churchyard, house, or glebe land together with any easements, rights or privileges annexed thereto, shall by virtue of this section and without any conveyance, assignment, transfer or other assurance vest in the cathedral chapter of that cathedral:

18 Moneys standing to credit of repair accounts of benefices of parish church cathedrals.

Where at the passing of this Measure any sums of money are standing to the credit of any repair account established under the Ecclesiastical Dilapidations Measures 1923 to 1951 for a benefice the parish church of which is a parish church cathedral, the Church Commissioners shall have power—

- (a) to hold those sums on behalf of the cathedral chapter to be used for the repair of such property vested in the cathedral chapter as the Church Commissioners may agree; or
- (b) to transfer those sums to the fund established under paragraph (b) of subsection (2) of section twenty-seven of this Measure in relation to that cathedral church.

19 Schemes for transfer of property to Church Commissioners and capitular bodies.

- (1) The Church Commissioners with the consent of the administrative body of the cathedral church concerned and also, if the scheme transfers property vested in a dean, provost or canon, with the consent of that dean, provost or canon, may prepare and submit to Her Majesty in Council for confirmation a scheme providing—
 - (a) for the transfer to the Church Commissioners of the whole or part of the property of any capitular body (other than the cathedral church and the buildings belonging thereto) for such consideration and on such terms as the Church Commissioners think fair and reasonable, including the extinguishment of any right of the Church Commissioners to receive any part of the income or property of that capitular body;
 - (b) for the transfer of property by the Commissioners to any capitular body either in consideration of a reduction of any annual sum payable by the Commissioners to the capitular body or in consideration of the payment of any sum of money or the transfer of any property to the Commissioners or for no consideration;
 - (c) for the transfer to the capitular body of a cathedral church of any property acquired after the passing of this Measure as a corporation sole by a dean or canon thereof or by a provost thereof (whether as provost or incumbent).
- (2) A scheme under the last foregoing subsection may—
 - (a) amend or repeal the provisions of any other scheme made under any Act or Measure relating to the property of the cathedral church concerned, other 20 Acquisition and disposal of land by cathedral bodies.

- (1) A capitular body, dean, provost or canon shall, subject to the provisions of this section, have the following powers, that is to say:—
- (a) power to sell, grant a lease of, exchange, mortgage or charge land, and to dedicate land for the purposes of a highway;
- (b) power to acquire land by gift inter vivos or by will, and
- (c) power to acquire land required for providing access to land owned by the capitular body, dean, provost or canon, as the case may be, or for improving the amenities of any such land,
- and a capitular body shall, subject to the said provisions, also have power to acquire land—
- (i) for improving the amenities of the cathedral church;
- (ii) for any ecclesiastical, educational or other charitable purpose connected with the cathedral church or any parish of which the cathedral church or any part thereof is the parish church; and
- (iii) for the provision of houses to be occupied by persons engaged or to be engaged in duties connected with the cathedral church.
- (2) Before exercising any powers conferred under the last foregoing subsection, the capitular body, dean, provost or canon shall obtain the consent of the Church Commissioners and also in the case of the disposal, leasing, mortgaging or charging of a house of residence—
- (a) the consent of the bishop or during a vacancy of the see the guardian of the spiritualities;
- (b) the consent of the dean, provost or residentiary canon who normally occupies the house except during a vacancy in the office of the dean, provost or residentiary canon, as the case may be; and
- (c) where the house is allocated for the use of the holder of a dignity the right of presentation to which is vested in Her Majesty, the consent of Her Majesty;

Provided that no consent shall be required under this sub-section for:—

- (i) the grant of a lease to a clerk in Holy Orders holding office in the cathedral church or to any person employed in connection with the cathedral church;
 - (ii) the acquisition of land by a gift inter vivos or by will;
 - (iii) any transaction for which the sanction of an order is required under [^{F9}section 32 of the Charities Act 1992]; or
 - (iv) any transaction relating to land which at the passing of this Measure is held by the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of St. Paul in London as part of the Tillingham estate.
- (3) The Church Commissioners may by order except from the provisions of the last foregoing subsection transactions relating to land forming part of an estate specified in the order or transactions of a class so specified or relating to property of a class so specified.
- (4) The powers conferred by this section may be exercised notwithstanding that the consideration for any transaction executed thereunder may not be the full consideration.
- (5) The sealing by the Church Commissioners of any document under this section shall be conclusive evidence that all the requirements of this section with respect to the transaction to which the document relates have been complied with.
- (6) A statement in a document sealed by the capitular body, dean, provost or canon, as the case may be, that the consent thereto of the Church Commissioners is not required under this section shall be sufficient evidence of that fact.

24 Provision as to moneys held by Church Commissioners on behalf of a cathedral church.

Where—

- (a) the Church Commissioners hold on behalf of the capitular body of any cathedral church any moneys which form part of the endowment of that cathedral church (whether held by them at the passing of this Measure or paid to them under subsection (2) of section twenty-one of this Measure) or
- (b) any moneys are appropriated to any cathedral chapter by virtue of subsection (2) of section seventeen of this Measure, the Church Commissioners may, if the administrative body of the cathedral church requests them so to do, make payments out of those moneys—

- (i) for the improvement or development of any property in which the capitular body owns an interest, other than the cathedral church and buildings ancillary thereto;
- (ii) for any purpose for which grants may be made by the Church Commissioners under section thirty-two of this Measure; or

Provided that any sum expended under this section shall be replaced by the administrative body of the cathedral church within five years from the date on which it is expended, in such manner as may be agreed between the Church Commissioners and the administrative body.

26 Allocation of houses for use of cathedral clergy.

The administrative body of any cathedral church may allocate for the use of any person holding an ecclesiastical office in connection with the cathedral, as a residence from which to perform the duties of that office, any house in which the capitular body owns an interest.

27 Plans for inspection and repair of cathedral property.

- (1) The administrative body of every cathedral church shall, within two years from the passing of this Measure, prepare and submit to the Church Commissioners for their approval a plan to provide for the periodic inspection and repair of all buildings, other than the cathedral church and buildings ancillary thereto, which the capitular body is liable to repair, being buildings situated in the cathedral close or allocated as residences to persons holding office in the cathedral church.
- (2) Any plan prepared under the last foregoing subsection—
 - (a) shall provide for the inspection of the buildings to which the plan applies by an architect or, where appropriate, by a surveyor and for the making with respect to each building inspected of a report by the architect or surveyor who has inspected it which shall contain an estimate of the cost of carrying out such works of repair or maintenance as the architect or surveyor, as the case may be, thinks necessary;
 - (b) shall include arrangements for the repair and maintenance of the said buildings and for that purpose shall provide for the establishment of a fund and for the making of payments into that fund from the capitular revenues of the cathedral church;
 - (c) may contain such incidental, consequential or supplementary provisions as may be necessary or expedient for giving full effect to the plan.
- (3) Any such plan as aforesaid shall provide that any architect or surveyor who carries out any inspection thereunder shall be a person who has had experience in connection with the class of building which he is required to inspect under the plan.
- (4) Any plan prepared under this section may be varied by a subsequent plan approved by the Church Commissioners.

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

28 Payment of stipends of dean or provost and two canons by Church Commissioners.

- (1) The Church Commissioners shall pay to the dean or provost of each cathedral church and to two residentiary canons of each cathedral church who are engaged exclusively on cathedral duties such sums by way of stipend or other emoluments as they may from time to time determine:

Provided that—

- (a) if in any cathedral church there is only one residentiary canon who is engaged exclusively on cathedral duties or there are no residentiary canons so engaged, the obligation imposed on the Church Commissioners by this section shall be reduced accordingly until such time as a residentiary canon or a second residentiary canon, as the case may be, is appointed who is engaged exclusively on cathedral duties; and
- (b) in determining the amount to be paid to any dean, provost or canon under this subsection, the Church Commissioners may take account of any other sums payable to the dean, provost or canon in right of his dignity.
- (2) Where by virtue of paragraph (b) of the last foregoing subsection the Church Commissioners have reduced the amount of the payment made or to be made to any dean, provost or canon of a cathedral church, they may in any year pay into the capitular revenues of that cathedral church a sum equal to the amount by which the said payment was reduced as aforesaid.
- (3) The capitular body of a cathedral church shall, notwithstanding anything in the constitution and statutes of the cathedral church, have power to pay to the dean or provost or to any residentiary canon to whom the Church Commissioners are required to make a payment under subsection (1) of this section such additional stipend or other emoluments as they may think fit:

Provided that no payment shall be made by virtue of this subsection without the consent of the Church Commissioners.

29 Augmentation of stipends of canons holding office at passing of Measure.

Where in the case of any cathedral church there is only one residentiary canon engaged exclusively on cathedral duties or where there are no residentiary canons so engaged, the Church Commissioners shall have power to make to any canon holding office in the cathedral church at the passing of this Measure such payments towards his stipend or emoluments as they may think fit, so, however, that the aggregate amount paid by the Church Commissioners under this section and the last foregoing section shall not exceed the amount which would have been payable under the last foregoing section if there had been two residentiary canons engaged exclusively on cathedral duties.

30 Payment towards expenses incurred by newly appointed deans, provosts and canons.

Where any person is appointed dean or provost of a cathedral church or is appointed a residentiary canon whose stipend is to be paid by the Church Commissioners in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-eight of this Measure, the Church

Commissioners shall have power to make to that person a grant towards removal expenses incurred by him.

31 Grants for the payment of stipends and salaries.

The Church Commissioners shall have power to pay out of their general fund to the capitular body of any cathedral church such grants as they may from time to time determine for the payment of—

- (a) the stipend or other emoluments of any clerk in Holy Orders holding office in the cathedral church, other than a dean, provost or residentiary canon;
- (b) the salary or other emoluments of any lay person employed in connection with the cathedral church.

32 Grants for houses to be occupied by clerks holding office in the cathedral church.

For the purpose of securing the better provision of houses for clerks in Holy Orders who hold office in any cathedral church, the Church Commissioners shall have power to make out of their general fund to the capitular body of that cathedral church such grants as they may think fit for any of the following purposes, that is to say—

- (a) the acquisition or erection of a house, or the acquisition of land for the site of a house, to be occupied by a clerk in Holy Orders who holds office in the cathedral church;
- (b) the purchase of land for a garden for a house occupied or to be occupied by such a clerk;
- (c) the division into two or more parts of any house in which the capitular body owns an interest, and the conversion of any part thereof into a residence for any such clerk as aforesaid;
- (d) the improvement, enlargement or reduction of the size of any house occupied or to be occupied by any such clerk as aforesaid; and
- (e) the payment of any incidental expenses incurred in carrying out any of the purposes mentioned in the foregoing paragraphs of this section.

33 Grants for repair of chancels.

The Church Commissioners shall have power to make out of their general funds to the capitular body of any cathedral church such grants as they may think fit for the repair of any chancel, other than the chancel of the cathedral church, which the capitular body is wholly or partly liable to repair.

34 Loans for acquisition and improvement of cathedral property.

The Church Commissioners shall have power to make to the capitular body of any cathedral church loans of such amounts, and subject to the payment of interest at such rate, as they may think fit for the acquisition of any property, the erection of any building or the improvement, repair or alteration of any property, other than the cathedral church and buildings ancillary thereto.

35 Borrowing powers of capitular bodies.

The capitular body of any cathedral church shall have power to borrow money for any purpose connected with the cathedral church:

Provided that if the purpose for which the money is to be borrowed is such that the use of moneys forming part of the endowment of the cathedral church for that purpose would require the consent of the Church Commissioners, then, the consent of the Church Commissioners shall be required for the borrowing of that money under this section.

49 Transfer of property by schemes.

- (1) Where a scheme under this Measure provides for the transfer of any property, the scheme may also provide for the vesting without any conveyance or other assurance of the property to be transferred.
- (2) The production of a copy of the Order in Council confirming a scheme under this Measure shall be sufficient authority to any company in whose books any stock transferred by the scheme is standing to transfer the stock into the name of the transferee named in the scheme and to pay the dividends thereon to that transferee, and the stock shall be transferred and the dividends paid accordingly.

50 Saving for existing interests.

No provision of this Measure or of any scheme made under it shall adversely affect the tenure of office or any right or pension of any person who, at the passing of this Measure, holds or has held a freehold or other office conferring fixity of tenure in any cathedral church unless, by an instrument in writing under his hand, he agrees to be bound by that provision.

51 Charities.

The provisions of this Measure (other than those of section twelve thereof) shall not apply to any charity, or to property of any charity, except to the extent to which the Charity Commissioners for England and Wales shall determine that the said provisions shall apply to that charity or property.

In this section the expression “charity” has the same meaning as in the ^{M18}Charities Act 1960 but does not include an exempt charity within the meaning of that Act.

53 Certain enactments to cease to apply to cathedral corporations.

The enactments specified in the First Schedule to this Measure, being enactments relating to the sale, purchase, exchange, leasing and other dealings with ecclesiastical property, shall, to the extent specified in the third column of that Schedule, cease to apply to any body corporate, whether aggregate or sole, in any cathedral church.

54 Repeals and transitional provisions.

- (1) ^{F18}
- (2) The repeal by this Measure of any enactment shall not affect any scheme confirmed under that enactment which is in force immediately before the passing of this Measure, and any such scheme shall, except so far as it is varied or revoked by or under this Measure, continue in force as if this Measure had not been passed.
- (3) Any functions which are at the passing of this Measure exercisable in relation to property by the capitular body of a cathedral church shall, until a scheme is in force for that cathedral church under this Measure, be exercisable by the body by which administrative functions in relation to the cathedral church are exercisable under the constitution and statutes then in force for that cathedral church.
- (4) The repeal by this Measure of the ^{M21}Parish of Manchester Division Act 1850 (Amendment) Measure 1926 shall not affect the power of the bishop of Manchester under section two of that Measure to assign additional duties to a canon of Manchester cathedral, other than a canon whose stipend is paid by the Church Commissioners under section twenty-eight of this Measure.
