9. In Schedule 1, in Part 2 (controlled investments), after paragraph 26E (consumer hire agreements) insert—

“Qualifying cryptoasset

26F.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (3), a “qualifying cryptoasset” is any cryptoasset which is—

- (a) fungible; and
- (b) transferable.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)(b), the circumstances in which a cryptoasset is to be treated as “transferable” include where—

- (a) it confers transferable rights; or
- (b) a communication made in relation to the cryptoasset describes it as being transferable or conferring transferable rights.

(3) A cryptoasset does not fall within sub-paragraph (1) if it is—

- (a) a controlled investment falling within any of paragraphs 12 to 26E or, so far as relevant to any such investment, paragraph 27;
- (b) electronic money;
- (c) fiat currency;
- (d) digitally issued fiat currency; or
- (e) a cryptoasset that—
 - (i) cannot be transferred or sold in exchange for money or other cryptoassets, except by way of redemption with the issuer; and
 - (ii) can only be used in a limited way and meets one of the following conditions—
 - (aa) it allows the holder to acquire goods or services only from the issuer;
 - (ab) it is issued by a professional issuer and allows the holder to acquire goods or services only within a limited network of service providers which have direct commercial agreements with the issuer; or
 - (ac) it may be used only to acquire a very limited range of goods or services.

(4) In this paragraph—

“cryptoasset” means any cryptographically secured digital representation of value or contractual rights that—

- (a) can be transferred, stored or traded electronically, and
- (b) uses technology supporting the recording or storage of data (which may include distributed ledger technology);

“digitally issued fiat currency” means fiat currency issued in digital form;

“electronic money” has the meaning given by regulation 2(1) (interpretation) of the Electronic Money Regulations 2011(5).”.

Application and modification of primary legislation

10.—(1) The provisions of the Act identified in the Schedule to this Order apply, subject to any modifications set out in that Schedule, in relation to registered persons.

(2) Section 1A of the Act applies as if the exercise of functions by the FCA under the provisions applied, with or without modification, by the Schedule to this Order were functions conferred on it by or under the Act.

PART 3

Transitional provision

Qualifying cryptoasset financial promotions related rules and guidance made by the FCA

11. The requirements of section 138I (consultation by the FCA)⁽⁶⁾ of the Act, in so far as they apply to a proposal by the FCA to make rules and guidance in relation to the amendments or modifications made by this Order, may be satisfied by things done (wholly or in part) before the date on which this Order comes into force for the purpose of enabling the FCA to make rules and give guidance.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005 (S.I. 2005/1529) (“the FPO”). The FPO sets out a number of exemptions from the restriction on financial promotions provided for by section 21(1) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (c. 8) (“FSMA”).

Articles 4 to 6 extend certain existing exemptions to communications in relation to qualifying cryptoassets.

Article 7 creates an exemption which applies to cryptoasset exchange providers and custodian wallet providers (as defined in regulation 14A of the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017 / 692)) who are included on the FCA’s register pursuant to regulation 54(1A) of those Regulations and who are not authorised persons (defined as “registered persons”). The effect of the exemption is to permit registered persons to communicate their own financial promotions in respect of qualifying cryptoassets without the requirement for them either to be authorised under Part 4A of FSMA, or to have their financial

(46) Section 209 was amended by the Financial Services Act 2012, Schedule 9(4), paragraph 16.

(47) Section 384 was amended by paragraph 23 of Schedule 9 to the Financial Services Act 2012, paragraph 3(4) of Schedule 10 to the Financial Services (Banking Reform) Act 2013 and S.I. 2007/126, 2013/1773, 2016/680, 2019/632.

Draft Legislation: This is a draft item of legislation. This draft has since been made as a UK Statutory Instrument:
The Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) (Amendment) Order 2023 No. 612

promotions approved by a person who is authorised under Part 4A. Registered persons relying on the exemption will not be permitted to approve the financial promotions of other businesses or to communicate their own financial promotions in relation to other controlled investments.

Article 8 amends relevant existing controlled activities in Part 1 of Schedule 1 to incorporate activities in relation to qualifying cryptoassets. This means that those activities are specified for the purposes of section 21(9) of FSMA.

Article 9 amends Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the FPO by creating a new controlled investment (a “qualifying cryptoasset”), inserted at paragraph 26F of the FPO.

Article 10 and the Schedule to this Order provide that certain provisions of FSMA apply, with or without modification, in relation to registered persons. This means that registered persons, and communications by them of invitations or inducements to engage in investment activity in relation to qualifying cryptoassets, are subject to the Financial Conduct Authority’s (“FCA”) financial promotion rules and enforcement regime, in a similar way as they apply to communications in respect of other controlled investments and activities. Article 10 also makes clear that exercise by the FCA of functions carried out under the provisions of FSMA applied by the Schedule to the Order, constitute functions conferred on the FCA by or under that Act. Therefore provisions of FSMA that operate in respect of the FCA’s functions under the Act (for example, the FCA’s exemption from liability in damages as provided for by paragraph 25 of Schedule 1ZA to FSMA) apply in respect of functions carried out in relation to registered persons.

Article 11 is a transitional provision relating to FCA consultation in respect of its rules and guidance.
