

University of Wales, Cardiff Act 2004

2004 CHAPTER vi

PART 2

DISSOLUTION OF COLLEGE OF MEDICINE AND TRANSFER OF PROPERTY, ETC.

8 Construction of bequests, etc. and powers of trustees

- (1) Any scheme, will, deed or other instrument, whether made or executed before, on or after the appointed day, which contains any bequest, gift or trust or other benefit in favour of or connected with the College shall, on or after the appointed day, be read and have effect as if the Institution were named therein instead of the College.
- (2) The Institution shall administer that bequest, gift, trust or other benefit as nearly as may be for the purposes intended in the original scheme, will, deed or other instrument conferring such benefit and pursuant to the purposes of the College as those purposes were defined before its dissolution.
- (3) Without prejudice to subsections (1) and (2) above, any persons who, immediately before the appointed day, had power, for all or any purposes relating to—
 - (a) hospital services (including research), or
 - (b) any other part of the health service associated with hospitals,to assist, support or otherwise benefit the College shall, on and from that day, have power to assist, support or otherwise benefit the Institution as if it were a hospital or an institution within the health service associated with such a hospital for which those persons were appointed.
- (4) In this section “the health service” and “hospital” have the same meanings as in the National Health Service Act 1977 (c. 49).
