

Credit Unions Act 1979

1979 CHAPTER 34

Registration as a credit union

1 Registration under the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965.

(1) Subject to sections 6(4) and 15(1) below and to sections 2(1) and 7(1) of the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 (in this Act referred to as “the 1965 Act”), a society may be registered under that Act if—

- (a) it is shown to the satisfaction of the appropriate registrar that the conditions specified in subsection (2) below are fulfilled;
- (b) the rules of the society comply with section 4(1) below; and
- (c) the place which under those rules is to be the society’s registered office is situated in Great Britain; and a society which is so registered by virtue of this section shall be registered as, and is in this Act referred to as, a “credit union”.

(2) The conditions referred to in subsection (1)(a) above are—

- (a) that the objects of the society are those, and only those, of a credit union; and
- (b) that admission to membership of the society is restricted to persons all of whom fulfil a specific qualification which is stated in the rules and is appropriate to a credit union (whether or not any other qualifications are also required by the rules) and that in consequence a common bond exists between members of the society.

(3) The objects of a credit union are—

- (a) the promotion of thrift among the members of the society by the accumulation of their savings;
- (b) the creation of sources of credit for the benefit of the members of the society at a fair and reasonable rate of interest;
- (c) the use and control of the members’ savings for their mutual benefit; and
- (d) the training and education of the members in the wise use of money and in the management of their financial affairs.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Credit Unions Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The qualifications for admission to membership which are appropriate to a credit union are—
- (a) following a particular occupation;
 - (b) residing in a particular locality;
 - (c) being employed in a particular locality;
 - (d) being employed by a particular employer;
 - (e) being a member of a bona fide organisation or being otherwise associated with other members of the society for a purpose other than that of forming a society to be registered as a credit union;
- and such other qualifications as are for the time being approved by the appropriate registrar.
- (5) In ascertaining whether a common bond exists between the members of a society, the appropriate registrar—
- (a) shall have regard to the nature of the qualification for admission to membership of the society, and
 - (b) may, if he considers it proper in the circumstances of the case, treat the fact that admission to membership is restricted as mentioned in subsection (2)(b) above as sufficient evidence of the existence of a common bond.
- (6) For the purposes of this Act, if the rules of a credit union so provide, a person shall be treated as fulfilling a qualification for admission to membership stated in those rules if he is a member of the same household as, and is a relative of, another person who is a member of the credit union and fulfils that qualification directly.

2 Supplementary and transitional provisions as to registration.

- (1) Section 1 of, and Schedule 1 to, the 1965 Act (societies which may be registered and matters to be provided for in their rules) shall not apply in relation to registration as a credit union.
- (2) In section 2(3) of the 1965 Act (acknowledgement of registration) as it applies to registration as a credit union the reference to compliance with the provisions of the 1965 Act shall be construed, subject to subsection (1) above, as a reference to compliance with the provisions as to registration of both that Act and this Act.
- (3) A society whose objects are wholly or substantially those of a credit union within the meaning of section 1(3) above shall not be registered under the 1965 Act otherwise than as a credit union and, except in the case of a registration made before the commencement of this Act, any such registration shall be void.
- (4) A society which at the commencement of this Act is registered under the 1965 Act but whose objects are wholly or substantially those of a credit union within the meaning of section 1(3) above shall take all reasonable steps to have its existing registration cancelled and become registered as a credit union.
- (5) Where in accordance with subsection (4) above a society's existing registration is cancelled on its registration as a credit union, the society shall, notwithstanding anything in section 16(7) or section 3 of the 1965 Act, be taken for all purposes to be the same body corporate before and after the change of registration.
- (6) If a society to which subsection (4) above applies does not become registered as a credit union within such reasonable period after the commencement of this Act as the appropriate registrar may allow, the registrar may proceed to cancel or suspend its existing registration under section 16 or section 17 of the 1965 Act in the same way as in the case of a society which no longer fulfils one of the conditions specified in section 1(2) of that Act; and an appeal shall lie under section 18 of that Act where it would lie in such a case.

3 Use of name “credit union”, etc.

- (1) The name of every society registered as a credit union shall contain the words “credit union”.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, a person shall not, unless registered as a credit union,
 - (a) use in reference to himself a name, title or descriptive expression containing the words “credit union” or any cognate term or any derivative of those words; or
 - (b) represent himself as being a credit union;and any person who contravenes this subsection shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F1}level 4 on the standard scale].
- (3) Subsection (2) above does not apply to—
 - (a) the use by an officer or employee of a credit union of a title or descriptive expression indicating his office or post with the credit union; or
 - (b) the use with reference to an association or group of credit unions of a name which has been approved in writing by the chief registrar.
- (4) For the purposes of section 5(5) of the 1965 Act (societies which may be permitted to have a name which does not contain the word “limited”) the objects of a credit union shall not be regarded as wholly charitable or benevolent.

Rules and membership

4 Rules.

- (1) The rules of a credit union shall be in such form as the appropriate registrar may determine and shall contain—
 - (a) provision with respect to the matters mentioned in Schedule 1 to this Act; and
 - (b) such additional provision as the appropriate registrar may determine.
- (2) The rules of a credit union may not be amended except by a resolution passed by not less than two-thirds of the members present at a general meeting called for the purpose after the giving of such notice as is by the rules required for such a resolution.
- (3) In section 10(3) of the 1965 Act (acknowledgement of registration of amendment of rules where not contrary to the Act) as it applies to credit unions the reference to the 1965 Act shall be construed as including a reference to this Act.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Credit Unions Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) The Treasury may by regulations under section 71 of the 1965 Act vary the fee which under section 15 of that Act may be charged by a credit union for supplying a person with a copy of its registered rules.
- (5) Section 11 of the 1965 Act (power to make rules as to fund for purchase of government securities) shall not apply to credit unions.

5 Membership and voting rights.

- (1) Only individuals shall be members of a credit union.
- (2) A person shall not be a member of a credit union unless he holds at least one fully paid-up share in that credit union, but the rules of the credit union shall not require a person to hold more than £5 in fully paid-up shares as a condition of membership.
- (3) A member of a credit union shall not have or claim any interest in the shares of the credit union exceeding [^{F2}£5,000].
- (4) The chief registrar may, by order made with the consent of the Treasury, from time to time amend subsection (3) above so as to substitute for the sum for the time being specified in that subsection such other sum, not being less than £2,000, as may be specified in the order.
- (5) A member of a credit union who ceases to fulfil the qualifications for admission to membership shall be entitled, subject to subsection (6) below, to retain his membership unless the rules of the credit union provide otherwise; and, subject to section 21(4) below, in this Act the expression “non-qualifying member”, in relation to a credit union, means a person who remains a member of the credit union by virtue of this sub-section.
- (6) The number of non-qualifying members of a credit union shall not at any time exceed ten per cent. of the total membership of the credit union.
- (7) Non-qualifying members of a credit union shall be left out of account in determining for any purpose whether a common bond exists between the members of the credit union.
- (8) A non-qualifying member of a credit union shall be entitled, except so far as the rules of the credit union may provide otherwise, to purchase shares and, subject to section 11(3) below, to receive loans.
- (9) Subject to any provision in the rules of a credit union as to voting by a chairman who has a casting vote, on every matter which is determined by a vote of members of a credit union every member shall be entitled to vote and shall have one vote only.

- (a) section 2(1) of the 1965 Act, as it applies to registration as a credit union and to an application therefor,
- (b) section 16(1)(a)(i) of that Act, as it applies to the cancellation of such a registration,
- (c) section 53(2) of that Act, as it applies to the conversion of a company into a credit union, and
- (d) [F³section][F⁴122(1)(e) of the Insolvency Act 1986] as it applies by virtue of section 55(a) of the 1965 Act to the presentation of a petition for winding up a credit union, for the word “seven”[F⁵(or, in the case of section [F⁶122(1)(e) of the Act of 1986], for the word “two”)] there shall be substituted the words “twenty-one”.

- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the maximum number of members of a credit union shall be five thousand.
- (3) The Treasury may, after consultation with the chief registrar, by order made by statutory instrument, from time to time amend subsection (2) above so as to substitute for the maximum number of members for the time being provided for in that subsection such other maximum number as may be specified in the order, but no such order shall be made unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below a society shall not be registered as a credit union if the number of its members exceeds the maximum for the time being provided for in subsection (2) above.
- (5) The appropriate registrar may grant exemption from the maximum number for the time being provided for in subsection (2) above—
 - (a) to a credit union,
 - (b) to a society or company seeking registration as a credit union, and
 - (c) in respect of a credit union proposed to be created by amalgamation,if he is satisfied that exemption would be in the public interest and in the interests of the members and would not jeopardise the existence of a common bond between them.
- (6) An exemption under subsection (5) above may be granted on such conditions as the appropriate registrar thinks fit, and those conditions shall include, in particular, a condition that the number of members shall not exceed such other maximum as may be specified by him.

Operation of credit union

7 Shares.

- (1) All shares in a credit union shall be of £1 denomination and may, subject to the rules of the credit union, be subscribed for either in full or by periodical or other subscriptions but no share shall be allotted to a member until it has been fully paid in cash.
- (2) Shares in a credit union shall not be transferable and a credit union shall not issue to a member a certificate denoting ownership of a share.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) above shall affect the operation of section 24(1) of the 1965 Act (transfer in pursuance of nomination on death of nominator).
- (4) Subject to subsection (5) below, shares in a credit union shall be withdrawable but a credit union shall not issue shares except on terms enabling it to require not less than sixty days' notice of withdrawal.
- (5) If a withdrawal of shares would reduce a member's paid-up shareholding in the credit union to less than his total liability (including contingent liability) to the credit union whether as borrower, guarantor or otherwise, then—
 - (a) in the case of a non-qualifying member the withdrawal shall not be permitted; and
 - (b) in any other case the withdrawal shall be permitted only at the discretion of the committee.

8 General prohibition on deposit-taking.

- (1) Subject to sections 9 and 10 below, a credit union shall not accept a deposit from any person except by way of subscription for its shares.
- [^{F7}(2) In this section and section 9 below "deposit" has the meaning given in section 5 of the Banking Act 1987]
- (4) If a credit union accepts a deposit in contravention of this section it shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction on indictment or on summary conviction to a fine which on summary conviction shall not exceed the statutory maximum.
- (5) The fact that a deposit is taken in contravention of this section shall not affect any civil liability arising in respect of the deposit or the money deposited.

9 Deposits by persons too young to be members.

- (1) A credit union may take deposits up to a total of [^{F8}£750] from a person who is under the age at which, by virtue of section 20 of the 1965 Act, he may become a member of the credit union; and nothing in section 7(3) of the 1965 Act shall apply to any such deposits.
- (2) Any deposit received by a credit union as mentioned in subsection (1) above shall be held by it on trust for the depositor and all such deposits shall be kept in a fund apart from the general funds of the credit union and shall be invested only in the manner specified in Part I or Part II of Schedule 1 to the ^{M1}Trustee Investments Act 1961 (narrower-range investments).

- (3) The moneys which from year to year are earned by the investment of deposits in accordance with subsection (2) above shall, after deduction of the expenses incurred in operating the separate fund referred to in that subsection, be distributed as interest to the depositors.
- (4) The chief registrar may, by order made with the consent of the Treasury, from time to time amend subsection (1) above so as to substitute for the maximum amount for the time being provided for in that subsection such other amount, being not less than £250, as may be specified in the order.
- (5) An order under subsection (4) above may contain such transitional, consequential, incidental or supplementary provisions as appear to the chief registrar to be necessary or appropriate, and in particular may make any such provision in connection with the alteration of the limit in subsection (1) above as is made by section 1 of the ^{M2}Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1978 in connection with the alterations made by that section in the limits in section 7(3) of the 1965 Act.

10 Power to borrow money.

- (1) A credit union may borrow money from an authorised bank or temporarily from another credit union or an association of credit unions but the amount so borrowed and not repaid shall not at any time exceed in the aggregate one half of the total paid-up share capital.
- (2) A temporary loan obtained by a credit union from an authorised bank shall be disregarded for the purposes of the limit on borrowing imposed by subsection (1) above if the credit union has obtained the consent in writing of the chief registrar.
- (3) A person dealing with a credit union shall not be obliged to satisfy himself or to inquire whether the limit on borrowing by that credit union imposed by subsection (1) above has been or is being observed, but if a person who lends money to a credit union or takes security in connection with such a loan has, at the time when the loan is made or the security is given, actual notice of the fact that the limit has been or is thereby exceeded, the debt or security shall be unenforceable.
- (4) Subject to subsection (3) above, no transaction with a credit union shall be invalid or ineffectual solely by reason of the fact that the limit on borrowing by that credit union imposed by subsection (1) above has been or is thereby exceeded.
- (5) Where money borrowed by a credit union is not repaid on written demand on the date on which repayment is due, the credit union shall not make any loans or permit the withdrawal of any shares until the repayment is made.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Credit Unions Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) If a credit union borrows in excess of the limit imposed by subsection (1) above or makes loans or permits withdrawals in contravention of subsection (5) above, it shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction on indictment or on summary conviction to a fine which on summary conviction shall not exceed the statutory maximum.

11 Loans.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a credit union may make to a member who is of full age a loan for a provident or productive purpose, upon such security (or without security) and terms as the rules of the credit union may provide.
- (2) The total amount on loan to a member of a credit union shall not at any time be more than [^{F9}£5,000](or such other sum as may from time to time be specified) in excess of his total paid-up shareholding in the credit union at that time.
- (3) Without prejudice to subsection (2) above, a credit union shall not at any time make a loan to a non-qualifying member if the making of the loan would cause that member's total liability (including contingent liability) to the credit union, whether as borrower, guarantor or otherwise, to exceed his total paid-up shareholding in the credit union at that time.
- (4) The maximum period within which a loan by a credit union must be repaid shall be five years in the case of a secured loan and two years in the case of an unsecured loan, or such other period as may from time to time be specified.
- (5) A credit union may charge interest on loans made by it but such interest shall be at a rate not exceeding one per cent. per month, or such other rate as may from time to time be specified, on the amount of the loan outstanding and such interest shall be inclusive of all administrative and other expenses incurred in connection with the making of the loan.
- (6) A credit union shall not at any time make a loan to a member if the making of such a loan would bring the total amount outstanding on loans to members above such limit as may from time to time be specified.
- (7) In this section "specified" means specified by order made by the chief registrar with the consent of the Treasury.

 - (b) in Scotland, a credit union acquires an interest in land by the exercise of any right which it holds as creditor in a heritable security,
- the credit union shall sell that interest as soon as may be conveniently practicable.
- (5) If a credit union continues to hold any interest in land in contravention of subsection (4) above it shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction on indictment or on summary conviction to a fine which on summary conviction shall not exceed the statutory maximum.
- (6) No person shall be bound to inquire as to the authority for any dealing with land by a credit union; and the receipt of a credit union shall be a discharge for all moneys arising from or in connection with any dealing with land by it.

13 Investments.

- (1) A credit union may not invest any part of its surplus funds except in a manner authorised by an order made by the chief registrar with the consent of the Treasury; and such an order may contain provisions authorising the application of the funds of a credit union in any form of investment subject to any limitations as to amount, whether by reference to a fixed sum or by reference to a proportion of the total investments of the credit union or otherwise.
- (2) Any surplus funds of a credit union which are not either—
- (a) invested in accordance with subsection (1) above, or
 - (b) kept in cash in the custody of officers of the credit union,
- shall be kept by the credit union on current account with, or otherwise on loan to, an authorised bank.
- (3) Where an institution ceases to be an authorised bank and any funds of a credit union are on loan to that institution, the credit union shall take all practicable steps to call in and realise the loan within the period of three months from the time when the institution ceased to be an authorised bank or, if that is not possible, as soon after the end of that period as possible.
- (4) In this section “surplus funds”, in relation to a credit union, means funds not immediately required for its purposes.
- (5) Nothing in this section shall—
- (a) prevent a credit union from making a temporary loan to another credit union; or
 - (b) apply to funds held on trust as mentioned in section 9(2) above.
- (6) If a credit union contravenes the provisions of this section, it shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction on indictment or on summary conviction to a fine which on summary conviction shall not exceed the statutory maximum.

14 Computation and application of profits.

- (1) In ascertaining the profit or loss resulting from the operations of a credit union during any year of account all operating expenses in that year shall be taken into account (including payments of interest) and provision shall be made for depreciation of assets, for tax liabilities and for bad and doubtful debts, but no provision shall be made in respect of amounts to be paid by way of dividend.
- (2) A credit union shall out of its profits from year to year establish and maintain a general reserve, as follows—
 - (a) if at the end of any year of account the amount standing to general reserve before any transfer under this subsection is less than 10 per cent. of total assets, the credit union shall transfer to general reserve not less than 20 per cent. of its profits for that year or such lesser sum as is required to bring the general reserve up to 10 per cent. of total assets;
 - (b) if at the end of any year of account the amount standing to general reserve before any transfer under this subsection is more than 20 per cent. of total assets, the credit union shall transfer to the revenue account and treat as revenue for that year a sum not less than that required to reduce the general reserve to 20 per cent. of total assets;
 - (c) subject to paragraphs (a) and (b) above, a credit union may at the end of any year of account—
 - (i) transfer to general reserve from the profits of that year, or
 - (ii) transfer from general reserve to the revenue account and treat as revenue for that year,such sum as the credit union may in general meeting determine, provided that the general reserve is not thereby reduced to less than 10 per cent. or increased to more than 20 per cent. of total assets.
- (3) Not less than 90 per cent. of the amount available for distribution in respect of any year of account, that is to say, the profit of that year reduced or increased by any transfer to or from general reserve in accordance with subsection (2) above, shall be applied in such one or more of the following ways as the credit union shall in general meeting determine—
 - (a) subject to subsection (4) below, in the payment to members of dividends on the amount of their paid-up shares;
 - (b) as a rebate of interest paid by or due from members who have received loans from the credit union, such rebate being proportional to the interest paid by or due from such members during that year of account; and
 - (c) subject to subsection (5) below, for social, cultural or charitable purposes.
- (4) The dividend payable on any shares of a credit union shall not exceed a rate of 8 per cent. per annum or such other rate as may from time to time be specified by order made by the chief registrar with the consent of the Treasury.
- (5) No part of the amount available for distribution in respect of any year of account shall be applied by a credit union for the purposes mentioned in subsection (3)(c) above unless a dividend of not less than 3 per cent. per annum is paid for that year on all paid-up shares of the credit union; and the total sum applied for those purposes out of the amount available for distribution in respect of any year of account shall not exceed 10 per cent. of that amount.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Credit Unions Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (6) Where in accordance with subsection (3) above a credit union in general meeting determines that an amount shall be applied in any of the ways mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) of that subsection, that amount may, unless the determination is that it be distributed or expended forthwith, be so applied by being appropriated to a fund to be distributed or expended from time to time or at some future date; and where in accordance with that subsection a credit union in general meeting determines that an amount shall be applied for a purpose falling within paragraph (c) of that subsection, that amount may, unless the determination is that it be expended in some specific manner, be expended for that purpose at the discretion of the committee.
- (7) Nothing in this section applies to income arising from, or to expenses incurred by a credit union in operating, such a trust fund as is referred to in section 9(2) above.

Insurance and other arrangements

15 Insurance against fraud or other dishonesty.

- (1) A society shall not be registered as a credit union unless the appropriate registrar is satisfied that on registration there will be in force in relation to that society a policy of insurance complying with the requirements of this section; and a credit union shall at all times maintain in force such a policy and if it fails to do so shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F14}level 3 on the standard scale].
- (2) In order to comply with this section, a policy of insurance—
- (a) subject to such exceptions as may be prescribed, must insure the credit union in respect of every description of loss suffered or liability incurred by reason of the fraud or other dishonesty of any of its officers or employees;
 - (b) must so insure the credit union up to a limit of not less than £20,000 (or such other figure as may be prescribed) in respect of any one claim, except that the liability of the insurer may be restricted to an amount not less than £100,000 (or such other figure as may be prescribed) in respect of the total of the claims made in any one year;
 - (c) must not, except with the consent in writing of the chief registrar, provide in relation to any claim for any amount greater than one per cent. of the limit referred to in paragraph (b) above to be met by the credit union; and
 - (d) must be issued by a person who is permitted under the Insurance Companies Act [^{F15}1982] or the corresponding provision for the time being in force in Northern Ireland to carry on in Great Britain or Northern Ireland insurance business of a relevant class or who has corresponding permission under the law of another member State.
- (3) In paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) above “prescribed” means prescribed by regulations made by the chief registrar with the consent of the Treasury.
- (4) Regulations made by virtue of paragraph (b) of that subsection may provide for different figures in relation to different descriptions of credit union, whether by reference to the amount of the assets of the credit union or to such other factors as appear to the chief registrar to be appropriate; and if such regulations do so provide the reference in paragraph (c) of that subsection to the limit referred to in the said paragraph (b) shall be construed as a reference to the limit applicable to the credit union in question.

16 Guarantee funds.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, a credit union, or any two or more credit unions, may enter into arrangements with a person carrying on the business of insurance for the purpose of making funds available to meet losses incurred by members of a credit union which is a party to the arrangements; and any two or more credit unions may enter into any other kind of arrangements for that purpose.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) below, a credit union shall have power to make contributions under arrangements made in accordance with subsection (1) above, and such arrangements may in particular provide for the vesting of a fund in trustees appointed under the arrangements.
- (3) Arrangements under subsection (1) above shall not come into force and no contribution shall be made thereunder by a credit union, until they have been approved by the appropriate registrar; and the appropriate registrar shall not approve any such arrangements unless they provide that any variation of their terms shall also require his approval.

Powers of registrar

17 Power to require information.

- (1) In relation to a credit union, the powers of the appropriate registrar under subsection (1) of section 48 of the 1965 Act to require the production of books, accounts and other documents and the furnishing of information in connection with the exercise of certain of his powers under that Act—
 - (a) shall apply also in connection with the exercise of his functions under this Act; and
 - (b) shall extend to the chief registrar in connection with the exercise of his functions under this Act;and subsections (2) and (3) of section 48 of the 1965 Act (penalties and defraying expenses) shall apply accordingly;
- (2) Without prejudice to section 39 of the 1965 Act (duty to furnish annual returns), the appropriate registrar may from time to time by notice in writing served on a credit union require it to furnish, within such period as may be specified in the notice, a financial statement or periodic financial statements in such form and containing such information as may be so specified.
- (3) If a credit union fails without reasonable excuse to comply with a notice under subsection (2) above it shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F16}level 3 on the standard scale].

18 Power to appoint inspector and call meeting.

- (1) Without prejudice to section 49 of the 1965 Act (appointment of inspector or calling of special meeting upon application of members of registered society), where the chief registrar is of the opinion that an investigation should be held into the affairs of a credit union or that the affairs of the credit union call for consideration by a meeting of the members, he may, with the consent of the Treasury, appoint an inspector to investigate and report on the affairs of the credit union or may call a special meeting of the credit union, or may (either on the same or on different occasions) both appoint such an inspector and call such a meeting.
- (2) All expenses of and incidental to an investigation or meeting held pursuant to subsection (1) above shall be defrayed out of the funds of the credit union, or by the members or officers or former members or officers of the credit union in such proportions as the chief registrar shall direct.
- (3) Subsections (5) and (6) of the said section 49 (power to prescribe time and place of meeting, procedure, power to require evidence to be given, etc.) shall apply in relation to an inspector appointed or meeting called in accordance with this section.

19 Power to suspend operations of credit union.

- (1) If, with respect to any credit union, the chief registrar considers it expedient to do so having regard to the interests of all the members of the credit union or in the interests of potential members of the credit union, he may, with the consent of the Treasury, give a direction prohibiting the credit union to such extent and subject to such conditions as may be specified in the direction from carrying on any one or more of the following activities, that is to say,—
 - (a) borrowing money;
 - (b) accepting a payment representing the whole or any part of an amount due by way of subscription for a share in the credit union other than a payment which fell due before the making of the order;
 - (c) lending money; and
 - (d) repaying share capital;and Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect in relation to the giving of a direction under this section.
- (2) Nothing in any direction given under this section shall make it unlawful for a credit union to borrow from an authorised bank if the credit union has obtained the consent in writing of the chief registrar.
- (3) For the purposes of this section and of any direction given under it, if any indebtedness of a member to a credit union is set off to any extent against the share capital credited to him, then, to that extent, the setting off shall be treated as a repayment of that share capital.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Credit Unions Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (4) A direction given under this section may be revoked by the chief registrar with the consent of the Treasury and notice of the revocation shall be published in the same manner as notice of the giving of the direction.
- (5) Where a direction under this section is revoked, any obligation of any person to make a payment to the credit union which fell due at a time when the credit was prohibited by the direction from accepting it shall be suspended for a period equal to the period for which the prohibition was in force.
- (6) Subject to subsection (5) above, any obligation to make to a credit union a payment which the credit union is prohibited from accepting by a direction under this section shall be wholly rescinded.
- (7) If a credit union contravenes a direction under this section it shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction on indictment or on summary conviction to a fine which on summary conviction shall not exceed the statutory maximum.

20 Cancellation or suspension of registration and petition for winding up.

- (1) In subsection (1) of section 16 of the 1965 Act (grounds for cancellation of registration) as it applies to credit unions—
 - (a) in paragraph (c)(i) the reference to violation of any of the provisions of the 1965 Act shall be construed as including a reference to violation of any of the provisions of this Act; and
 - (b) in paragraph (c)(ii) the reference to the fact that neither of the conditions in section 1(2) of that Act is fulfilled shall be construed as a reference to the fact that there is no longer a common bond between the members of a credit union; and section 17(1) of that Act (suspension of registration on grounds which would justify cancellation) and section 18 of that Act (appeals) shall apply accordingly.
- (2) A petition for the winding up of a credit union may be presented to the court by the appropriate registrar if it appears to him that—
 - (a) the credit union is unable to pay sums due and payable to its members, or is able to pay such sums only by obtaining further subscriptions for shares or by defaulting in its obligations to creditors; or
 - (b) there has been, in relation to that credit union, a failure to comply with any provision of, or of any direction given under, this Act or the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts 1965 to 1978; or
 - (c) there is no longer a common bond between the members of the credit union; or in any other case where it appears to him that the winding up of the credit union is in the public interest or is just and equitable having regard to the interests of all the members of the credit union.

Amalgamations, transfers of engagements and conversions

21 Amalgamations and transfers of engagements.

- (1) In their application to credit unions, sections 50 and 51 of the 1965 Act (amalgamations of registered societies and transfers of engagements between them) shall have effect subject to the provisions of subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Credit Unions Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

- (2) A credit union shall not amalgamate with or transfer its engagements to or accept a transfer of engagements from any registered society which is not a credit union.
- (3) The appropriate registrar shall not register a special resolution under section 50 or section 51 of the 1965 Act if in his opinion—
 - (a) the proposed amalgamation or transfer of engagements would result in a contravention of any provision of this Act or of the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts 1965 to 1978; or
 - (b) there would be no common bond between the members of the proposed amalgamated credit union or, as the case may be, the credit union which proposes to accept the transfer of engagements.
- (4) In this Act the expression “non-qualifying member”, in relation to an amalgamated credit union or a credit union which has accepted a transfer of engagements, includes a person who does not fulfil the qualifications for admission to membership of that credit union but became a member of it by virtue of the amalgamation or transfer of engagements, having been immediately before the amalgamation or transfer a non-qualifying member of one of the amalgamating credit unions or, as the case may be, the credit union from which the transfer of engagements was made.

22 No conversion of credit union into company, etc.

Section 52 of the 1965 Act (conversion of registered society into company or amalgamation with, or transfer of engagements from registered society to, company) shall not apply to credit unions.

23 Conversion of company into credit union.

- (1) In its application to the conversion of a company into a credit union, section 53 of the 1965 Act (conversion of company into registered society) shall have effect subject to the provisions of this section.
- (2) In subsection (1) of that section the words from “and for this purpose” to the end (which refer to the Limitation on shareholdings applicable to societies other than credit unions) shall be omitted.
- (3) A company shall not be registered as a credit union in accordance with that section unless the appropriate registrar is satisfied—
 - (a) that either there are no outstanding deposits by members with the company or that, in the case of every such outstanding deposit, the member concerned has consented in writing to the deposit being converted into an equivalent amount of shares in the credit union immediately upon the company being registered as a credit union;
 - (b) that in no case does the nominal value of the company’s shares held by any member, together with the amount of any deposit of his which is to be converted as mentioned in paragraph (a) above, exceed the maximum shareholding for the time being permitted by section 5(3) above in the case of a member of a credit union; and
 - (c) that, except in a case where an exemption has been granted to the company under subsection (5) of section 6 above, the number of its members does not exceed the maximum for the time being provided for in subsection (2) of that section in relation to a credit union.

Status: Point in time view as at 01/02/1991. This version of this Act contains provisions that are not valid for this point in time.
Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Credit Unions Act 1979. (See end of Document for details)

General and miscellaneous

24 Modifications of requirements as to audit of accounts.

- (1) A credit union may display at its registered office, but only at that office, an interim revenue account or balance sheet which has not been audited, provided that—
- (a) the latest audited revenue account and balance sheet are displayed side by side with the interim revenue account or balance sheet; and
 - (b) the interim revenue account or balance sheet so displayed is marked in clearly legible characters and in a prominent position with the words “UNAUDITED REVENUE ACCOUNT” or, as the case may be, “UNAUDITED BALANCE SHEET”.
- (2) Paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (5) of section 3 of the ^{M3}Friendly and Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1968 (requirements as to audit) shall not apply in relation to any such interim revenue account or balance sheet as is referred to in subsection (1) above and section 39(1) of the 1965 Act (annual returns) shall not apply to any such interim balance sheet.

and where a person holding any office in a credit union becomes ineligible by virtue of this section to hold that office, he shall forthwith cease to hold that office.

28 Provisions as to offences.

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) below, in sections 61 to 66 and section 68 of the 1965 Act (general provisions as to offences by registered societies, their officers and others) as they apply to credit unions references to the 1965 Act shall include references to this Act.
- (2) Section 63 of the 1965 Act (continuing act or default to constitute a new offence every week) shall not apply to an offence under section 12(5) above.
- (3) Without prejudice to the operation of subsection (1) above in relation to offences under the 1965 Act committed by or in relation to a credit union, section 66(2) of that Act (extension of time limit for summary prosecutions in certain cases) shall not apply to proceedings for an offence under this Act.
- (4) Where under section 62 of the 1965 Act (offences by registered societies to be also offences by officers, etc.) as it applies by virtue of subsection (1) above an individual is convicted on indictment of an offence under this Act, he shall be liable not only to a fine but, in the alternative or in addition, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years.
- (5) Where an offence under this Act which has been committed by a body corporate other than a registered society is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or similar officer of the body corporate, or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
- (6) In any proceedings for an offence under this Act it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of such an offence by himself or any person under his control.

29 Orders made by the chief registrar.

- (1) Any power to make an order conferred on the chief registrar by any provision of this Act, except Schedule 3 to this Act, shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (2) The ^{M5}Statutory Instruments Act 1946 shall apply to orders made by the chief registrar in the exercise of any power to which subsection (1) above applies notwithstanding that he is not a Minister of the Crown.
