Caravans etc. affected by noise of public works

- 5 (1) After section 20 of the ^{M1}Land Compensation Act 1973 there is inserted—

“20A Power to make payments in respect of caravans and other structures affected by noise of public works.

- (1) The Secretary of State may make regulations empowering responsible authorities to make a payment, not exceeding an amount specified in the regulations, in respect of any dwelling which—
- (a) is not a building;
 - (b) is occupied by a person as his only or main residence; and
 - (c) is affected or likely to be affected by noise caused by the construction or use of public works.
- (2) Regulations under this section may—
- (a) make provision as to the level of noise giving rise to a power under the regulations and the area in which a dwelling must be situated if a power is to arise in respect of it;
 - (b) specify the classes of public works and of dwellings in respect of which a power is to arise, and the classes of persons entitled to make claims, under the regulations; and
 - (c) make provision as to the funds out of which expenses incurred by responsible authorities under the regulations are to be defrayed.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Planning and Compensation Act 1991, Cross Heading: Caravans etc. affected by noise of public works. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The power to make regulations under this section shall be exercisable by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
- (4) Subsections (3), (7) and (12) of section 20 above apply for the purposes of this section as they apply for the purposes of that.”
- (2) This paragraph does not apply in relation to any public works if the relevant date for the purposes of Part I of the ^{M2}Land Compensation Act 1973 fell more than twelve months before the date on which this paragraph comes into force.
