PART I

THE GENERAL COUNCIL

Powers of the General Council

- 15 (1) Subject to any provision made by or under this Act, the General Council shall have power to do anything which is calculated to facilitate the discharge of its functions or which is incidental or conducive to the discharge of its functions.
- (2) The General Council shall, in particular, have power—
- (a) to borrow;
  - (b) to appoint such staff as it may determine;
  - (c) to pay its staff such salaries as it may determine;
  - (d) to pay its staff, and the members of its committees and any of their sub-committees, such allowances and expenses as it may determine;
  - (e) to make such provision for the payment of such pensions, allowances or gratuities, or such contributions or payments towards provision for such pensions, allowances or gratuities, to or in respect of its staff as it may determine;
  - (f) to establish such sub-committees of any of its committees as it may determine;
  - (g) subject to any provision made by or under this Act, to regulate the procedure of any of its committees or their sub-committees;
  - (h) to abolish any of its committees, other than a statutory committee, or any sub-committee of any of its committees;
  - (i) to delegate to any of its committees any functions of the General Council other than any power to make rules.
- (3) The powers of the General Council may be exercised even though there is a vacancy among its members.
- (4) No proceedings of the General Council shall be invalidated by any defect in the election or appointment of a member.
- (5) Subject to any provision made by or under this Act, the General Council may regulate its own procedure.
