

Law Officers Act 1997

1997 CHAPTER 60

1 The Attorney General and the Solicitor General.

- (1) Any function of the Attorney General may be exercised by the Solicitor General.
- (2) Anything done by or in relation to the Solicitor General in the exercise of or in connection with a function of the Attorney General has effect as if done by or in relation to the Attorney General.
- (3) The validity of anything done in relation to the Attorney General, or done by or in relation to the Solicitor General, is not affected by a vacancy in the office of Attorney General.
- (4) Nothing in this section—
 - (a) prevents anything being done by or in relation to the Attorney General in the exercise of or in connection with any function of his; or
 - (b) requires anything done by the Solicitor General to be done in the name of the Solicitor General instead of the name of the Attorney General.
- (5) It is immaterial for the purposes of this section whether a function of the Attorney General arises under an enactment or otherwise.

2 The Attorney General for Northern Ireland and the Solicitor General.

- (1) Any function of the [^{F1}Advocate General for Northern Ireland] may be exercised by the Solicitor General for England and Wales.
- (2) Anything done by or in relation to the Solicitor General in the exercise of or in connection with a function of the [^{F2}Advocate General] has effect as if done by or in relation to the [^{F2}Advocate General] .
- (3) The validity of anything done in relation to the [^{F2}Advocate General] , or done by or in relation to the Solicitor General, is not affected by a vacancy in the office of [^{F2}Advocate General] .
- (4) Nothing in this section—
