

House of Commons (Removal of Clergy Disqualification) Act 2001

2001 CHAPTER 13

1 Removal of disqualification of clergy

- (1) A person is not disqualified from being or being elected as a member of the House of Commons merely because he has been ordained or is a minister of any religious denomination.
- (2) But a person is disqualified from being or being elected as a member of that House if he is a Lord Spiritual.
- (3) Accordingly—
 - (a) Schedule 1 (which makes amendments consequential on this section) has effect, and
 - (b) the enactments mentioned in Schedule 2 (which relate to the disqualification of clergy from membership of the House of Commons) are repealed to the extent specified in that Schedule.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the House of Commons (Removal of Clergy Disqualification) Act 2001, Section 1.