29 Effect of polygraph condition

- (1) For the purposes of section 28, a polygraph condition is a condition which requires the released person—
  - (a) to participate in polygraph sessions conducted with a view to—
    - (i) monitoring his compliance with the other conditions of his licence; or
    - (ii) improving the way in which he is managed during his release on licence;
  - (b) to participate in those polygraph sessions at such times as may be specified in instructions given by an appropriate officer; and
  - (c) while participating in a polygraph session, to comply with instructions given to him by the person conducting the session (“the polygraph operator”).
- (2) A polygraph session is a session during which the polygraph operator—
  - (a) conducts one or more polygraph examinations of the released person; and
  - (b) interviews the released person in preparation for, or otherwise in connection with, any such examination.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a polygraph examination is a procedure in which—
  - (a) the polygraph operator questions the released person;
  - (b) the questions and the released person's answers are recorded; and
  - (c) physiological reactions of the released person while being questioned are measured and recorded by means of equipment of a type approved by the Secretary of State.
- (4) In subsection (1)(b) “appropriate officer” means an officer of a provider of probation services or an officer of a local probation board.
- (5) An appropriate officer giving instructions as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) must have regard to any guidance issued by the Secretary of State.
- (6) The Secretary of State may make rules relating to the conduct of polygraph sessions.
- (7) The rules may, in particular—
  - (a) require polygraph operators to be persons who satisfy such requirements as to qualifications, experience and other matters as are specified in the rules;
  - (b) make provision about the keeping of records of polygraph sessions; and
  - (c) make provision about the preparation of reports on the results of polygraph sessions.
- [<sup>F11</sup>(7A) Rules under subsection (6) may make—
  - (a) different provision for different purposes or different areas;
  - (b) incidental, supplemental, consequential, saving or transitional provision.]
- (8) The power to make rules under subsection (6) is exercisable by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.
