

Borders, Citizenship and Immigration Act 2009

2009 CHAPTER 11

PART 1

BORDER FUNCTIONS

General customs functions of the Secretary of State

1 General customs functions of the Secretary of State

- (1) The functions of the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs that are exercisable in relation to general customs matters are exercisable by the Secretary of State concurrently with the Commissioners.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, a “general customs matter” is a matter in relation to which the Commissioners, or officers of Revenue and Customs, have functions, other than—
 - (a) a matter listed in Schedule 1 to the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 (c. 11),
 - (b) any tax, duty or levy not mentioned in that Schedule,
 - (c) a matter in respect of which functions were transferred to the Commissioners from the Paymaster General under the Transfer of Functions (Office of Her Majesty's Paymaster General) Order 2006 (S.I. 2006/607),
 - (d) the subject matter of Directive 2005/60/EC on the prevention of the use of the financial system for the purpose of money laundering and terrorist financing (as amended from time to time), and
 - (e) the subject matter of Regulation (EC) No 1781/2006 on information on the payer accompanying transfers of funds (as amended from time to time).
- (3) If a function is exercisable by the Commissioners—
 - (a) in relation to a general customs matter, and
 - (b) in relation to any other matter,

Status: Point in time view as at 21/07/2009.

Changes to legislation: Borders, Citizenship and Immigration Act 2009, Part 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 02 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

the function is exercisable by the Secretary of State in relation to the general customs matter only.

- (4) So far as is appropriate for the purposes of or in connection with this section, references to the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, or to Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, in an enactment, instrument or document to which this section applies are to be construed as including a reference to the Secretary of State.
- (5) References in this section (other than in subsection (8))—
- (a) to functions of the Commissioners are to functions conferred by an enactment to which this section applies;
 - (b) to functions of officers of Revenue and Customs are to functions conferred by an enactment to which section 3 (designation of general customs officials) applies.
- (6) This section applies to—
- (a) an enactment passed or made before the end of the session in which this Act is passed, and
 - (b) an instrument or document issued before the passing of this Act.
- (7) This includes—
- (a) section 5(2)(b) of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 (c. 11) (Commissioners' initial functions),
 - (b) section 9 of that Act (ancillary powers),
 - (c) section 25A(2) of that Act (certificates of debt),
 - (d) section 31 of that Act (obstruction), and
 - (e) section 33 of that Act (power of arrest) other than in its application to an offence under section 30 of that Act (impersonation),
- but does not include any other enactment contained in that Act.
- (8) In this Part “general customs function” means—
- (a) a function that is exercisable—
 - (i) by the Secretary of State by virtue of this section, or
 - (ii) by general customs officials by virtue of section 3,
 - (b) a function that is conferred on general customs officials or the Secretary of State by or by virtue of any of sections 22 to 24 (investigations and detention), or
 - (c) a function under Community law that is exercisable by the Secretary of State or general customs officials in relation to a matter—
 - (i) in relation to which functions under Community law are exercisable by the Commissioners or officers of Revenue and Customs, and
 - (ii) that is not listed in paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (2).

2 Power of Secretary of State to modify functions

- (1) The Secretary of State may by order—
- (a) amend section 1(2) (matters that are general customs matters) so as to add, modify or remove a matter;
 - (b) amend that section so as to exclude its application in relation to a function of the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs or to modify or remove a reference to a function previously so excluded;

Status: Point in time view as at 21/07/2009.

Changes to legislation: Borders, Citizenship and Immigration Act 2009, Part 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 02 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) make provision for that section to apply in relation to a function conferred on the Commissioners by an enactment passed or made after the end of the session in which this Act is passed;
 - (d) modify any enactment (including an enactment passed or made after the passing of this Act) in consequence of provision made under any of paragraphs (a) to (c);
 - (e) make provision for a function of the Secretary of State or general customs officials to be treated, or not to be treated, as a general customs function.
- (2) The power under subsection (1)(a) may not be exercised to add any of the following to section 1(2)—
- (a) a matter listed in Schedule 1 to the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 (c. 11),
 - (b) value added tax,
 - (c) a customs revenue matter (as to which, see section 7), or
 - (d) a matter listed at section 7(2)(e).
- (3) The Secretary of State must consult the Treasury before exercising the power under this section.

General customs officials

3 Designation of general customs officials

- (1) The Secretary of State by whom general customs functions are exercisable may designate—
- (a) an immigration officer, or
 - (b) any other official in that Secretary of State's department,
- as a general customs official.
- (2) A general customs official—
- (a) has, in relation to a general customs matter, the same functions as an officer of Revenue and Customs would have, and
 - (b) may exercise the functions conferred on the Secretary of State by section 1 (general customs functions of the Secretary of State).
- (3) This does not prevent the exercise of the Secretary of State's functions by any other official of the Secretary of State.
- (4) If a function within subsection (2) is exercisable—
- (a) in relation to a general customs matter, and
 - (b) in relation to any other matter,
- the function is exercisable by a general customs official in relation to the general customs matter only.
- (5) So far as is appropriate for the purposes of or in connection with this section, references to an officer of Revenue and Customs, or to Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, in an enactment, instrument or document to which this section applies are to be construed as including a reference to a general customs official.
- (6) References in this section to functions of an officer of Revenue and Customs are to functions conferred by an enactment to which this section applies.

Status: Point in time view as at 21/07/2009.

Changes to legislation: Borders, Citizenship and Immigration Act 2009, Part 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 02 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) This section applies to—
- (a) an enactment passed or made, or an instrument or document issued, before this Act is passed, and
 - (b) subject to express provision to the contrary, an enactment passed or made, or an instrument or document issued, after this Act is passed.
- (8) This includes—
- (a) section 2(4) of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 (c. 11) (continuation of anything begun by one officer by another),
 - (b) section 6 of that Act (officers' initial functions),
 - (c) section 25(1) and (5) of that Act (conduct of civil proceedings in a magistrates' court or in the sheriff court),
 - (d) section 25A(1) of that Act (certificates of debt),
 - (e) section 31 of that Act (obstruction),
 - (f) section 32 of that Act (assault), and
 - (g) section 33 of that Act (power of arrest) other than in its application to an offence under section 30 of that Act (impersonation),
- but does not otherwise include any enactment contained in that Act.
- (9) This section has effect subject to—
- (a) any limitation specified in the official's designation under section 4 (supplementary provisions about designation), and
 - (b) any designation of the official under section 11 (designation of customs revenue officials).

4 Designation: supplementary

- (1) A designation under section 3 is subject to such limitations as may be specified in the designation.
- (2) A limitation specified under subsection (1) may, in particular, relate to—
 - (a) the functions that are exercisable by virtue of the designation, or
 - (b) the purposes for which those functions are exercisable.
- (3) A designation under section 3—
 - (a) may be permanent or for a specified period,
 - (b) may (in either case) be withdrawn, and
 - (c) may be varied.
- (4) The power to designate, or to withdraw or vary a designation, is exercised by the Secretary of State giving notice to the official in question.
- (5) The Secretary of State may designate an official under section 3 only if the Secretary of State is satisfied that the official—
 - (a) is capable of effectively carrying out the functions that are exercisable by virtue of the designation,
 - (b) has received adequate training in respect of the exercise of those functions, and
 - (c) is otherwise a suitable person to exercise those functions.

Status: Point in time view as at 21/07/2009.

Changes to legislation: Borders, Citizenship and Immigration Act 2009, Part 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 02 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

5 Directions by the Secretary of State

A general customs official must comply with the directions of the Secretary of State in the exercise of general customs functions.

The Director of Border Revenue

6 The Director of Border Revenue

- (1) The Secretary of State must designate an official in the department of the Secretary of State by whom general customs functions are exercisable as the Director of Border Revenue.
- (2) Before making a designation under this section, the Secretary of State must obtain the consent of the Treasury to the designation.

7 Customs revenue functions of the Director

- (1) The functions of the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs that are exercisable in relation to customs revenue matters are exercisable by the Director of Border Revenue concurrently with the Commissioners.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, each of the following is a “customs revenue matter”—
 - (a) agricultural levies (within the meaning given by section 6(8) of the European Communities Act 1972 (c. 68));
 - (b) anti-dumping duty (within the meaning of Council Regulation (EC) No. 384/96, as amended from time to time);
 - (c) countervailing duty (within the meaning of Council Regulation (EC) No. 2026/97, as amended from time to time);
 - (d) customs duties;
 - (e) duties of excise other than—
 - (i) amusement machine licence duty,
 - (ii) bingo duty,
 - (iii) gaming duty,
 - (iv) general betting duty,
 - (v) lottery duty,
 - (vi) pool betting duty, and
 - (vii) remote gaming duty;
 - (f) value added tax so far as relating to the export of goods from, or the import of goods into, the United Kingdom.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to—
 - (a) any function of making, by statutory instrument, any regulations, rules or an order;
 - (b) any function of issuing notices, directions or conditions that relate to value added tax and that apply generally to any person falling within their terms.
- (4) If a function is exercisable by the Commissioners—
 - (a) in relation to a customs revenue matter, and
 - (b) in relation to any other matter,

Status: Point in time view as at 21/07/2009.

Changes to legislation: Borders, Citizenship and Immigration Act 2009, Part 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 02 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

the function is exercisable by the Director in relation to the customs revenue matter only.

- (5) So far as is appropriate for the purposes of or in connection with this section, references to the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, or to Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, in an enactment, instrument or document to which this section applies are to be construed as including a reference to the Director.
- (6) References in this section to functions of the Commissioners are to functions conferred by an enactment to which this section applies.
- (7) This section applies to—
- (a) an enactment passed or made before the end of the session in which this Act is passed, and
 - (b) an instrument or document issued before the passing of this Act.
- (8) This includes—
- (a) section 5(1)(b) and (2)(b) of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 (c. 11) (Commissioners' initial functions),
 - (b) section 9 of that Act (ancillary powers),
 - (c) section 24(1), (2), (3)(e) and (4) to (7) of that Act (evidence),
 - (d) section 25(1), (1A), (5) and (6) of that Act (conduct of civil proceedings),
 - (e) section 25A(2) of that Act (certificates of debt),
 - (f) section 26 of that Act (rewards),
 - (g) section 31 of that Act (obstruction), and
 - (h) section 33 of that Act (power of arrest) other than in its application to an offence under section 30 of that Act (impersonation),
- but does not include any other enactment contained in that Act.
- (9) In this Part “customs revenue function” means—
- (a) a function that is exercisable—
 - (i) by the Director by virtue of this section, or
 - (ii) by customs revenue officials by virtue of section 11,
 - (b) a function that is conferred on customs revenue officials or the Director by or by virtue of any of sections 22 to 24 (investigations and detention), or
 - (c) a function under Community law that is exercisable by the Director or customs revenue officials in relation to a customs revenue matter.

8 Power of Treasury to modify Director's functions

The Treasury may by order—

- (a) amend section 7(2) (matters that are customs revenue matters) so as to add, modify or remove a matter;
- (b) amend section 7(3) (functions to which that section does not apply) so as to add, modify or remove a function;
- (c) make provision for that section to apply in relation to a function conferred on the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs by an enactment passed or made after the end of the session in which this Act is passed;
- (d) modify any enactment (including an enactment passed or made after the passing of this Act) in consequence of provision made under any of paragraphs (a) to (c).

Status: Point in time view as at 21/07/2009.

Changes to legislation: Borders, Citizenship and Immigration Act 2009, Part 1 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 02 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

9 Delegation of Director's functions

- (1) The Director of Border Revenue may make arrangements to delegate a function of the Director.
- (2) The delegation of a function under this section—
 - (a) does not prevent the exercise of the function by the Director, and
 - (b) does not prevent the exercise of the function by a customs revenue official (see section 11).
- (3) Where the Director delegates a function under this section—
 - (a) the Director must monitor the exercise of the function by the person to whom it is delegated, and
 - (b) the person must comply with the directions of the Director in exercising that function.

10 Compliance with directions etc.

- (1) This section applies to—
 - (a) the Director of Border Revenue in the exercise of the Director's customs revenue functions, and
 - (b) a person to whom such functions are delegated under section 9.
- (2) A person to whom this section applies must comply with any directions of a general nature given by the Treasury.
- (3) A person to whom this section applies must apply—
 - (a) any concession published by the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs and available generally to any person falling within its terms, and
 - (b) any interpretation of the law issued by the Commissioners (whether or not published).
- (4) A person to whom this section applies must also—
 - (a) comply with any other guidance issued by the Commissioners (whether or not published), and
 - (b) take account of any other material published by the Commissioners.

Customs revenue officials

11 Designation of customs revenue officials

- (b) is made for the purposes of a criminal investigation or criminal proceedings (whether or not within the United Kingdom), or
 - (c) is made in pursuance of an order of a court.
- (6) This subsection applies to a disclosure which is made with the consent of each person to whom the information relates.
- (7) This subsection applies to a disclosure which is made in order to comply with an obligation of the United Kingdom, or Her Majesty's Government, under an international or other agreement.
- (8) This subsection applies to a disclosure—
- (a) to a person specified in regulations made jointly by the Treasury and the Secretary of State, or
 - (b) of a kind specified in such regulations.

17 Prohibition on further disclosure

- (1) A person to whom information is disclosed in reliance on section 16 or this section may not disclose that information without the consent of a relevant official (which may be general or specific).
- (2) A person does not breach subsection (1) by making a disclosure—
- (a) to which any of subsections (3) to (8) of section 16 applies, and
 - (b) which, in the case of a disclosure of customs revenue information, does not contravene any restriction imposed by the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs.
- (3) Subsection (2)(b) does not apply if the person making the disclosure knows that the information was acquired otherwise than as the result of the exercise of a customs revenue function.
- (4) This section is also subject to any other enactment permitting disclosure.
- (5) In subsection (4) the reference to an enactment does not include an enactment contained in, or in an instrument made under—
- (a) an Act of the Scottish Parliament,
 - (b) a Measure or Act of the National Assembly for Wales, or
 - (c) Northern Ireland legislation.

18 Offence of wrongful disclosure

- (1) A person commits an offence if the person breaches section 15(1) or (2) or 17(1).
- (2) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under this section to prove that the person reasonably believed—
- (a) that the disclosure was lawful, or
 - (b) that the information had already and lawfully been made available to the public.
- (3) A prosecution for an offence under this section—
