SCHEDULE 1

Section 30

UNIVERSAL CREDIT: SUPPLEMENTARY REGULATION-MAKING POWERS

Entitlement of joint claimants

- 1 Regulations may provide for circumstances in which joint claimants may be entitled to universal credit without each of them meeting all the basic conditions referred to in section 4.

Linking periods

- 2 Regulations may provide for periods of entitlement to universal credit which are separated by no more than a prescribed number of days to be treated as a single period.

Couples

- 3 (1) Regulations may provide—
- (a) for a claim made by members of a couple jointly to be treated as a claim made by one member of the couple as a single person (or as claims made by both members as single persons);
 - (b) for claims made by members of a couple as single persons to be treated as a claim made jointly by the couple.
- (2) Regulations may provide—
- (a) where an award is made to joint claimants who cease to be entitled to universal credit as such by ceasing to be a couple, for the making of an award (without a claim) to either or each one of them—
 - (i) as a single person, or
 - (ii) jointly with another person;
 - (b) where an award is made to a single claimant who ceases to be entitled to universal credit as such by becoming a member of a couple, for the making of an award (without a claim) to the members of the couple jointly;
 - (c) for the procedure to be followed, and information or evidence to be supplied, in relation to the making of an award under this paragraph.

Calculation of capital and income

- 4 (1) Regulations may for any purpose of this Part provide for the calculation or estimation of—
- (a) a person's capital,
 - (b) a person's earned and unearned income, and
 - (c) a person's earned and unearned income in respect of an assessment period.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) Regulations under sub-paragraph (1)(c) may include provision for the calculation to be made by reference to an average over a period, which need not include the assessment period concerned.
- (3) Regulations under sub-paragraph (1) may—
 - (a) specify circumstances in which a person is to be treated as having or not having capital or earned or unearned income;
 - (b) specify circumstances in which income is to be treated as capital or capital as earned income or unearned income;
 - (c) specify circumstances in which unearned income is to be treated as earned, or earned income as unearned;
 - (d) provide that a person’s capital is to be treated as yielding income at a prescribed rate;
 - (e) provide that the capital or income of one member of a couple is to be treated as that of the other member.
- (4) Regulations under sub-paragraph (3)(a) may in particular provide that persons of a prescribed description are to be treated as having a prescribed minimum level of earned income.
- (5) In the case of joint claimants the income and capital of the joint claimants includes (subject to sub-paragraph (6)) the separate income and capital of each of them.
- (6) Regulations may specify circumstances in which capital and income of either of joint claimants is to be disregarded in calculating their joint capital and income.

Responsibility for children etc

- 5 (1) Regulations may for any purpose of this Part specify circumstances in which a person is or is not responsible for a child or qualifying young person.
- (2) Regulations may for any purpose of this Part make provision about nominations of the responsible carer for a child (see section 19(6)(b)(ii)).

Vouchers

- 6 (1) This paragraph applies in relation to an award of universal credit where the calculation of the amount of the award includes, by virtue of any provision of this Part, an amount in respect of particular costs which a claimant may incur.
- (2) Regulations may provide for liability to pay all or part of the award to be discharged by means of provision of a voucher.
- (3) But the amount paid by means of a voucher may not in any case exceed the total of the amounts referred to in sub-paragraph (1) which are included in the calculation of the amount of the award.
- (4) For these purposes a voucher is a means other than cash by which a claimant may to any extent meet costs referred to in sub-paragraph (1) of a particular description.
- (5) A voucher may for these purposes—
 - (a) be limited as regards the person or persons who will accept it;
 - (b) be valid only for a limited time.

Work-related requirements

- 7 Regulations may provide that a claimant who—
- (a) has a right to reside in the United Kingdom under the EU Treaties, and
 - (b) would otherwise fall within section 19, 20 or 21,
- is to be treated as not falling within that section.

Good reason

- 8 Regulations may for any purpose of this Part provide for—
- (a) circumstances in which a person is to be treated as having or not having a good reason for an act or omission;
 - (b) matters which are or are not to be taken into account in determining whether a person has a good reason for an act or omission.

 - (b) an alteration—
 - (i) in any element of universal credit,
 - (ii) in the recipient’s benefit income,
 - (iii) in any amount to be deducted in respect of earned income under section 8(3)(a) of the Welfare Reform Act 2012,
 - (iv) in any component of a contribution-based jobseeker’s allowance,
 - (v) in any component of a contributory employment and support allowance, or
 - (vi) in such other matters as may be prescribed,affects the computation of the amount of universal credit to which he is entitled.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (2) Where, as a result of the alteration, the amount of universal credit to which the recipient is entitled is increased or reduced, then, as from the commencing date, the amount of universal credit payable in the case of the recipient under the award shall be the increased or reduced amount, without any further decision of the Secretary of State; and the award shall have effect accordingly.
- (3) Where, notwithstanding the alteration, the recipient continues on and after the commencing date to be entitled to the same amount by way of universal credit as before, the award shall continue in force accordingly.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies where a statement is made in the House of Commons by or on behalf of the Secretary of State which specifies—
- (a) in relation to any of the items referred to in subsection (1)(b)(i) to (vi), the amount of the alteration which he proposes to make by an order under section 150, 150A or 152 or by or under any other enactment, and
 - (b) the date on which he proposes to bring the alteration in force (“the proposed commencing date”).
- (5) If, in a case where this subsection applies, an award of universal credit is made in favour of a person before the proposed commencing date and after the date on which the statement is made, the award—
- (a) may provide for the universal credit to be paid as from the proposed commencing date at a rate determined by reference to the amounts of the items referred to in subsection (1)(b)(i) to (vi) which will be in force on that date, or
 - (b) may be expressed in terms of the amounts of those items in force at the date of the award.
- (6) In this section—
- “alteration”—
- (a) in relation to any element of universal credit, means its alteration by or under any enactment;
 - (b) in relation to a person’s benefit income, means the alteration of any of the sums referred to in section 150 or 150A by any enactment or by an order under section 150, 150A or 152 to the extent that any such alteration affects the amount of his benefit income;
 - (c) in relation to any component of a contribution-based jobseeker’s allowance or a contributory employment and support allowance, means its alteration by or under any enactment;

(b) any other prescribed benefit.
- (3) In this Schedule “appointed day” means the day appointed for the coming into force of section 1.

Claims before the appointed day

- 2 (1) The provision referred to in paragraph 1(1) includes—
(a) provision for a claim for universal credit to be made before the appointed day for a period beginning on or after that day;
(b) provision for a claim for universal credit made before the appointed day to be treated to any extent as a claim for an existing benefit;
(c) provision for a claim for an existing benefit made before the appointed day to be treated to any extent as a claim for universal credit.
- (2) The provision referred to in paragraph 1(1) includes provision, where a claim for universal credit is made (or is treated as made) before the appointed day, for an award on the claim to be made in respect of a period before the appointed day (including provision as to the conditions of entitlement for, and amount of, such an award).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

Claims after the appointed day

- 3 (1) The provision referred to in paragraph 1(1) includes—
- (a) provision permanently or temporarily excluding the making of a claim for universal credit after the appointed day by—
 - (i) a person to whom an existing benefit is awarded, or
 - (ii) a person who would be entitled to an existing benefit on making a claim for it;
 - (b) provision temporarily excluding the making of a claim for universal credit after the appointed day by any other person;
 - (c) provision excluding entitlement to universal credit temporarily or for a particular period;
 - (d) provision for a claim for universal credit made after the appointed day to be treated to any extent as a claim for an existing benefit;
 - (e) provision for a claim for an existing benefit made after the appointed day to be treated to any extent as a claim for universal credit.
- (2) The provision referred to in paragraph 1(1) includes provision, where a claim for universal credit is made (or is treated as made) after the appointed day, for an award on the claim to be made in respect of a period before the appointed day (including provision as to the conditions of entitlement for, and amount of, such an award).

Awards

- 4 (1) The provision referred to in paragraph 1(1) includes—
- (a) provision for terminating an award of an existing benefit;
 - (b) provision for making an award of universal credit, with or without application, to a person whose award of existing benefit is terminated.
- (2) The provision referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(b) includes—
- (a) provision imposing requirements as to the procedure to be followed, information to be supplied or assessments to be undergone in relation to an award by virtue of that sub-paragraph or an application for such an award;
 - (b) provision as to the consequences of failure to comply with any such requirement;
 - (c) provision as to the terms on which, and conditions subject to which, such an award is made, including—
 - (i) provision temporarily or permanently disapplying, or otherwise modifying, conditions of entitlement to universal credit in relation to the award;
 - (ii) provision temporarily or permanently disapplying, or otherwise modifying, any requirement under this Part for a person to be assessed in respect of capability for work or work-related activity;
 - (d) provision as to the amount of such an award;
 - (e) provision that fulfilment of any condition relevant to entitlement to an award of an existing benefit, or relevant to the amount of such an award, is to be treated as fulfilment of an equivalent condition in relation to universal credit.
- (3) Provision under sub-paragraph (2)(d) may secure that where an award of universal credit is made by virtue of sub-paragraph (1)(b)—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (a) the amount of the award is not less than the amount to which the person would have been entitled under the terminated award, or is not less than that amount by more than a prescribed amount;
- (b) if the person to whom it is made ceases to be entitled to universal credit for not more than a prescribed period, the gap in entitlement is disregarded in calculating the amount of any new award of universal credit.

Work-related requirements and sanctions

- 5 (1) The provision referred to in paragraph 1(1) includes—
- (a) provision relating to the application of work-related requirements for relevant benefits;
 - (b) provision relating to the application of sanctions.
- (2) The provision referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(a) includes—
- (a) provision that a claimant commitment for a relevant benefit is to be treated as a claimant commitment for universal credit;
 - (b) provision that a work-related requirement for a relevant benefit is treated as a work-related requirement for universal credit;
 - (c) provision for anything done which is relevant to compliance with a work-related requirement for a relevant benefit to be treated as done for the purposes of compliance with a work-related requirement for universal credit;
 - (d) provision temporarily disapplying any provision of this Part in relation to work-related requirements for universal credit.
- (3) The provision referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(b) includes—
- (a) provision for a sanction relevant to an award of a relevant benefit to be applied to an award of universal credit;
 - (b) provision for anything done which is relevant to the application of a sanction for a relevant benefit to be treated as done for the purposes of the application of a sanction for universal credit;

PERSONAL INDEPENDENCE PAYMENT: TRANSITIONAL

General

1 (1) Regulations under section 93 may in particular make provision for the purposes of, or in connection with, replacing disability living allowance with personal independence payment.

(2) In this Schedule “the appointed day” means the day appointed for the coming into force of section 77.

Claims before the appointed day

2 (1) The provision referred to in paragraph 1(1) includes—

(a) provision for a claim for personal independence payment to be made before the appointed day for a period beginning on or after that day;

(b) provision for a claim for personal independence payment made before the appointed day to be treated to any extent as a claim for disability living allowance;

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (c) provision for a claim for disability living allowance made before the appointed day to be treated to any extent as a claim for personal independence payment.
- (2) The provision referred to in paragraph 1(1) includes provision, where a claim for personal independence payment is made (or treated as made) before the appointed day, for an award on the claim to be made in respect of a period before the appointed day (including provision as to the conditions of entitlement for, and the amount of, such an award).

Claims after the appointed day

- 3 (1) The provision referred to in paragraph 1(1) includes—
- (a) provision permanently or temporarily excluding the making of a claim for personal independence payment after the appointed day by—
 - (i) a person to whom disability living allowance is awarded, or
 - (ii) a person who would be entitled to an award of disability living allowance on making a claim for it;
 - (b) provision temporarily excluding the making of a claim for personal independence payment after the appointed day by any other person;
 - (c) provision excluding entitlement to personal independence payment temporarily or for a particular period;
 - (d) provision for a claim for personal independence payment made after the appointed day to be treated to any extent as a claim for disability living allowance;
 - (e) provision for a claim for disability living allowance made after the appointed day to be treated to any extent as a claim for personal independence payment.
- (2) The provision referred to in paragraph 1(1) includes provision, where a claim for personal independence payment is made (or treated as made) after the appointed day, for an award on the claim to be made in respect of a period before the appointed day (including provision as to the conditions of entitlement for, and the amount of, such an award).

Awards

- 4 (1) The provision referred to in paragraph 1(1) includes—
- (a) provision for terminating an award of disability living allowance;
 - (b) provision for making an award of personal independence payment, with or without application, to a person whose award of disability living allowance is terminated.
- (2) The provision referred to in sub-paragraph (1)(b) includes—
- (a) provision imposing requirements as to the procedure to be followed, information to be supplied or assessments to be undergone in relation to an award by virtue of that sub-paragraph or an application for such an award;
 - (b) provision as to the consequences of failure to comply with any such requirement;
 - (c) provision as to the terms on which, and conditions subject to which, such an award is made, including—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (i) provision temporarily or permanently disapplying, or otherwise modifying, conditions of entitlement to personal independence payment in relation to the award;
- (ii) provision temporarily or permanently disapplying, or otherwise modifying, any requirement under this Part for a person to be assessed in respect of any of the questions mentioned in section 80(1) or (2);
- (d) provision as to the amount of such an award.

Supplementary

- 5 Regulations under section 93—
- (a) may secure the result that any gap in entitlement to disability living allowance is to be disregarded for the purposes of provision under the regulations;
 - (b) may make provision about cases in which provision made by regulations under section 80(2) (required period condition) is to apply with modifications;
 - (c) may, for the purposes of provision made by virtue of paragraph (b), provide for a period of entitlement to disability living allowance to be taken into account in determining whether a person meets “the required period condition” for the purposes of section 78(1) or (2) or 79(1) or (2).
