

International Development (Official Development Assistance Target) Act 2015

2015 CHAPTER 12

3 Accountability to Parliament

- (1) The only means of securing accountability in relation to the duty in section 1 is that established by the provision in section 2 for the laying of a statement before Parliament.
- (2) Accordingly, the fact that the duty in section 1 has not been, or will or may not be, complied with does not affect the lawfulness of anything done, or omitted to be done, by any person.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the International Development (Official Development Assistance Target) Act 2015, Section 3.
