Schedule 8 to the Counter-Terrorism and Sentencing Act 2021 comes into force,

- (b) the offence—
    - (i) is an offence under section 42 (criminal conduct) as respects which the corresponding offence under the law of England and Wales is listed in Part 1 of Schedule 13 to the Sentencing Code (except in paragraph 9 of that Schedule) (terrorism offences), or
    - (ii) is an offence, other than one for which the sentence is fixed by law as life imprisonment, that is determined to have a terrorist connection under section 69 of the Sentencing Code (as applied by section 238(6)),
  - (c) the court does not impose either of the following for the offence (or for an offence associated with it)—
    - (i) a sentence of detention for life under section 209, or
    - (ii) an extended sentence of detention under section 254 of the Sentencing Code (as applied by section 221A of this Act), and
  - (d) the court would, apart from this section, impose a custodial sentence (see, in particular, section 260(2)).
- (2) In determining for the purposes of subsection (1)(d) whether it would impose a custodial sentence, the court must disregard any restriction on its power to impose such a sentence by reference to the age of the offender.
- (3) The court must impose a sentence of detention under this section.
- (4) Subsections (4) and (5) of section 252A of the Sentencing Code apply in relation to the term of the sentence.
- (5) Where an offence is found to have been committed over a period of 2 or more days, or at some time during a period of 2 or more days, it must be taken for the purposes of subsection (1) to have been committed on the last of those days.”
